MEETING OF URSINUS UNION

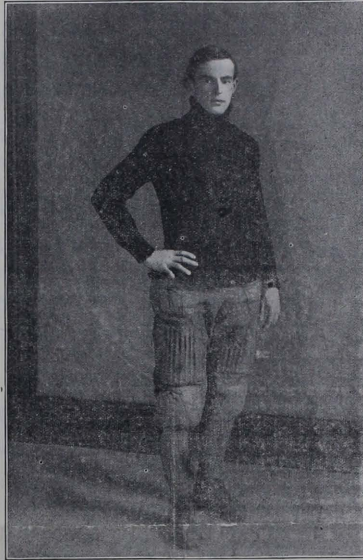

The first meeting of the Ursinus Union is to be held on next Monday evening, October 19th, at 7.30 o'clock. Several weeks ago the Executive Committee met and made out a program for the monthly meetings throughout the scholastic year.

The first meeting will be the occasion of a paper and report from the Chemical-Biological Group. The representative, Krusen, '09, will read a paper on "Vaccination, Its Origin and History." This will be followed by a report from Dr. Fox, the group adviser. As is the custom, the paper and report will be open for discussion and remarks.

The Ursinus Union is an organization emanating from our Group system. Its aim is to broaden the student intellectually. A student who is pursuing work along his chosen line will become dwarfed and narrow in branches not immediately within his province.

The Union aims to prevent this by having all the Groups and Departments of Instruction alternate in giving reports of the latest developments in their realm of learning.

The recently revised constitution has effected that every student of the collegiate department is a member of the Union by virtue of his enrollment. The dues feature has been eliminated, so that membership is within reach of all. Owing to lack of members the Union has had a struggling existence for the past few years which greatly handicapped the working plans, but with every undesirable and objectionable feature remedied, successful work and cooperation from all is assured.

LECTURE COURSE ENTERTAINMENT

The first entertainment of the Lecture Course will be held on Tuesday evening, October 20, at 8 o'clock, when the Metropolitan Glee Club will be the attraction. The Glee Club comes highly recommended by President Keigwin, and several of the students who have heard the young ladies perform say they are premiers in their line.

The students and townspeople have responded nobly in the sale of the season tickets, and from present appearances everybody will be there. To those who have no course tickets the admission will be 50 cents for every entertainment. A ticket for the five entertainments sells at $1.25. Seats are reserved free of charge. The chart is at present open to the public.

Y. M. C. A.

The Y. M. C. A. held its regular mid-week service on Wednesday evening. The subject was, "The World for Christ." The lesson was taken from St. Mark 16: 15. The meeting was conducted by Myers, '09. His remarks led to a missionary study and a plea for more missionary activity. The Northfield delegates reported on the missionary work that was touched upon at the Convention: The call from the missionary fields to college men; the opportunity open to workers in the foreign and home fields; and the exceptional benefits both temporal and spiritual to be derived. Several of the members gave inspiring talks.

After the regular religious meeting, a business meeting was held, where the conditions of the Y. M. C. A. were reported to be exceedingly bright and prosperous. Messrs. O. S. Small of Franklin County and Livingstone Blauvelt of New York City, were elected active members.

CHORAL CLUB ORGANIZED

The members of the College Chorus met last Tuesday evening for formal organization. The organization is to be called the Choral Club of Ursinus College. The officers elected are as follows:

President, Francis T. Krusen, '09; Vice-President, T. W. Stamm, '12; Secretary, Miss Amy Fermier, '10; Treasurer, Mr. Lauks, '10.

These officers in conjunction with Prof. Jolls will constitute the Executive Committee to appoint all sub-committees and discharge whatever business may arise in the life of the club.

THE DEAN'S COLUMN

Our friends will be pleased to learn of the hearty interest which is being taken in music at Ursinus this year. On recommendation of the President, the Faculty proposed to the Board of Directors that a Department of Music be established that should be coordinating with the Collegiate and Academic departments. This proposition was passed by the Executive Committee of the Board, and Miss Anna Pearl Riddle and Mr. John M. Jolls were elected to the teaching staff of the new department. Although this action was taken late in the summer the work of the department was organized and put into operation immediately upon the opening of the academic year in September.

