I. CRITERIA FOR ESTABLISHMENT OF AN EXTENSION PROGRAM

- A. ENROLLMENT PRODUCTION: Fort Hays State University, according to Institutional Research, does not make five year estimates rather they use present enrollment figures as an estimate. It has been found to be quite accurate even with a drop in high school population. This is due to an increase in adult learners and certification requirements.

NUMBER ENROLLMENT AND GRADUATES, 1976-79

	ENROLLMENT	GRADUATES
1976	5303	865
1977	5678	1,018

C. INSTITUTIONAL SUPPORT FOR ROTC

The President of Fort Hays State University, the Vice President for Academic Affairs, the Special Assistant to the President, the Dean of Instruction, and even the Executive Director of the Hays Chamber of Commerce have all stated that they are highly in favor of ROTC at FHSU. It is their consensus that such a program would not only be beneficial to the students and the University but to the defense of the nation.

A recent survey of the entire faculty indicated that 67.9% are in favor of an ROTC Program at this University. The Faculty Senate does not convene again until December of 1979, so we can't speak to Senate Faculty support.

Fort Hays State University is willing to provide budgetary, clerical, facilities (office and classrooms, drill areas, indoor and outdoor firing range, storage facilities,) and administrative support to a military science department.

D. STUDENT SUPPORT

A random survey of 100 students was conducted in November 1979. When asked the question:

Do you favor the establishment of an ROTC program at FHSU

64% responded yes

34% responded no

E. QUALITY OF SCHOOL

1. Admission Standards

- a. ACT - Average mean for 1978-79 - 18.8.
- b. SAT - not enough students take this exam to give an average.
- c. Barron's - not available.

2. School Prestige - designated a Servicemen's Opportunity College on 24 Apr '79.

3. Type of School - Kansas Board of Regents (Public)

F. RELATIONSHIP TO HOST -N/A

G. COST OF SCHOOL For 1980/81

- | | |
|--------------------------------------|-------------|
| 1. Total annual cost to students | $2,485 |
| 2. Tuition ($22.75 per credit hour) | 685 - 27½% |
| 3. #2 includes all fees | --- |
| 4. Books | 250 - .10% |
| 5. Room and Board | 1,550 - 62% |
6. These costs are an increase over 1978/79 costs. With the rapid increase in inflation it is expected that ROTC would have a decided appeal to male and female students.

Dear Sir;

In the Oct. 23 edition of The Leader, the article entitled Enrollment Goal Set, there was some mention of the fact that Fort Hays is considering an ROTC program for the 1981 school year. I am a Sophomore here at Fort Hays and have been considering enrolling in Reserve Officer's Training Corp for the past two years. I have been planning on transferring schools since Fort Hays did not have such a program. Consequently, I was very much interested in the fact that the school is considering an active ROTC program.

What I am requesting is any additional information you or your staff could supply me on wheather Fort Hays has a good chance of getting an active ROTC program started on campus. If not, I would be in the position of transferring schools, which I do not espécially want to do. If Fort Hays does have a good chance of getting a program of this type started, I would be very interested in enrolling in this program here on campus. Any additional help you could give me now or after the Armed Forces representative visits the campus would be a great help to me in my future plans.

Sincerely yours,

Douglas Bartlett

Fort Hays State University

Dear Mr. Bartlett:

Thank you for your letter of inquiry regarding ROTC at Fort Hays State.

We are most hopeful of obtaining a Unit at Fort Hays State University for the 1981 academic year and even before that if possible. As you might guess, there is considerable paperwork involved so it will take a few months to get off the ground.

Colonel William Spencer, Area I Commander, 3rd ROTC Region, Fort Riley, Kansas, will be visiting FHSU on December 5, 1979 to inspect our facilities and to assist us in planning.

I hope you will not plan on transferring from FHSU as I feel certain we will have an ROTC Unit.

I will keep you posted regarding the status of ROTC, but please feel free to call me if I can answer any questions for you.

Sincerely,

Ruth A. Locke
