Congress of the United States
House of Representatives
Washington, D. C.

October 9, 1935

Congressman Usher L. Burdick,
Bismarck, North Dakota.

My Dear Colleague,

I have had several requests to receive copies of the bill that you introduced which would have as its objective the reorganization or elimination of the Indian Department. It was my understanding that you intended to push the passage of this bill at the next session of Congress in January.

My secretary wishes to have his best regards sent to Mr. Shoemaker.

Trusting that you are enjoying your respite from Washington duties and with best personal wishes, I remain,

Very truly yours,

B. J. Gehrmann
