WINNERS OF COMMENCEMENT HONORS

Miss Edna M. Wagner of Wilmington, Del. and Miss Cora H. Sigafoos of Colmar, Pa. have been respectively designated by the faculty as valedictorian and salutatorian of the senior class. These young ladies have done most excellent work as students at Ursinus and there has been little doubt concerning their choice for the Commencement honors.

Miss Wagner was graduated from the West Chester State Normal in 1909 and entered Ursinus in the fall of 1910. She has been identified with the musical, literary, and religious activities of the college, and is a member of the Modern Language Group.

Miss Sigafoos completed her preparatory work in Lansdale High School with honors in 1910 and was enrolled at Ursinus the same year. She is a member of the English Historical Group, and has been an active participant in the literary and religious organizations about the College.

On account of ill-health Miss Sigafoos has asked that her oration be given to another person. In view of this fact, Maurice A. Hess of Mont Alto, Pa. has been appointed by the faculty to serve in this capacity.

Dr. Omwake addressed the men of the college on Sunday morning in Trinity Reformed church. He spoke of the need of educated young men in Sunday school work. The largest gathering of the year was present to hear him; about fifty in number.

DEVEREUX PLAYERS PLEASE AUDIENCES

Afternoon and Evening Performances Are Excellent Renditions.

The Devereux players entertained several hundred people on Friday afternoon and evening in the performance of two of Shakespeare's comedies. "As You Like It" was the afternoon bill and "Twelfth Night" was rendered in the evening.

It would be as difficult to say which of the two performances was the better as it would be to say which thespian was the best actor.

Miss Fisher and Mr. Devereux deserve special praise for their interpretation of the leading parts in both performances, and their fellow players gave them excellent support.

The day was ideal, and the staging added much to the enjoyment of all. One imagined himself back in the early seventeenth century when all the acting was done sans stage property.

The faculty is to be commended for having secured such excellent entertainment for the students and their friends.

Students' Recital.

The annual recital by the students of the Music Department was held in Bomberger Hall on Saturday afternoon. Though the audience was somewhat small, it was very appreciative of the excellent program which was rendered. The numbers were well adapted to their performers and showed thorough preparation. Mastery of detail and sympathetic interpretation marked the entire program.

A song cycle, "Flora's Holiday," came as a most fitting climax. The music was pleasing and was charmingly sung. The chorus work of the cycle is especially worthy of mention. The singers who rendered this part of the program were: Miss Furman, soprano; Miss Klein, alto; Mr. Small, tenor; Mr. Robinson, bass.

Many of the boys are enjoying themselves on the warm days by a plunge in the Perkiomen.

The Christian organizations are preparing to tender a reception to the incoming students next fall. Committees have been appointed to prepare a program.

VARSITY WINS FINAL BIG GAME

The Boys Come Back in Closing Up Collegiate Schedule.

Ursinus lost the jinx in playing Rutgers on Saturday when the Red, Old Gold and Black team was victorious by a score of 8 to 2.

We looked forward to a pitchers' battle when Jennings was selected to take the mound for our opponents as he pitched an excellent game against Penn. However, our boys reached him freely as the box score shows.

This game finishes the collegiate schedule, although a game is to be played on Wednesday with the Alumni. Our record is twelve victories, one seventeen-inning tie, and five defeats, two of them being in contests lasting longer than nine innings. Only once were we defeated by more than a two-run lead.

Saturday's box score follows:

EDITORIAL

Now that it is all said and done we wonder just what the examinations have accomplished. We as students have unpleasant memories of midnight crams and five o'clock risings, of entering classes with fearful hearts and muddled brains. But what of the faculty? Do our papers tell them truly what we know and what we don't?

There is one advantage in a final examination and that is the gathering together of the loose strands of our work and weaving them into a whole. But it is a question whether the knowledge we gain thereby is lasting; whether better work could not be done during the year if the gathering together process was not deferred until the close of the term.

Would not a system of monthly tests and marks on daily recitations be more beneficial to the student as well as reveal to the professor what knowledge of the subject the student has? There would be a motive to keep one's work up to date so as to eliminate the eight or nine crams. If a system of exemption in finals would be introduced a still greater incentive to work would be placed upon the student.

The greatest disadvantage to a 'student' in finals is that the fellow, who has not done his work during the year, who has an excellent memory, may 'buckle down' in the last few days and cram enough to pass his exams with a better mark than the one who has worked faithfully during the term, but because of nervousness or a poor memory is unable to do well in a final examination.

We shall be glad to publish the opinion of the faculty on the honor system adopted by the students to go into effect at the beginning of next term. There seems to be some question whether or not the faculty will ratify the action of the student body.

