SWARTHMORE WINS INTERCOLLEGIATE DEBATE

The debating contest last Monday evening between representatives of Swarthmore and Ursinus was a success in every way. A large audience, a well prepared debate, good music and the reception that followed were the factors which made the contest a memorable occasion. No efforts were spared in making preparations for the affair, and the good spirit shown throughout is worthy of mention.

The question debated was, "Resolved, that the attitude of the Federal Courts toward the use of the Writ of Injunction as indicated by the Buck Stove and Range Company decision, is conducive to the best interests of the people of the United States, all questions of constitutionality eliminated." Swarthmore defended the question and Ursinus spoke negatively. Dean Omwake, Chairman of the Forensic Club, presided, and announced the speakers. All the debaters did well in their direct speeches, and their rebuttals were exceptionally strong, showing careful preparation and thorough knowledge of the subject.

The numbers of the program were interspersed with selections from the College Orchestra. The period of suspense during the judges' deliberation was also enlivened by several thoroughly appreciated orchestral numbers. The judges rendered their decision in favor of the affirmative. For Swarthmore it was a well merited victory, and for Ursinus it was a creditable defeat. We hope the success of the affair will warrant the permanency of the debate between Swarthmore and Ursinus. The judges were Supt. A. S. Martin, of Norristown, H. Howard Vocum, Esq., of Philadelphia and Prof. J. L. Barnard, of Columbia University. Praise is due the Entertainment and Decorating Committees for their splendid work. The program:

RECEPTION

RES MUSICAE

A number of the students aided in the rendition of Buck's "Story of the Cross" in Trinity Church on Tuesday evening. Prof. Jolls directed the chorists.

The chart for the Musical Festival to be held May 6 and 7 is completed and the tickets are now on sale. There is a large demand for the good seats. Tickets may be ordered by mail by communicating with the heads of the School of Music or the Secretary of the College. Admission to single concerts is 50 cents; season tickets admitting to the three concerts cost $1.00.

The Concert by the Male Glee Club at Pottstown which was arranged for immediately after the Easter Recess has been postponed until May 20.

The growth of the College Orchestra has been one of the surprises in the musical world at Ursinus during the year. The music discoursed appeals to audiences, and the organization has added interest to public functions held during the past several weeks. Its leader and members are very enterprising.

The College Male Quartette will give a Concert at Schwenksville on April 17. On April 28 they will appear at Phoenixville for an evening entertainment. The Quartette is in demand. They will also sing several numbers at the Schaff Prize Debate to be held on Friday evening, April 16.

WEEKLY APPOINTMENTS MADE

At a meeting of the Executive Board of the "Ursinus Weekly" held on Monday evening, E. C. Wagner, '10, was elected editor-in-chief for the ensuing year. At the same time the Board approved the members elected by the present Staff to fill the vacancies caused by graduation and resignation. The following are the newly elected members: Moser, '10, Mertz, '10, Miss Dunn, '11, Quay, '11 and Billman, '12. Maeder, '10, and Godshall, '11, were approved for the respective positions of Business Manager and Assistant Business Manager.

A resolution was adopted by the Board effecting that the Business Manager is to present a statement of the condition of the paper at the meeting of the Alumni Association held in June, and present his final statement on or before the following August 31.

The newly elected members of the editorial Staff will assume their duties immediately.

FIELD HOUSE FUND

Subscriptions to the Field House Fund were few during the past week but considering the nearness of Easter vacation it is not unexpected. All students who have given pledges should come back prepared to fulfill them while the others should be ready with a definite answer as to what they will give. The alumni have fallen behind deplorably in helping a cause so necessary to a bright athletic future for their Alma Mater. We hope to receive more responses in the very near future as the school year is drawing to a close, and arrangements must be made for the erection of the building this summer. Substantial progress has been made toward the sodding of the athletic field.

The cash in hand is as follows:
 Amount brought forward $438 50
 Elizabeth K. Long 2 00
 Joseph Rabell 5 00
 Miguel Gutierrez 5 00
 J. H. Poorman 5 02
 F. J. Gildner 10 00
 Total $465 52

Prof. M. A. Keasey, '06, with the Drexel Institute, Philadelphia, attended a meeting of the Executive Board of the WEEKLY on Monday evening. He also heard the debate between Swarthmore and Ursinus.

BASEBALL

URSINUS 5. INDIANS 3.

The college baseball team made a very auspicious beginning of the Easter trip by defeating the Indians at Carlisle by the score of 5-3. The game was hotly contested, and ten innings were necessary before our team could claim the game and that without discredit to the Redskins. The heavy windstorm seemingly had no effect upon either team. The fielding was excellent.

