FOOTBALL

URSINUS VS. DICKINSON

Last Friday afternoon the 'Varsity eleven in good spirits journeyed to Carlisle to meet the strong Dickinson team on Saturday. The Dickinsonians were confident of scoring 25 points upon Ursinus, but in the two long halves of very exciting football were unable to cross Ursinus' goal line. However by means of a place-kick in the first half Dickinson scored four points. The game was replete with forward passes, and punts. No spectacular runs were made, for the field was muddy and covered with water in places. Throughout the game a drizzling rain was falling, making it disagreeable for players and spectators alike.

During the progress of the game many disputes arose concerning downs. Through poor management or some other reason Dickinson's field was not lined off, and the officials were compelled to guess the center of the field and the location of the sidelines. This condition of the field delayed the game somewhat, and was often the cause of losses for both teams.

In the beginning of the game Kerschner kicked off to Dickinson. The ball was caught on the 10 yard line and advanced about 15 yards. Captain Davis at once punted for Dickinson and Paiste returned the punt. By a series of tandem plays Dickinson attempted to make a first down. Here the first dispute arose. The discussion was settled by Dickinson taking the play over. Captain Davis punted, and Ursinus made two first downs before held. Again Paiste punted. Dickinson advanced the ball to Ursinus' twenty-five yard line, but were compelled to punt.

THE SCHUBERT STRING QUARTET

This talented quartet will give a recital in Bomberger Memorial Hall next Thursday evening Nov. 1. As this will be their second performance in this place they should be greeted by a large audience. To those who heard them last year no word of solicitation is necessary. Those who have not we would urge to attend. If you are a musician you will find it a rare treat, if you are not, you will at least be delighted. Every member of the quartet is an artist and the music is of the very highest type.

The price of admission, fifty cents, is within the reach of all. An evening of pleasure and inspiration is assured to all who attend.

"BIOLOGS" OUTING

On Wednesday afternoon Mrs. and Dr. Shaw entertained the former and present members of Dr. Shaw's class in Biology. Not all were present, but at 3.30 p. m. a jolly crowd of 15 fellows and girls set out for the banks of the Skip-pack Creek. As usual, "Toady's" pseudopod-like extremities enabled him to outwalk most of the crowd and he and a "co-ed" were first on the spot.

A place for the camp-fire was chosen on the arrival of the others of the party and then the fun began. The girls wanted a fire for their own use and as a result, a race in fire-building between the boys and girls took place. The girls, of course did not win, and soon took refuge around the roaring blaze started by the boys.

Mrs. and Dr. Shaw prepared supper which just "touched the spot." Every one took gravy with their rice and a few preferred their bananas roasted. All agreed that the coffee was "hot-stuff", especially Fry, who had his fingers slightly par-boiled. This would not have occurred, had not "Doc" Krusen been in a hurry to get at that ham. Burnt fingers don't hurt any way.

After supper, all gathered around the camp fire and songs were in order. Dr. Shaw sang a very much appreciated solo. The old songs by the crowd followed. At about 8 p. m. with great reluctance, they turned their backs upon the scene and returned to the hum-drum existence of "college life."

All present agree that it was the best time socially spent this year.

Y. M. C. A.

Hughes, '08, addressed the regular devotional meeting of Y. M. C. A., Wednesday evening. He took as his subject, "The Secret of a Happy Life." The scripture reading was found in Jerimiah, 15: 16-24. Mr. Hughes said in part:

In the words, "secret" and "happy," there seems to be an especial meaning. The word secret has a tendency to mystify one. The word happy has several different meanings in which it may be construed. Happiness relatively used may mean the acquisition of money, property and various other things. Let us narrow down to a spiritual meaning. A happy person is one that fears the Lord, and happy is the man whom God corrected. Paul in one of his epistles writes: "We count ourselves happy, who endure hardships for the master."

To my mind these are the elements which aid in solving the secret of a happy life:

I. Righteousness.
a. We must eliminate the root of disturbance.

b. We must plant the sapling of righteousness in our hearts.

c. We must nurture it, and give the proper elements for its sustenance.

II. Sincerity.
a. Emerson writes: "Man alone is sincere, but at the entrance of the second, hypocrisy begins." Do not only be sincere when you are alone, but when you are with a crowd, or with the mass.

b. Stand by the helm, guide your boat, and be sincere in all your efforts.

c. Be true to yourself. Another philosopher says that weak persons cannot be sincere. It is necessary to be sincere to possess a strong personality and be a happy man.

III. Truth.
a. Emerson again states: A violation of the truth is a stab at health and human society."

b. Truth always has a bold countenance to the light.

c. Our being ends in the aim to disseminate the truth.

These three elements put belief to action, and make the secret of a happy life more lucid. This leads to a contented mind, which is the true source of all happiness. The growth of the mind results and the newest element of happiness in man is developed.

THE CHAMBERSBURG CONFERENCE

Graduates and friends of Ursinus College in attendance at Potomac Synod in session at Chambersburg, Pa., last week met for conference regarding the College and School of Theology at the home of Edgar R. Appenzeller on Thursday evening at five o'clock. Representatives were present from all sections of the Reformod Church represented by the Potomac Synod.

