[Holland, Michigan]

The "Traveling & Begging Guide" of Rev. Albertus C. Van Raalte when he went on fund-raising trips to New York and New Jersey to raise money for the academy building, later known as Van Vleck Hall. He is given clear directions as to where he must travel and whom he should visit. The writer of instructions in the guide is not identified. However, judging from a 1 September 1856 letter of John Van Vleck to Van Raalte, the handwriting of Van Vleck is similar to the handwriting in this document. A letter of introduction to prospective donors by Dr. Thomas De Witt is appended to the traveling guide.

& he will do good for us.

Library

On all proper occasions speak of our need of a school library.

Boxes of books might be collected by some person in the congregation & forwarded to Julian Van Vleck, Holland, Mich. via Mich. Cent. R. R. to Kalamazoo.

Many of the older Ministers might spare musty tomes.

Worthless books we dont want, we cant pay the freight, 6^{cts} per lb.

I wish you could see ^{Long Island} Bethune on this subject. Speak with Garretson on this subject.

Part II

1859

About two years ago, Rev Dr Van Raalte succeeded in collecting mainly at the East, nearly enough money to furnish the Holland Academy with a building sufficient for present purposes, and some needful furniture for the rooms. A foundation was thus laid for permanent progress, but it was only an humble beginning, and we now again bring the wants of the Institution to the notice of its friends.

1859-60

c 1870

First, it is of essential importance that the lot on which the academy stands, should be enlarged. The building is located on an area of five acres, donated for the purpose by Dr Van Raalte. A more eligible site could not have been found in the place, but such was the natural rise of the ground that in order to secure its advantages, it was necessary to get the rear wall nearer the street than would otherwise have been done, leaving between them, a space of but a few feet. Any one on the premises sees the reason and the necessity at a glance, and they were perceived at once by Rev. Mr. DuBois, the present Secretary of the Board of Domestic Missions, when he visited the spot last spring. The property can now be secured at a moderate sum, and the street can be closed, which if delay intervenes, it will be difficult & expensive if not altogether impossible to do. The present is the only time to make sure of shutting the street.

There is needed money likewise for some chemical and philosophical apparatus.
At present the Academy has not even so much as a globe, to aid in instruction.

It is very desirable also that a dwelling be erected for the use of Rev.
Mr. Van De Wall, one of the Instructors. His present quarters are altogether insufficient, whether as regards health, comfort or convenience, and there is no better house in the village, ^{to be hired} even if his salary would admit of his paying the rent.

There remains yet one more urgent want. It was found necessary for every reason to relieve the Principal of the insupportable burden of attending to the boarding of the students. At present, this is provided at the house of a widow, a little distant from the Academy (the only place that would answer even for temporary use) but the arrangement cannot be permanent, for economy and the supervision of the students demand here more than elsewhere, a refectory on the premises under the entire control of the Academy.

In view of the above-mentioned wants, the lowest sum that could be named to meet them would be between three and four thousand dollars.

All the churches here are taxed in various ways to the very last extremity, and struggle nobly to take up applicants for aid in studying at the Academy. They give largely out of great poverty.

If the friends of our Church, and those who are anxious to increase the number of her efficient ministers, do not aid us promptly and liberally, they will see the usefulness of the Academy materially crippled and its opening prospects darkened, if not extinguished.

We therefore earnestly solicit their aid, and trust that our call, which we believe to be the call of the Lord and of His Church will not be unheeded.

Philip Phelps Jr
Principal.

H. A. A. A.

The undersigned is, that been from its foundation, fully acquainted with the wants of the Holland Academy, which have brought Doctor Van Kaalte, at this time, from his home & Church to the East. Those wants have been pressed upon them by the openings of Providence.

The churches composed of Hollanders are in pressing want of ministers & teachers. The want & must have a ministry able to teach.

Their churches are giving the men to educate. The people's liberality abounds out of their poverty and all they ask is that they may be aided so far as to have the means that are absolutely necessary to educate their men for the ministry.

All that has ever been given them heretofore, for this or any other purpose has been faithfully applied & brought forth good fruit - much even an hundred fold. In this fact, the benevolent in our churches have the greatest encouragement, cheerfully & liberally to meet the present application & appeal of Doctor Van Raalte.

His present object is recommended most heartily & with unqualified confidence by the undersigned

Feeling how very desirable it is that Dr Van Rensselaer should make a short work in his collection for the Holland Academy, as his presence is much needed in his own church and in the claps so poorly supplied with pastors, the undersigned will give One hundred dollars each for the object Provided within sixty days from this date twelve persons will join, agreeing each one to give that sum ~~and~~ otherwise this subscription to be void. New York Nov^r 19 1859

Being well acquainted with the history of the Holland Academy I embrace with joy the opportunity of subscribing one hundred dollars, desiring thereby to express in the most emphatic manner my disapprobation of the unprinted article which is to appear in this week's Intelligencer & of which I have seen the proof sheet.
