FRESHMAN DECLAMATION CONTEST

The Annual Freshman Declamation Contest held under the auspices of the Zwinglian Literary Society took place in the auditorium of Bomberger Hall on the evening of Washington's Birthday. Eight contestants participated, and every declamation given was excellent. Everyone feels that it was one of the best contests held in recent years. The contestants and their subjects were as follows:

"The Old Actor's Story," Boyd H. Lamont; "Stubby's Bouquet," John K. Wetzel; "Ben Hur's Chariot Race," Albert F. Long; "Give Me Liberty or Give Me Death," David Lockart; "The House Divided against Itself," John N. Kantner; "Americanism," Bennett K. Matlack; "Roderick Lee," Walter C. Yingst; "The Unknown Speaker," Paul W. Yoh.

The judges, who were C. G. Hoag, of Haverford, Rev. H. W. Bright, of Norristown, and E. Clarence Emery, Esq., of Norristown, awarded the first prize, ten dollars in gold, to John N. Kantner; the second prize, five dollars in gold, to Paul W. Yoh, and honorable mention to Bennett K. Matlack.

The music was furnished by the Ursinus College Orchestra.

1910 BASEBALL SCHEDULE

The schedule for the 'Varsity and Reserve baseball teams are now almost completed. Although they have not yet been officially approved by the faculty, there will no doubt be very little change.

Twenty-two games have been arranged for the 'Varsity. Among the new teams which appear in this year's schedule are the Army, Harrisburg Tri State, Bucknell and Georgetown, and a game with Pennsylvania State pending. Relations with Susquehanna and Seton Hall have been resumed. The University of Penna. and the Indians do not appear on the 1910 schedule. This is due to the impossibility of finding a date satisfactory for meeting Pennsylvania, and to the fact that the Indians do not play baseball this season. The Scrub schedule includes nine games and is among the best that the second team of Ursinus has ever had.

Owing to a mistake, the baseball schedules were printed before the manager had fully completed the arrangement of the games. As a result, the receipts will have to do some extensive interlining to have a correct schedule.

MISS SOPER AT COLLEGE

Miss Maud Soper, a missionary to Japan now on furlough, and travelling under the auspices of the Student Volunteer Movement visited the college this week. On Sunday afternoon Miss Soper made a very eloquent address in behalf of the foreign field. She emphasized the fact that in choosing one's life work the foreign field and the home work should receive equal consideration. To do this justly and intelligently, we must know what is being done and what is to be done abroad and at home. The speaker then urged those present to take up some form of Mission Study.

Twenty-two young men have expressed a desire to join such a class. The first meeting is to be held at 1.30 p. m. Sunday.

'93, S. T. Rev. Jesse H. String, the energetic pastor of Maple Ave. Reformed Church, St. Louis, Mo., is the author of a splendid letter on Home Missions in the "Outlook of Missions."

NEW PIANO FOR THE CHAPEL

The Board of Directors has purchased of the Miller Organ and Piano Company of Lebanon an extra large, new, upright Krakauer piano for the college chapel. Through the generosity of one of the directors, an instrument of extraordinary quality and value has been secured. This action will be especially appreciated by the Faculty and students of the College and should lead to an improvement of Chapel services.

FINANCE COMMITTEE ENTERTAINED

The Finance Committee of the Board of Directors held its monthly meeting in the office of Mr. Harry E. Paisley at the Reading Terminal in Philadelphia, last Monday afternoon.

After the business session the members were entertained at dinner in a private dining room at the Central Y. M. C. A. by the Rev. J. M. S. Isenburg, chairman of the committee. These present were President Keigwin, Vice-President Omwake, Mr. H. C. Gresh, Mr. H. E. Paisley, Mr. J. W. Ebert and Secretary F. F. Blessing. While partaking of the bounties before them, the gentlemen discussed features of the financial campaign, the progress of which is highly encouraging.

President Keigwin left yesterday for Montreal where he has been invited to deliver a series of addresses and to lecture before the students of McGill University. He will return to New York at the end of next week.

Dr. Omwake is announced to speak on "The Stewardship of Life" at Laymen's Missionary Conventions at Greensburg, Pa., and Akron, Ohio, on Tuesday and Friday evenings of next week respectively.

