BASE BALL

Ursinus suffered the worst defeat of recent years when she played Fordham on Saturday. It seemed as if the Fates were against the Ursinus boys for they put up a weird exhibition of how the game should be played, or, to say the same thing in a different way, a good exhibition of how the game should not be played. Errors of omission and errors of commission followed one another in rapid succession, and when the bases were filled in this manner, one or two hits did the rest. Ten hits to twelve for Fordham; ten errors of commission together with as many errors of omission to five for Fordham; only four of Fordham's 20 runs earned; these tell the story at a glance.

Paiste opened the first inning by flying out to left field. Faringer was safe on an error by Hienchcliffe and stole second where he was caught napping. Garcia singled to left and scored on Colyer's two bagger to centre. Kerschner went out on a grounder to third.

Eagan hit to Paiste and was retired at first. Rudolph singled and scored on Hartman's home run to centre chase flied to Roth and McNellis struck out.

In the second Koerper walked but was thrown out at second. Crunkleton reached first on an error by Heydorf. Roth hit to the pitcher forcing Crunkleton at second. Mabry singled and Paiste tripled to centre scoring Roth and Mabry.

McDonald hit to Colyer and was retired at first. Coffee fouled to Faringer. Hienchcliffe singled but was caught off first by Garcia who had the ball in his possession.

In the third, Garcia singled but was thrown out trying to steal second. Colyer struck out, and Kerschner was retired at first.

Heydorf reached first on an error by Mabry. Eagan singled and Rudolph was safe on an error by Garcia, Hartman doubled to right scoring Heydorf and Eagan but Rudolph was put out at home by Roth's good throw home. Chase walked and McNellis reached first on a wild pitch. McDonald hit to third and Hartman scored on Kerschner's low throw home. Coffee flied to Crunkleton and Hienchcliffe struck out.

Koerper opened the fourth inning by hitting a fly to left. Crunkleton hit a short fly to third and Roth struck out.

Heydorf was safe on an error by Mabry. Eagan was retired on an out by Roth. Rudolf flied to Koerper. Hartman singled and Chase tripled two runs resulting. McNellis was retired by Garcia.

Mabry went down in the fifth on a grounder to the pitcher. Paiste reached first on an error by Chase, but Faringer fouled to the catcher and Garcia out.

McDonald was put out by Paiste to Garcia, Coffee singled but was thrown out trying to steal second. Hienchcliffe was thrown out by Kerschner.

Colyer reached first on an error by McNellis, Kerschner singled but Koerper struck out. Crunkleton hit to the pitcher who retired Colyer at third, Kerschner and Crunkleton scored on a wild throw of the pitcher to third, Roth struck out.

Eagan singled. Errors by Kerschner and Colyer were followed by Hartman, three runs being scored. Hartman scored on a pass ball. McNellis reached first on an error by Colyer. McDonald struck out. Coffee hit to second, McDonald being retired. Hienchcliffe tripled scoring Chase and Coffee. Heydorf singled, scoring Hienchcliffe.

In the seventh Mabry was retired on a fly to the pitcher Paiste was thrown out at first by Chase. Faringer singled, scoring on a pass ball and Garcia's single. Colyer struck out.

Rudolph hit safely and Hartman reached first on an error by Colyer. Chase hit to right Roth, fumbling. Chase hit to Abel and Rudolph scored on the throw home. McDonald reached first on a fielder's choice, Hartman scoring. Coffee hit in front of the plate and was thrown out at first, Chase also being retired in trying to score on the play, Hienchcliffe reached first on The Vine and the Branches. This is one of many parables which have been handed down to posterity, and which were taught by Christ during his sojourn on this earth.

It was shortly before his death that he addressed his disciples in the words which have been read in your hearing, and which seem to have been especially designed for them. At least we infer from the manner in which he addressed his followers, that he desired to impress upon them the importance of events which were soon to take place, viz. his death and resurrection, and pointed out to them the responsibilities which they must assume, and the necessity of a staunch faith. Christ knew and felt that the time of his execution was drawing nigh. He knew, also that those simple-minded fishermen had no conception of the significance of what was to pass in a few days. Furthermore he knew, that unless he won their confidence and esteem; that unless he opened their spiritual eyes, they would lose faith in him and his teaching—they would falter when the time arrived in which they were to be put to a test. He also appreciated the fact that he must prepare them for the immense task in which they must play so important a part. Hence we find all along this section of the New Testament—towards the close of Christ's life, that a great part of his time was spent in teaching his disciples; in preparing them for the continuance of the work which he had commenced. They have accomplished their mission, and have long since passed away. They have left with us the Saviour's command. "Go ye into all the world and preach the gospel to every creature."

