

Yeshiva University, Cardozo School of Law

LARC @ Cardozo Law

Cardozo Law News Brief 2020

Cardozo Law News Brief

4-14-2020

Cardozo Law News Brief: April 14, 2020

Benjamin N. Cardozo School of Law

Follow this and additional works at: <https://larc.cardozo.yu.edu/news-brief-2020>

Part of the Law Commons

Recommended Citation

Benjamin N. Cardozo School of Law, "Cardozo Law News Brief: April 14, 2020" (2020). Cardozo Law News Brief 2020. 11.

<https://larc.cardozo.yu.edu/news-brief-2020/11>

This News Article is brought to you for free and open access by the Cardozo Law News Brief at LARC @ Cardozo Law. It has been accepted for inclusion in Cardozo Law News Brief 2020 by an authorized administrator of LARC @ Cardozo Law. For more information, please contact christine.george@yu.edu, ingrid.mattson@yu.edu.

Campus News

Professor Betsy Ginsberg Speaks to Daily News Regarding Prisoner Who Was Denied Compassionate Release and Comments on Testing Protocols

Professors Betsy Ginsberg and Alex Reinert represented Hassan Chunn as part of a class action petition against the Federal Bureau of Prisons. Chunn was released April 8 but was initially denied compassionate release several weeks earlier. Professor Ginsberg told the Daily News, "It is hard to fathom why he [the warden] took that position, given that Mr. Chunn was two weeks from release and in poor health. In a follow-up article, a judge ruled that the Federal Bureau of Prisons must provide protocols for when they test inmates held in Brooklyn's federal jail for coronavirus.

Professor Deborah Pearlstein Speaks out on Government Leaders' Responses to Pandemic on We The People Podcast

Professor Deborah Pearlstein was a guest on the National Constitution Center's "We The People" podcast to discuss government leaders and responses to the pandemic.

Cardozo Student Works with Boutique Law Firm to Help Small Businesses During Pandemic

When the COVID-19 pandemic hit, Slarskey LLC focused the firm's efforts on handling pro bono legal work for small businesses in New York City impacted by the market dislocation. Tyler Kamperschroer, a Cardozo 1L student, joined their efforts and has been balancing class work with practical legal work.

Professor Kathryn Miller and Criminal Defense Clinic Students Work to Help Incarcerated People During Crisis

Students in Cardozo's Criminal Defense Clinic partnered with the Office of the Appellate Defender to outline legal strategies to advocate for the release of incarcerated people who are vulnerable to harm from COVID-19. "The students worked around the clock to produce this memo. Their work was sophisticated, concise and critical during a time when many organizations were scrambling to determine the best path forward for their clients," Professor Kathryn Miller wrote.

Cardozo Alumni Offer Pro-Bono Services to Small Business Owners During the Crisis

Cardozo alumni are taking the lead in a pro-bono project to help small business owners affected by COVID-19. "We are grateful for the opportunity to be able to give back to these hardworking people by providing high-quality free legal advice and assistance," said Jacqueline Haberfeld '91, Pro Bono Counsel at Kirkland & Ellis LLP.