Rev. J. L. Fluck, '88, of Myerstown, Pa., preached in the Reformed Church at Mt. Aetna on last Sunday morning. On February 20, Rev. Fluck will preach a special sermon to the P. O. S. of A., which will attend in a body.

On Saturday evening, Rev. H.S. Shelley, '97, of Willow Street, Pa., gave a musical and literary entertainment at his church. Rev. John C. Chambers, of Franklin and Marshall College, assisted in the entertainment, and delighted the large audience with several readings.

EDITORIAL

The annual Spring House-cleaning speech, as the students commonly call it, occurred in the chapel on Monday morning when the relations of the young men to the young women in the institution were discussed. Loitering in the halls and the impropriety of taking a lady's arm while escorting her was the specific trend of the remarks upon this occasion, and every few sentences of the speaker were interspersed with laughter and hand clappings.

Everything taken into account however, we feel that more harm than good is done by these public lectures. They cause no end of amusement to be sure. But that is not the object of these speeches by any means. To see the result of such a speech, one only has to stand outside the chapel doors after the morning service and hear the remarks of students. For example, on the morning in question, one enthusiastic Junior coming out of chapel, shouted, "Hurrah, that makes an extra page for 'The Ruby'"; another commented on "what a good story it would make for the 'North American'!" That illustrates what the results of these speeches are.

We do not mean to say that the authorities should not correct any infringement of rules or rectify such improprieties as may come under their notice. But why should not the offenders be interviewed privately? As was said, they are merely a handful. Since the offenders are known and are so few in number, why could they not have been seen in the office? These parties would have taken the warning in an entirely different light. As it is, with the student-body laughing at them, they feel defiant rather than penitent—a bad attitude for a student to take toward superiors.

The method of approaching the subject has furthermore subjected persons who are accustomed at times to accompany young ladies, to ridicule and tauntings on the part of their fellows, when in fact they have not been guilty of any infringement. We realize that it is not in our place to criticize, but we feel that it is no more than fair to all, to express a student attitude.

It would seem that a word of wisdom is necessary to the students making use of the College reading room. The purpose for which this room is used are many, but the attitude with which it should be occupied is undoubtedly absolute quiet and nothing else. There are certain periods in the day when the atmosphere is anything but placid. In the morning when the Philadelphia papers arrive there is quite a bit of confusion which is entirely unnecessary. Let every student think this matter over for a moment and exercise a little more consideration for the rights of others.

SOCIETY NOTES

ZWINGLIAN

A departure was made from the regular miscellaneous exercises on Friday and the evening was given over to a mock court trial. The case to be tried was the Commonwealth vs. Charles Behney charged with the larceny of chickens. Those taking part were: Judge Maeder, '10; District Attorney, Lindaman, '10; Assistant District Attorney, Dunseath, '10; Counsel for defence, Moser, '10 and Douthett, '12; Court crier, Yoh '13; Clerk, R. S. Thomas, '10; tipstaff, Bransome, '13; Sheriff, Gerges, '11; Foreman of Jury, Mertz, '10; Witnesses for protection, Miss Thomas, Keyser, Davis, Wagner, Gerges; Witnesses for defence, Behney, Kerschner, Matlack, Misses Fernier, Austerberry and Latshaw. The jury returned a verdict of guilty but the Judge granted a motion for a new trial. During the evening Messrs. Horten, Wagner and R. S. Thomas rendered an instrumental trio, "Orpheus in Hell" and Misses Fernier, Fisher and Bauer a vocal trio. Yoh,

SCHAFF

A general literary program was held in Schaff on Friday evening. The following numbers were rendered: Music, Schaff Orchestra; Piano Duet, Misses Scheuren and Heebner; Impromptu Speeches, Messrs. Heinly and Billman; Mixed Chorus, Miss Saylor, leader; Operetta, "Penelope," Characters: Pitcher, Spears; Tosser, Saylor; Chalks, Stewart; Mrs. Croaker, Miss Dunn; Penelope, Miss Saylor; Gazette, Editor No. 2, Miss Saylor.

Under voluntary exercises, Prof. Caldwell and Prof. Holzwarth gave short addresses; Misses Bartman and Saylor played a duet, Mc-Karahar recited a selection called "Kelley's Dream" and "The Cotters Saturday Night" was given by Billman. An instrumental quintette including Messrs. Matz, Kichline, Saylor, L. Lauer, and W. Lauer rendered "Annie Laurie."