A few words from those who know will be appreciated by our readers.

CHRISTIAN ORGANIZATIONS

A vesper service of the Y. M. and Y. W. C. A. was held on Wednesday on the campus adjoining Bomberger Hall, it being the final meeting for the collegiate year.

The meeting was in charge of the seniors—Mr. Hess presiding. Special music was rendered by Miss Snyder who sang a solo with much expression, and a mixed quartette, composed of Misses Furman and Snyder, Messrs. Pritchard and Thena, rendered an appropriate selection.

Ex-president Boyer and Prof. Hirsch made short addresses. The speakers emphasized the value of the work of the Associations and the individual benefits derived therefrom; that upon leaving college the temptations will be greater; therefore, it is the duty of each individual to stand fast in the faith and join some Christian organization, thereby reaping not only an individual benefit but rendering a great service to the people of a community by virtue of intimate association with them.

ALUMNI NOTES.

Francis Gildner, '00, is a successful lawyer at Allentown, Pa.

Robbins, '13, has been re-elected to his position as teacher in the Bridgeton, N. J., high school at an increased salary.

Rev. Philip Vollmer, Ph. D., '99, of Dayton, Ohio, supplied the pulpit of the First Presbyterian church at Newark, N. J., on May 24.

Dr. A. H. Laros, ex-'99, of Northampton, Pa., made the address at the unveiling of a monument, at the above mentioned place, on Memorial Day.

Revs. E. F. Wiest, D. D., '93, and C. B. Heinly, A. M., '00, made addresses at the rededication of the Reformed church at Jefferson on May 31, Rev. Narhan Sechler, '90, pastor.

A very interesting program, in French and German, was recently rendered by the students of Allentown College for women, under the direction of Miss Katharine E. Laros, '00, who is head of the department of modern languages in that institution.

Whitney and Fogel's "Introduction to Kant" is about ready for the press. It is a book especially adapted for undergraduate instruction, and valuable for studies devoted exclusively to Kant. The many sidelines of his system are pointed out, and frequent use is made of selections, which are skillfully joined by interpretative comment. Prof. Fogel is a graduate of the class of '03, and is at present a member of the Faculty at Princeton University.

Velvet
 THE SMOOTHEST TOBACCO

OVER the hills with dog and Velvet is companionship indeed!

Velvet, the finest leaf from old Kentucky—aged by time—the only make-sure process. The leaf hangs in the old warehouse for over 2 years—gradually changing from green to mellow—then you get the smooth, full flavored, good tasting smoke that the southern planters themselves like. Never a bite in such tobacco. Velvet! Don't forget!

Scrubs Lose Last Game.

The Ursinus reserves completed their schedule on Saturday afternoon by losing to the strong Girard College nine by the score of 1-0.

Ziegler, the local pitcher, did excellent work allowing only three singles. Girard scored their only run in the first inning through Seaman's overthrow in attempting to catch Guch off first.

The reserves have played twelve games of which seven were victories. Score:

Ursinus 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0

COLLEGE NOTES.

The condition of Corrigan, '16, who has been ill of typhoid fever for seven weeks, is not much improved.

The Collegeville High School commencement exercises were held in Bomberger Hall on Monday and Tuesday evenings.

At a meeting of the newly elected senators last week Minich, '15, was elected president and Thena, '16, was elected clerk.

Many alumni and friends are returning to the college for the commencement exercises and we extend to all a hearty welcome.

Mrs. and Miss Ermold entertained the seniors on Saturday evening at their home, Olevian Hall. A delightful time was the experience of all.

Deininger, '15, and Reigel, '15, spent Sunday at the latter's home. In the morning they heard the Rev. Merton preach on the child question.

A few of the members of the graduating class have secured positions for next year. Boyer has secured an excellent position in Fayette county. Elicker is to be assistant principal of a high school near Long Island City, and Fisher is to be in the high school of our neighboring town of Royersford.

NOTICE TO SUBSCRIBERS.

You can aid the manager very much if you will. Many of you will not reside in your present locations next September. We have no means of ascertaining your new address. A WEEKLY sent to your old address will not be forwarded to you and many times we are not notified of its not being accepted. As a consequence the WEEKLY misses you and you miss the WEEKLY. To avoid this, send your new address to the Managers as soon as possible. A word to the loyal is sufficient.

JUST TO REMIND YOU---That one-third of the subscription money due the "Weekly" is still outstanding; And that, with Commencement less than one week off, our bills are becoming more pressing than usual, and that, in order to close the year successfully, a 11 subscription money should be by June 10.