The Faculty of the College determined to give credit toward graduation for courses in the theory and history of music. These courses are open to all regularly matriculated students of the College and the Academy without cost. Courses in practical music are given as private lessons. For this work a fee is charged, although by a special arrangement made by the College with the instructors, the fee is very much less than is received by the same teachers outside of the institution, thus placing within the means of the average Ursinus student first class individual training in both vocal and instrumental music.

A chorus was organized immediately with more than fifty voices, which meets for rehearsal twice a week, and which is now preparing to render a public concert on December 10. The success of the chorus suggested the idea of a Choral Society, which should be the central and comprehensive musical organization of the College and the community. The preliminary steps for the permanent organization of this society were taken at a largely attended meeting last Tuesday evening. It is intended that this organization shall include all persons of the community who wish to become patrons of the movement.

Before the holidays, it is proposed to organize from the membership of the chorus men's and women's glee clubs, after which time one evening of the week will be devoted by Professor Jolls to

EDITORIAL

The eyes of the editorial staff are upon the first Literary Supplement. It will appear in several weeks. Four issues are published at various times throughout the year. The Supplement is in the nature of a literary exhibit, containing the best compositions of the students. An effort is being made at present to secure the honor orations given last Commencement for the first issue. For the remainder of the composition we must depend upon the students.

There are no doubt some here who have literary aspirations and literary powers. For such ones our Supplement is an agent for developing the latent talent. Who knows but that one may discover himself to be a literary Midas, at whose touch every word turns to gold. If you have one talent, don't take the supplement Editors as austere men and bury your one talent in the earth, as it were. If there are any who are inspired by the muse of poetry, we beg of those to furnish contributions. Poems lend a sauce to the plain fare of everyday prose, and also make the columns more attractive. Every one comes to College with ambitions which he hopes to realize, and it is a worthy aim that sometime during the college course one contribute something to the Supplement of the institution's official literary organ.

FOOTBALL

JEFF-MEDICAL GAME

On Saturday our team was opposed by the sturdy eleven of Jefferson Medical College, who made their first visit since 1905, and as on all previous occasions they were severely trounced to the tune of 29-0. It was our first game since the Penn date, and by the eagerness and dash displayed by the Ursinus team it was evident to all that considerable change was effected during the lay off.

At 3 o'clock both teams appeared on the field. Jefferson kicked off to Ursinus, who defended the west goal. Keyser received the ball and advanced it 20 yds. but on the next play Gay was sent through right tackle and after some clever dodging aided by fine interference, he ran 60 yds. for the first touch down. He also kicked the goal.

Ursinus again repeated the kick-off and after repeated gains through the line and end runs K. Thompson was sent over to the second touchdown, but he fumbled as he crossed the line; however, the eagle eyes of our forwards were on the ball, and Gerges fell on it and saved the touchdown. Gay again kicked the goal. After lining up for the next kickoff, Keyser caught the ball and running through a broken field shaking off many tacklers, carried the ball back 70 yds. After a few more line plays and forward passes Gay was again sent over the line for a touchdown which he followed with a goal. At this stage Ursinus was playing fiercely and with but a few more minutes left in the first-half, by steady plunging and some cleverly executed forward passes, they managed to raise their total to 24 points before the half ended.

Although Ursinus made no changes in their line-up for the second half, they could score only once. The Jefferson defense was somewhat stronger, but the inflicting of numerous penalties prevented at least two more touchdowns for our boys. Although the score may indicate a one sided game, nevertheless the contest was a very interesting one to witness. The Jefferson attack was very weak and could make no gains through our stone wall defense. The Ursinus team as a whole played well and helped one another to such an extent that many extra yds. were added to their credit when their runners had the ball. Gay, Bunting, Keyser and Isenberg all made spectacular runs while West who in the absence of Capt. Abel had charge of the team, showed good generalship and executed numerous forward passes in a clever manner. The punting

PROFESSOR HAINES ENTERTAINS
On Thursday evening the Senior members of the Historical-Political Group were delightfully entertained at the home of Professor and Mrs. Haines. The early part of the evening was spent in discussing business plans concerning the Group, while later on the time was given over to a general, social intercourse which in turn was followed by dainty refreshments served by the hostess. After a hearty indulgence and having spent a pleasant evening the guests departed with a lusty cheer for their entertainers.

