BASE BALL

DICKINSON, 7. URSINUS, 4.

Dickinson, without the services of several of her best players, completely outplayed Ursinus last Saturday, and won a poorly played game by a score of seven to four. Dickinson scored three unearned runs in the second inning and after that the result was never in doubt. Houseman outpitched Mabry, although Dickinson only earned two of their runs. The redeeming features of the game from an Ursinus standpoint were the batting of Paist and Faringer and the fielding of Paist. Snyder made a pretty stop of a ball hit over second base, but it was impossible to get the man at first. Reisner made his first appearance of the year on the varsity and played a good game.

For Dickinson, Latham carried off the honors of the bat, having

EDITORIAL

Examinations are over and the "knocker" will now appear as usual. He always makes it his business to find out the grades of other students and then he carefully compares them with his own. If he does not have as good record as some other student, it is the fault of the professor: he has not been given what he deserves. He can not conceal his jealousy for the other student, but knocks at teachers and pupils alike.

Every college has men of this sort but Ursinus seems to have more than her share. To a new student, this fact is very noticeable, and it certainly is not a good sign of the true spirit which ought to exist at a college. We do not believe that any professor would willingly be unfair. Perhaps when you were putting up an excellent bluff, he was not so stupid after all. The instructor has the records of your class work and is better able to judge than anyone else.

It would be a blessing to the studentbody, if the "knocker" would forget to appear this time. Marks do not count for much at any rate. It is not the marks but the true qualities of a man, which determine success in life.

Every student should remain for Commencement week. The exercises are always interesting and it will do you good to be present. From present indications, there will be a large number of alumni and friends of Ursinus, who will be here. Let us all join in making this Commencement, one of the most successful in the history of the college.

SOCIETY NOTES

SCHAFF

An excellent general literary program was given us on Friday evening by the members of the Freshman class. The first number was a vocal solo, "The Gipsy," by Miss Minta Beck, '09. Miss Beck is the possessor of a very sweet voice and rendered a pleasing selection which was encored. Mr. Koons, '09, then recited "Crossing the Bar" by Alfred Tennyson. Miss Benner, '09, read an essay entitled "Her first year's experience at College." This was a most interesting and witty production and afforded fun for all. A conversation followed among the rivals, Sturges, '09, Krusen, '09, and Landes, '09. The subject of the conversation was "Their Prospects." They cleverly drifted their conversation to the respective Seniors and made it a success. A comic recitation by Mr. Wismer was enjoyed by the Society. Mr. Miller, '09, read an essay, "A plea for the Freshman," which was well written and was a sturdy defence of his class. Miss Spangler read "The Reverie of Poor Susan" by Wordsworth. This was a very pretty selection. An original poem by Miss Minta Beck, '09 was a remarkably clever production. Miss Beck told of the position of the Freshmen in Heaven. An instrumental duet followed by Miss Beck, '09, and Miss Benner, '09. Mr. Sturges, '09, read a very well composed essay. Mr. Umstead, '09, read "Tom Johnson's Quit," by J. Whitcomb Riley. An original story followed by Miss Long, '09. Subject: "Janet Meredith and the Modern Girl", a story sustaining a lively interest throughout. It showed in a pleasing manner the advantages of the modern girl over the old fashioned maiden of long ago.

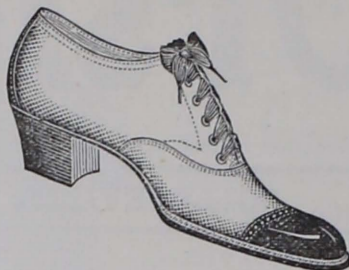

An instrumental duet by Messers Wismer, '09, and Krusen, '09, was a delightful feature in the program and these members responded to an encore.

Mr. Myers delivered a forceful, interesting and spirited oration on "Character." Mr. Myers is a very earnest and eloquent speaker. The Gazette by Mr. Myers was exceptional in that it contained a store of common sense as well as wit and humor. Under voluntary exercises we were well pleased to hear from our former Shaffites, Miss Dessa Ebbert, '05, and Mr. Herbert Schwyer, now of Haverford.

was opened by an instrumental trio by Messrs. Crunkleton, '07, mandolin, Maeder, A, mandolin, and Snyder, '08, guitar. Miss Thompson, '09, recited "Hiawatha's Childhood" in an extremely pleasing manner. Long, '09, then gave a very humorous reading in a very humorous way. That the vocal duet by Hain, '08, and Johnstone, A, was enjoyed immensely was shown by the loud applause for the first selection as well as for the encore. Alspach, '07 read a timely and well written essay on "The Protection of Forests." The humorous recitation by Miss Sponsler, A, was very well given and was enjoyed by all. Stoner, '08, played a cornet solo accompanied by Kerschner, '09, which was thoroughly enjoyed. The orator of the evening was Crunkleton, '07. He spoke very ably on "Practical Patriotism." Fry, '07, read the "Review."

