*This event is part of the Compliance Speaker Series and will qualify towards the Compliance Concentration requirement.

This event is open only to the Cardozo community. If you register and can no longer attend, please let us know so that we have an accurate headcount for catering purposes.

NLG Lunch Conversation on Housing Law in NYC

Date: Wednesday, November 15, 2017

Time: 12:00 pm

Location: Rm 201

Please join the Cardozo chapter of the National Lawyers Guild for the next installment of our Brown Bag lunch talk series on Wednesday, November 15th at 12pm in Room 201. This week's discussion will deal with NYC Housing Law, with an eye towards career opportunities available for future lawyers in the field. Cardozo NLG members Claire Mooney and Andrew Kopke will lead the discussion which will touch on tenants' rights, alternative living spaces, and new job opportunities available in Housing Law in New York City. The talk will focus on two recent NYC initiatives: the passing of 214-B, which ensures all individuals in Housing Court will be provided with an advocate; and the newly established role of "Night Mayor," a city official who will act as a liaison between New York's nightlife industry and government officials. These issues and more will be examined within the lens of the National Lawyers Guild's continuing mission to value human rights above property rights. Expect a hearty and robust discussion on legal issues and free Chinese food.