This has been made very plain to us. It is easily comprehended. God is a loving father. He cares very tenderly for his erring children and patiently toils over us, and by purging, tries to restore the faith of those who have gone astray. He tries to make the dead branches yield fruit. He labors long; he waits and waits. Finally when no indications for betterment set in; when the branch which is a very part of himself refuses to bear fruit; when he sees that the heart has grown cold and the soul hardened, his patience becomes exhausted, and the branch is taken away and cast into the fire, as useless.

SCHAFF PRIZE DEBATE

The fifth annual prize debate of the Schaff Literary Society will be held in Bomberger Memorial Hall on Friday evening, May 4. The subject for debate is that "Municipal ownership and operation is a practical solution to the problem of street railways in American cities." The question will be discussed affirmatively by Harman, '06, Ellis, '07 and Dannehower, '08; negatively by Foltz, '06, Myers, '07 and Beck, '09.

The music will be furnished by the college quartette, composed of Messrs. Wise, Heller, Koerper and Kerschner.

MEMORIAL TABLET UNVEILED

A large congregation assembled in Trinity Church last Sunday, to witness the unveiling and dedication of the tablet to the late Rev. J. H. Hendricks, D. D. Addresses were made by Dr. J. S. Weinberger, Prof. Whorten A. Kline and the pastor, Dr. F. C. Yost. The late Dr. Hendricks was a warm friend of Ursinus and for many years, Secretary of the board of directors.

DR. SHAW ON A LEAVE OF ABSENCE

Dr. Shaw, professor of Biology in the college, and his wife set sail from Philadelphia, last Friday morning, on the Red Star steamship "Menominee." Dr. Shaw has been granted a leave of absence, and will study in France at the Institute de Botanique University of Montpellier. After he has completed his special course of study, Dr. Shaw and his wife will make a short tour of Europe, and will spend some time at Venice.

A donation for the San Francisco sufferers was given by Bucknell students and professors.

Gettysburg has already arranged and published her football schedule for 1906.

Five hundred girls of Bryn Mawr to-gether with their five-thousand or more friends gave a reproduction of an Elizabethan May Day Fete. Visitors from New York, Boston, Chicago, Washington, New Orleans and other distant cities witnessed the gorgeous pageantry.

Bucknell has secured the famous Repasz Band and Orchestra of Williamsport for their fifty-sixth annual commencement.

EDITORIAL

The best thing to give to your enemy is forgiveness; to an opponent, tolerance; to a friend, your heart; to your child, a good example; to a father deference; to a mother, conduct that will make her proud of you; to yourself respect; to all men charity.

The readiness and quickness of the American people in responding to the call for relief of the San Francisco sufferers shows a trait in our national life that is truly commendable.

All nature around us seems to have jumped into life. Everything seems to be animated with new being except the student-body. It and the rest of nature seem to be affected differently by the balmy air of Spring.

Ursinus plays the Indians on Saturday. Come out and cheer the boys to victory. Good, consistent ball playing took a victory from Gettysburg, and encouragement from the student-body will aid in taking a fall out of the Indians.

Ursinus has always boasted that she knows how to entertain visiting athletic teams, and that Ursinus students are not muckers. Let us pause a moment. In both the Albright and Gettysburg games, a spirit was shown at times, which certainly savored of muckerism. Personal remarks were made, and some would-be wits made themselves conspicuous by jeering some of the visiting players. The Freshmen do not seem to understand that college baseball is different from professional, and the remarks which would do very well at a professional game, are entirely out of place at a contest between two rival colleges. The Freshmen are perhaps excusable, because they do not know any better, but the old students have not shown the proper spirit. Personal remarks about our opponents are uncalled for and should be stopped.

To-morrow, we play the Carlisle Indians. They have always shown themselves gentlemen, and have entertained us in the best manner. Let us prove at this game that the old Ursinus spirit still exists, and that there are no muckers at our college.