The regular election resulted as follows: President, Brown, '07; Vice-President, Sponsler, '07; Recording Secretary, Leidy, '08; Corresponding Secretary, Miss Sponsler, A; Treasurer, Stamy,
'08; Chaplain, Lau, '09; Attorney,

Hain, '08; Editor No. II, Snyder, grove, A; Members of Board of Directors, Reisner, '07 and Moser,

During the counting of the ballots, Prof. Petersen rendered several German vocal solos in an excellent manner. He was accompanied by Wise, '06. Kerschner, '09, accompanied Wise in several vocal solos. Snyder, '08, and Crunkleton, '07, gave an instrumental duet.

Y. M. C. A.

Mr. D. R. Faringer, '06, had charge of the Senior farewell meeting, Tuesday evening. At the conclusion of the leader's address, all the seniors who were present, spoke of the value of the Y. M. C. A. and its importance in the college.
The meeting was one of the best this year, and the room was filled with enthusiastic students. An abstract of the leader's address follows:

I am glad to see so many of the Academy students present this evening and it is to them that we must look for new members of this organization. It is from men who join the Y. M. C. A. that great results are accomplished. We find in many of the older students an indifference to this kind of work.

DEPARTMENT OF DENTISTRY

Fees for this Department have not been raised for the Sessions of 1005-06

As a distinct part of the Medico-Chirurgical College, the Department of Dentistry offers superior advantages to its students. The clinics of the college present wide opportunities for the practical study of general and oral surgery, as well as supplying abundance of material for practical work in the Dental Infirmary. All the privileges of the students of the Medical Department of the College are accorded to the dental students. A complete system of quizzing conducted by the professors free of charge, obviating the expense of private quizzing and preparing the students for examination. Illustrated catalogue describing courses in full, and containing all information as to fees, etc., sent on request to ROBERT H. NONES, D.D.S., Dean, 17th and Cherry Sts., Phila., Pa.

I remember a man of seventy years of age who did not join the church until death was staring him in the face. He recovered but we should not wait until the twelfth hour.
Let me impress upon you the fact that the majority of our great men of the country have been connected with the Y. M. C. A.'s since their youth, and that is what we must do if we hope to gain that goal of life for which every earnest heart is striving. For my part I am sorry that I did not join the Y. M. C.
A. sooner than I did. I am glad however, to have belonged to it when it made one of its best, if not the best record. The Y. M. C. A. of Ursinus College is not a dormant body and unknown outside of the college walls. But is an active body taking part in the great world movement of Y. M. C. A. work and its work is known far and wide. To belong to the Y. M. C. A. is a part of college life; if you do not belong, then you have not attained or reached the right regard for your college; in other words, you do not have all the college spirit that you need.

GLEE CONCERT

The Glee Club rendered its last concert for this season in Alumni Hall at Penn Square Saturday evening. Evidently the fame of the Ursinus Glee had preceded it, for the hall was filled to the utmost with an extremely appreciative audience. The "stunts" of the glee captured the house and the hearty applause demanded many encores.
The soloists were at their best.
Rhodes on the violin and Heller with the flute gave charming little selections from the classics. Fogel-man made his usual hit with his popular songs, responding to several encores. Wise was in his best in "O Heart of Mine." The quartet showed marked improvement and it was received extremely well in its rendition of several negro melodies. The gleemen were delighted with their reception at Penn Square, and are looking forward to next year when they may again appear in Alumni Hall.

Princeton, Yale, Harvard and Pennsylvania have agreed that no post-graduate be allowed to represent them in athletics.

four singles to his credit. Briner caught a good game, and Shaffer and Latham fielded well.
Ursinus scored one run in the third inning. Paist hit for two bases, took third on a passed ball and scored on an out at first. Three more were added in the fifth. Faringer hit for two bases and scored on Snyder's single. Snyder stole second, and Kerschner reached first on an error by Grimm. Both scored a minute later on an error by Latham.

The Academy base ball team defeated the Vesper A. A. of Pottstown in a ten inning game, Wednesday morning, by the score of ten to nine. Thomason pitched a good game for the Preps.

The Seniors were disappointed this week by having their order for Commencement invitations cancelled by the Chas. H. Elliot Co., of Philadelphia. The invitations should have been ready several weeks ago, but the firm always promised to do the work a few days later. Last Tuesday, the Elliot Co., cancelled the order and the Seniors have been forced to write their own invitations. Undoubtedly engraving firms are busy at this time of the year, but such treatment was not expected from a responsible firm like the Elliott Company.

Mrs. Henry Hotz of Philadelphia will sing several groups of songs on Alumni night.

Professor Chandler will deliver the Commencement address at Hatfield on June 9.

Dean Omwake delivered the Commencement address at Trappe last week.

Special attention to commencement exercises.

MARLIN
THE Marlin RIFLE, Model 1892, .32 calibre, is the best rifle made for exterminating pests and torments about a place, as rats, weazels, woodchucks, etc., also for a companion on your vacation trip, combining the good points of the old muzzle-loading squirrel rifle with the convenience and rapid fire of the most improved repeater. It is so constructed that the same rifle uses the following cartridges: .32 short and long rim-fire, .32 short and long center-fire, and is the only repeater made using rim-fire cartridges larger than .22 calibre.
The short cartridges are just the thing for small game while the long ones kill animals of fair size easily. On the first 2000 cartridges used you have saved the cost of a Marlin.