FOUNDERS' WEEK HOLIDAY
As a result of a formal appeal to the Faculty signed by a majority of the students, last Friday was declared a holiday for the college and academy. All scholastic exercises as well as Literary Societies were suspended. Students to the number of sixty-three were taken to the City from Norristown on a special train, and after seeing the city by means of auto busses the entire company engaged a stand on North Broad Street from which they witnessed the Historic Pageant.

SEMINARY NOTES
A most interesting feature of the session of the Ohio Synod was the dedication of the Seminary buildings to a sacred use. Rev. A. C. Shuman, of Tiffin, O., presided, and fraternal greetings were given by Dr. G. A. Funkhouser of the U. B. Seminary, Dayton, O., Dr. G. W. Moorhead of the U. P. Seminary, Xenia, O. and Dr. S. A. the training of these bodies, and one evening to the chorus.

It is easily foreseen that this widespread interest in music among the members of the college community means much for Ursinus and for Collegeville. It is not too much to expect that in due time this little town may add to its reputation for educational advantages and natural beauty a fame for highly cultivated aesthetic taste and for great musical festivals. The progress toward this end has been thus far most gratifying.

G. L. O.

ROOSEVELT REPUBLICAN CLUB

This is the name adopted by about forty followers of the G. O. P., who met in the early part of the week for organization as a political medium in the college. The National platform of the Republican party, as championed by Roosevelt and Taft, was adopted as the working plan of the Club, and definite steps were taken to make its influence felt in our college circle. The following officers were elected: President, Abel, '09; First Vice-President, Krusen, '09; Second Vice-President, Long, '09; Secretary, Umstead, '09; Treasurer, Knauer, '10.

The Club has already joined the National Republican College League, which has sent pamphlets, pictures, buttons, and other insignia of the party for gratuitous distribution. Plans are being proposed for securing speakers upon national subjects in the near future. It is the intention to have a student's vote sometime before the election. The forming of the club was suggested by the failure of a number of the opposite party to effect a like organization.

PERSONALS

Prof. J. W. Riddle lectured at Skippack last Saturday evening. The subject of his lecture was "The Almighty Dollar."

Maeder, '10, spent three days of last week at Philadelphia visiting his relatives, and also working in the interests of "The Weekly."

Mertz, '10, Lauks, '10, Herber, '11, Keener, '11, Strack, '11, Billman, '12, Brumbach, '12, Saylor, '10, Faust, A. and Glatfelter, '12, pedestrianized to the metropolis of Fraternal Affection last Friday to witness the Historic Pageant. Faust and Glatfelter took turns looking to the tops of the high buildings. Brumbach found Philadelphia to be quite a large town, and said the subway reminded him of their ground-cellar up home. The entire company returned footsore and weary.

Lau, '09, and Kerschmer, '09, spent Founder's Week holiday chestnutting in the Skippack Valley.

Prof. Jolls, of the Department of Music, has been secured as trainer for the choir of Trinity Church, Collegeville.

Fogleman, '10, and Tyson, '10, have been elected into the membership of the Charmidean Club.

Mr. H. T. Watson, who so successfully directed Athletics here last year, is at present coaching the teams at the Mackenzie School, Dobb's Ferry, N. Y. His many friends here wish him unbounded success.

Mr. Henry Omwake, of Greencastle, Pa., the father of Dean Omwake, was a welcome visitor at the latter's home last Saturday and Sunday.

Rev. F. S. Blessing, the Secretary of the College, who personally represents President Keigwin in financial matters, has taken up his residence at 720 Haws Ave., Norristown.

Mrs. W. M. Beach, of New York, recently elected Principal of the College House and Matron of the College, has entered upon her duties. She resides in the College House, Main Street and Sixth Avenue.

Dean Omwake has been appointed by the President as the representative of Ursinus at Haverford College this week, when that institution is celebrating its Seventy-fifth Anniversary.