SOCIETY NOTES

SCHAFF

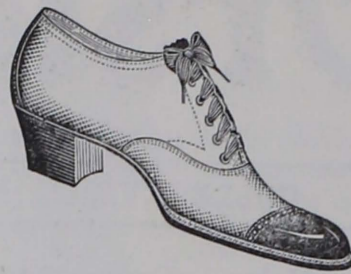

The program in Schaff was rendered by the girls and was general literary in nature. The first number was taken by Miss Benner, '09, who played a very pretty Piano Solo. The Essay by Miss Neff, '07, on the subject "I Told You So," contained some good advice, and was full of quiet sarcasm. Miss Lillian Beck, '08, and Miss Lida Ebbert, '08, gave good Extemporaneous Talks on "Susan B. Anthony" and "The Preservation of Niagara Falls," respectively. Miss Thompson, '08, read an exceptionally good original poem. It was in the form of a prophecy on the Seniors. The recitations were given by Miss Hilda Ebbert, A, Shelly's "Skylark"; Miss Long, '09, "A Translation from the Danish" by Whittier; Miss Minta Beck, '09, "The Leper." They were all well memorized and delivered with expression. The Autobiography by Miss Paiste, '06, was the feature of the evening. It was a most graphic story, full of wit and humor. The Gazette, edited by Miss Duryea, '08, was also good, humorous and well written. The vocal solos by Miss Hobson, '06, and Miss Mathieu, A, were sung with a great deal of feeling. The former sang a Lullaby and the later, "King of the Winds" by David. The last musical number was a trio by Misses M. Beck, L. Beck and Duryea.

ZWINGLIAN

The order of exercises for the evening was a discussion of the subject, Resolved, That the rates fixed by the Interstate Commerce Commission shall be subject to Court review only where the railroads can prove confiscation of property." The affirmative, Messrs. Moore, '07, Stamey, '08, Long, '09 and Rhodes, '08, brought forth the following arguments:

I. The fixing of rates by the commerce commission is purely a legislative act.

II. Both railroad and shipper may have a means of defense through the court.

III. Railroads must be protected because the country's development is dependent upon their success.

IV. Rates fixed by state commerce commission have proved satisfactory and are sanctioned by the courts.

The negative, Messrs. Hamme, '07, Maeder, A and Reisner, '07, ably upheld their side with the following points:

I. Limiting the railroad company in its appeals to the courts in only such cases as where the rates are confiscatory; insuring only a nominal rate of interest, would be doing an injustice to the investors.

II. For the courts to determine what shall be considered a just and reasonable rate seems to be an extension of the judicial power.

III. Any rate approved by the courts as being just, reasonable, and fairly compensatory, should include more than a bare return on capital invested.

IV. The court should be given jurisdiction to set aside rates which are not merely confiscatory.

The judges and the house decided in favor of the Negative. Under voluntary exercises Wise, '06, rendered a very pleasing piano solo. The reading of a well written Review by Miss Behney, '06, concluded the exercises for the evening.

The second team opened their season last Saturday by easily defeating a team representing the department of Veterinary Surgery of the University of Pennsylvania. Shunk was in the box for the scrubs. Although he allowed twelve hits, he pitched a good, steady game and struck out fourteen men. Hains and Reisner batted well for Ursinus, and the visitors' infield played good ball. The final score was 9—3.

YOU AIM AT STYLE
In your clothes and perhaps go to a merchant tailor to get it. You have friends, however, who come here for it, and find style in the famous Rochester tailor made suits and overcoats. They pay half what you do and are just as well served. Are you open to correction? Come in some day and try on one of our models. That will do the business

MARLIN

THE Marlin RIFLE, Model 1892, .32 calibre, is the best rifle made for exterminating pests and torments about a place, as rats, wezels, woodchucks, etc., also for a companion on your vacation trip, combining the good points of the old muzzle-loading squirrel rifle with the convenience and rapid fire of the most improved repeater. It is so constructed that the same rifle uses the following cartridges: .32 short and long rim-fire, .32 short and long center-fire, and is the only repeater made using rim-fire cartridges larger than .22 calibre.

The short cartridges are just the thing for small game while the long ones kill animals of fair size easily. On the first 2000 cartridges used you have saved the cost of a Marlin.

New Marlin Catalog—and our Experience Book that tells what Marlins are doing the world over—Free, for 6c. postage.