Rev. Marsby J. Roth, of Hanover, was made chairman of the meeting and Rev. John O. Reagle was appointed secretary. Dean Omwake was present to report on the work of the College and to present the plans of the Finance Committee. Doctor Vollmer spoke of the work of the School of Theology and Rev. J. M. S. Isenberg of the Board of Directors made an address on behalf of the work of the Finance Committee within the church, the field of work over which he has immediate oversight. All the men present took a deep interest in the various features of the work presented, and a hearty determination to give loyal support to the institutions in Collegeville and Philadelphia was agreed upon.

Those present were Messrs. M. J. Roth, J. D. Hicks, W. W. Rowe, F. F. Bahner, J. O. Reagle, D. E. Bowers, G. P. Fisher, C. A. Waltman, C. E. Wehler, J. M. Tyerly, J. D. Andrew, Theo. A. Wright, J. N. Faust, W. A. Koon, Edgar R. Appenzeller and Elders Brodbeck, Emig, Berkheimer of the Synod and G. L. Omwake, Ph. Vollmer and J. M. S. Isenberg of the College and School of Theology.

LECTURE PLANS

The committee on the lecture course has encountered considerable difficulty on account of the lateness of the season, and the impossibility of securing the desired talent on the expected terms. The support from some quarters has also been much less than was counted on when the first encouraging reports from the groups came in.

The committee now feel that to carry out the whole course as planned is beyond their power, and will arrange for the numbers separately. As announced elsewhere the first number will be the Schubert String Quartet, next week. The second will be a lecture by Geo. Wendling on Dec. 5. "The Man of Galilee". Further arrangements will depend upon the support given these two.

EDITORIAL

The Alumni Association of the college are the financial backers of the URSINUS WEEKLY, and are therefore deeply interested in its progress and desire to have a good paper published each week. According to the ideals of the Alumni a good paper must contain a column or two of alumni notes as well as the happenings about the college. Consequently the task of the alumni editor is not an easy one. He must search the church papers for items concerning the alumni, and find his news as best he can. At the annual meeting of the general alumni association the difficulties the alumni editor encounters were discussed, and a plan was set forth by which they might be overcome. A reporter for each of the seven different associations was appointed, whose duty it would be to report the doings of the alumni in his particular association. So far this year no such reports have been made, and of course the alumni notes have been few. If these reporters do their duty there will be easily two columns of these notes each week, and the paper will be made much more interesting to the alumni. Therefore to help make the paper a success we would ask these reporters to fulfill their duty and send their reports to the alumni editor promptly.

College spirit is intangible and indescribable. It is a peculiar something which the members of a true college community possess.

It is the essence underlying all the activities of the student-body. It is that which makes college life worth while and so vital to us. It is that which makes us enter into all college undertakings with vigor and earnestness. If we possess it, we forget to "knock," but spur our fellow-students on to better efforts. When we see things going wrong, we help to make them right instead of remaining inactive and find fault. Let us all strive to become infused with the true college spirit, so that our undertakings as a student-body will be successful and be a credit to our college.

* * * *

All of us are delighted with the showing the 'Varsity made at Carlisle last Saturday, and appreciate the efforts the eleven put forth. To-morrow we meet Haverford at Haverford. This game is considered the best game of the season, as Haverford is our strongest rival among the colleges of our own class. In no better manner can we show our appreciation of the work of the 'Varsity eleven than by attending the game and cheer as we never did before for old Ursinus. Take your megaphones and pennants, and be not afraid to shout for Ursinus and wave the Red, Old Gold and Black.

SOCIETY NOTES

ZWINGLIAN

The program for Friday evening October 19, was debate. The Question: Resolved, That delay in administering justice encourages crime.

The question was discussed on the Affirmative by Messrs. R. S. Thomas, '10, Myers, '10, Leiby, A, and Moore, '07, who brought forth the following arguments.

I. Crimes may be perpetrated while awaiting administration of justice.

II. No chance for justice to be set aside by sentimental petitions.

III. Length of time promotes bribery.

The question was discussed on the Negative by Messrs. Crunkleton, '07, Lindaman, '10, Rhodes, '08, and Koerper, '07 who produced their arguments as follows:

I. Trial by jury is the bedrock of our liberties and deliberation is the inherent principle of such trial.

II. The English constitution is based upon the fact that there are twelve men in the jury box.

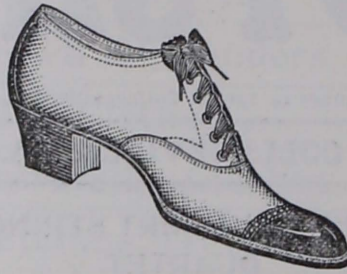

III. Hasty justice is a crime in itself.

Both the judges and the house decided in favor of the Negative.

Under voluntary exercises Toole, '07, rendered a vocal solo and R. S. Thomas, '10, a piano solo.

Mr. R. S. Thomas read a spicy and well written Review. Mr.