To tell the story of the game in a few words, the Indians could not solve Horten's pitching. There were only five hits secured from him, and twelve Aborigines fanned the air. Three Indians twirlers were used in the box, but our boys kept hitting consistently. Hoover led at the bat with three hits. Abel and Peters also batted fiercely.

Until the ninth inning the Indians led by two runs. Ursinus in this inning lost no time in getting men on third and second, from which places both men scored on a scorching hit close to the foul line. This tied the score. In the tenth, Ursinus registered two more tallies, while Horten retired his opponents without any trouble.

EDITORIAL

Subsequent to the farewell message of the retiring members of the Staff it is in order that a few words, appertaining to the general work of the paper, should appear from the group of students who are to guide the WEEKLY through the next year of its existence. The work of the old Staff is done, but the spirit of confidence and satisfaction of the WEEKLY, produced among the students, alumni and friends of the college by the efforts of the retiring editors, is the foundation upon which we rest our hopes for the future success of the paper.

That the WEEKLY has not more completely awakened a spirit of sympathy among its readers is possibly due to the fact that in recent years the paper has not been thoroughly representative of Ursinus. Its position on questions arising at Ursinus has been, as a rule, too neutral. Though interesting in point of news and other reading matter the WEEKLY has doubtless lost much influence and power by this seeming neutrality. To treat every occurrence with the same even-toned, complacent satisfaction, or to lavish praise upon the mediocre is to lower the value that should be attached to justifiable commendation. There is such a thing as being optimistic to the point of absurdity.

The WEEKLY is a publication edited and managed by the students, and should voice, to a reasonable extent, the sentiments of the student-body. To a fuller accomplishment of this end the new editor and Staff will bend their efforts. We do not aim to reflect a "sore-headed" spirit, but we do feel that it is our duty to offer adverse criticisms when we feel that events fully warrant such a course.

It is also a function of the WEEKLY, not less important than helping to mold student opinion, to be the medium of chronicling the various activities of the students, faculty and alumni of the college. In this we will do well to emulate our worthy predecessors.

If the present Staff can accomplish these things it should surely command the attention of all who love the Red, Old-gold and Black.

ZWINGLIAN

On Friday evening a very interesting debate was held between the Seniors and Sophomores on the question: "That a constitutional amendment be secured by which our senators should be elected by the direct vote of the people." Messrs. Mathieu, Quay, Lorenz and Miss Mary Ansterberry who upheld the affirmative offered the following points:

1. Too much bribery exists under the present election of senators.
2. The system as it stands now withholds the right of suffrage from the people.

3. One man cannot control the vote of the entire people by his personality and integrity of purpose.

4. The demand of the people to elect the senators is bound to be recognized.

The Negative was defended by Messrs. Lau, Custer, Kerschmer, and Long who brought out the following arguments:

1. If senators are elected by the people they in turn will appoint men of their power to office.

2. Every wave of popular sentiment will dominate affairs in the senate.

3. The motives of the framers of the constitution will be defeated.

4. If senatue was elected by the people one house would not be a check on the other.

After the judges decided in favor of the negative a well edited Review was read by Miss Fernier, '10.

day to meet the team of the Academy. The game was played in the morning to allow Ursinus to make the trip to Chestertown, Md., where they played today.

Never since the beginning of baseball relations with Mercersburg has Ursinus been able to win from the Academy boys. Teams are there developed that have been defeating all the largest institutions in the East. Until yesterday the "prep" school had a clear record for the season of seven straight victories, but the 3-2 victory for Ursinus yesterday broke that string of victories and also marks our first victory over the Franklin County boys.

The game in itself was not of the spectacular order. Pownall made his debut in the pitcher's box, and had things his own way. Outside of being wild at times, he simply towed with the heavy stickers of the Academy. He fanned eight men, and hits were few and far between. Against him was pitted Fager, Mercersburg's mainstay in the box. He was touched up for nine hits. Abel and Horten continued their good stickwork with two hits each. Isenberg also registered a pair of safeties, and played a strong game at second.

Ursinus' runs were scored in the second inning. A few misplays were coupled with several timely hits, producing three runs. Mercersburg grew stronger as the game proceeded, scoring in the sixth and eighth innings, but could not make the runs necessary to win.

Weitzenkorn's Clothes

Are just what they are intended to be—garments de luxe—refined clothes, yet designed a wee bit out-of-the-ordinary. They're live, up-to-date young fellows' togs, truly exclusive, unique, happy and original.

This Spring let it be WEITZENKORN'S CLOTHES for yours.
