Dear Dad:

I enclose herewith a letter I just received from Mr. Martin Cross of Elbowoods, North Dakota. Mr. Cross states that he had an appointment with you on Saturday, December 13. Mr. Cross came to Williston with several other people to see you with regard to a petition which he has since mailed to you. He was very disappointed that you had left without advising them that you would not be here, as they had made the trip to Williston especially to see you.

I believe you should write to Mr. Cross and explain the matter to him.

With best wishes,

EUGENE A. BURDICK