PERSONALIA

Alfred M. Brumbach has resumed his studies at the college after almost a month's absence due to the illness of his father.

Paul Heritage, ex-1910, now a student at the University of Pennsylvania, was the guest of Wagner, '10, at the college on Washington's Birthday.

Rhoades, '08, was a visitor at the college on Tuesday and Wednesday.

Miss Fermier, '10, took advantage of the holiday on Tuesday to make a trip to her home in Mahanoy City, Pa.

Slonaker, '13, spent Friday and Saturday of last week at Perkiomen Seminary, Pennsburg. He heard the home concert of the Glee Club of that institution on Friday night.

Dunseath, '10, preached in the Ironbridge chapel on Sunday night. Considering the bad weather, a goodly number were out to hear him. A number of students took advantage of the good walking and were present. A quartette composed of Messrs. Small, Faust Mertz and Stewart also sang.

Behney, '12, was visiting friends in Philadelphia on Saturday and Sunday of last week.

We are greatly indebted to Rev. J. E. Stone, '00, of Thornville, O., for a number of Alumni notes. We hope that others will kindly respond.

Wagner, '10, went to Philadelphia on Wednesday to hear the Hess-Schroeder Quartette.

Miss Deck, '12, spent Tuesday and Wednesday of this week with friends at Dickinson College, Carlisle, Pa., where she was formerly a student.

Fogelman, '10, and Coach Price were in the city on Saturday in the interests of the Minstrel Show which will be given in April.

Mertz, '10, Stewart, '13, and Jacobs, '13, spent part of Monday and Tuesday in Philadelphia in looking over the car strike, and in seeing what they could do to help the good work along.

Abel, '09, was a welcome visitor at the college on last Friday and again on Tuesday. "Vic" is studying law at Penn.

Dr. Omwake was in Harrisburg last week and spoke before the State Railway Commission in the behalf of the townspeople, in reference to rates of fare on the trolley-road here.

The regular Wednesday evening meeting conducted by M. C. Jacobs was well attended. The subject for consideration was, "The Divinity of Jesus," which the leader developed in part as follows:

"One thing about Jesus Christ is admitted and acknowledged by all who have heard of him, and that is he stands alone; of all the men the world has produced he is the greatest. There are many, however, who cannot comprehend the divinity of Jesus. But all have to decide the question that came to Pilate; "What shall I do with this man Jesus?" Those who cannot believe him divine cannot say what he is; if they say he is all human they find undeniable facts in his life that are incompatible with such a statement.

In Christ alone is perfection; he stands out pure among the impure and clean among the evil. Almost all religions have some good teachings but Christ has combined all the good in his. It has stood the cruel test of time and those who call themselves Christians are becoming more numerous daily.

The supreme test of the divinity of Christ and finality of his sacrifice is in his relation to the individual. In Christ alone can peace be found; no one who has surrendered his heart to the Son of God has been uncomforted. Christ alone gives peace to the pardoned sinner. The testimony of millions of hearts confined by true human experience goes out with one accord saying, "Jesus Christ is 'The Son of The Living God.'"

Y. W. C. A.

A special meeting of the Y. W. C. A. was held on Monday afternoon at four o'clock, at which Miss Soper, a returned missionary from Japan, spoke. The speaker gave an excellent account of the work being done among the Japanese women. Especially she told of the many difficulties to overcome and the numerous obstacles to surmount in order to win them to Christianity. The only way to gain their confidence is by getting down to their level and associating with them in their homes. It is by this means that the girls learn to know and to love the missionaries, and then is the opportune time for telling them of the love of Jesus Christ. Many of them have no conception whatever of a God. They have their innumerable gods of wood and stone, and to these they bow, day after day sending up petitions and making sacrifices. After learning of the Christ they are induced to attend Christian schools, where they are made more susceptible to the truth. A great many of these girls go out and are missionaries to their own people.

Miss Soper brot before the association the pictures to real living girls, who, previous to this time, had been merely visionary forms to many of the members. Considerable interest was aroused and several of the Y. W. C. A. girls expressed a desire to start a mission study class which will be started in the near future.

Rev. J. W. Meminger, '84, of St. Paul's Church, Lancaster, delivered a stereoptican lecture last Saturday evening at Rohrerstown, Pa., on "Ben Hur." The lecture was greatly appreciated by a large audience.
