Dear Bill

Things are moving slow to bad I am so well acquainted here all have me spotted. but things I think will be OK in the next few days I have the still pegged but Smith dont seem to be able to break in some way but I have a young man who I think can get in and get the rough of it. Smith and the PM are going to have a reg party tonight I have told him for the large ones and should they fall they will fall hard. I must say in justice to Q.B. he is all right and we will put it across soon now.

any mail for me send in y plain envelope and waf a few to address it as I believe I do not see it. Bill

Keep your eye on Sterwick he has a scheme to get a democrat in Saw's place and one who they can trust so I saw told, the Democrats & Republi-cans are joining so as to beat the League men this fall and E.H. Sterwick is one to put it across Jim Schofield and J.C. Smallwood and another man are around today raising money to defeat the League and put their men across I hear Clarence Parker of the Leland Hotel chipped in $100⁰⁰ so did Robt Barrow of the Second National Bank and some others. I hear a lot of Store keepers went in 50⁰⁰ bucks to save the State all for now and Best wishes