SCHAFF

The program for Friday evening was a debate. The question—Resolved, That the United States Government is justified in continuing its present law restricting Chinese Immigration, was well argued affirmatively and negatively. The program opened with a piano duet by Misses Duryea and Messenger.

The chief affirmative, Mr. Myers '07, discussed the question from the legal standpoint.

The first speaker, affirmative Mr. Lenhart, '07, argued that Chinese immigration is injurious to American labor.

The second speaker, Mr. Koons, '09 argued that Chinese labor was injurious to American citizenship.

The negative chief, Mr. Fegley, argued for non-restriction of immigration.

The first speaker, Mr. Danehower argued that Chinese immigration was a good in aiding the building of railroads and public improvements. That the restriction of Chinese immigration restricted also our commerce with China.

The second speaker, Mr. Umstead, '09, argued that Chinese immigration is no menace to American interests.

Mr. Myers officiated as Judge, and decided in favor of the Affirmative. The program closed with the piano solo by Mr. Wismer, '09.

SCRUB GAME

N. H. S. vs. URSINUS SCRUBS.
Last Saturday while the 'Varsity was at Carlisle battling with Dickinson the Scrubs were at home suffering defeat from Norristown High School. The score of 15 to 0 however does not tell the whole story.

In the beginning of the first half, Lutz kicked off for Norristown High to the five yard line. The ball was only returned about a yard before it was downed. On the second play Ursinus fumbled and Norristown got possession of the ball and carried it over for a touchdown. Lutz missed the goal.

During the next part of the game when the High School could not make the required distance by straight playing, they booted the ball out of bounds and every time a Norristown man fell on it. The referee not being as well acquainted with the game as he might have been instead of giving the ball to the Scrubs as he should have done left Norristown keep it. By doing this three times the Norristown team advanced the ball to within a short distance of the goal, when Tanbel made the touchdown. No goal. The third touchdown was made in much the same fashion and no goal was kicked.

In the second half the Scrubs woke up and kept the ball in the High School's territory nearly throughout the whole half. At one time the Scrubs had the ball on the 5 yard line but were held for downs, and at another time Fogelman tried a kick from placement from the 20 yard line, but failed in the attempt. The Norristown team seemed to be in possession of our signals and many times the play was broken up before it was started. If it is found that visitors give the signals away it will be necessary in the future to forbid them the privilege of attending the practices, as great harm may result therefrom.

While the Scrubs made many good individual plays, the team work was not quite as good as it should have been. This can be remedied before the next game, and there are hopes yet for a successful season.

By forward passes and end runs Ursinus rushed the pigskin about fifteen yards with Dickinson's territory, but were held for downs. After an exchange of punts Ursinus again carried the ball to Dickinson's 40 yard line, but were forced to punt, Dickinson by this continued use of the tandem play advanced the ball to Ursinus' thirty yard line, when Captain Davis for Dickinson kicked a goal from placement. Ursinus again kicked off, and downed the runner before he had advanced ten yards. Captain Davis punted, and Kerschner carried the ball back about ten yards. By means of tackle plays and line plunges Ursinus again reaches Dickinson's twenty-five yard line, when Paiste tried to drop-kick a field-goal, which fell about five yards short. Dickinson carried the ball back about fifteen yards, and were soon forced to punt. Davis punted out of bounds, and it was Ursinus' ball on Dickinson's 45 yard line. By means of end runs Ursinus made a first down, when Alspach, receiving a forward pass, carried the ball twenty yards, within three yards of Dickinson's goal line before being downed. Ursinus then tried two tackle plays but couldn't gain. When time was called at end of first half it was Ursinus' ball second down on Dickinson's three-yard line. Score, 4-0.

In the second half Dickinson kicked off to Ursinus and Hain, catching the ball on ten yard line advanced it fifteen yards. Tackle plays by Hain and Quay, and a line plunge by Kerschner obtained first down. Unable to gain Paiste punted, and McWhinney carried the ball back fifteen yards. By a quarter-back run Dickinson carried the ball to Ursinus' 40 yard line. Failing to make required distance in two downs Davis again tried goal from placement but failed. Paiste caught the kick in front of the goal posts and carried the ball back fifteen yards. Ursinus was soon forced to punt. Dickinson forced the ball to Ursinus' twenty-five yard line, when Davis made still another attempt at goal from placement but failed. The kick was caught and ball returned ten yards. Ursinus made three first downs, and were forced to punt. After an exchange of punts, Dickinson tried to gain, but failing, punted a short kick about fifteen yards beyond line of scrimmage. A Dickinson man fell on the ball, and it was Dickinson's ball first down on Ursinus' twenty-five yard line; after five minutes more of play Dickinson rushed the ball within a yard of Ursinus' goal line, when time was called. The last half closed with neither side scoring. The score stood Dickinson 4, Ursinus, 0.

The game was an exhibition of the true Ursinus football spirit. Every man on the team played the best game he knew how. On offense Quay, Hain, Kerschner and Alspach succeeded best, while on defence Heller, Isenberg and Abel played a hard game.

Although not a victory we may feel proud over the result of this game. It portrayed that our eleven is made of the proper "stuff" and that with the proper encouragement can do still better.
