A letter of A. C. Van Raalte to Philip Phelps. ACVR is back in Holland.

Reference to the gift of Schieffelin. Building plans for Academy buildings.

Rev. P. Phelps.

Holland Feb 2/60.

My dear Brother. —

Now it is your turn to crow. I left out $50... $25... of prof. Van. and $25... of D. Bishopp's payments on the old subscriptions: and Hardenberg of New Brunswick did promise me to pay his $25... on the old list; if I did give him a warning in May: if spared we will not fail in this. — Then I forgot to mention that Mr Schieffelin did pay out already between forty and fifty Dollars, from the ^{in his hand} money, freight etc on the Box with Bibles from the Netherlands: I suppose I did send the receipt to D. Vrijgel I can not find it: this money paid on those Bibles is safe enough, but we shall have to make it out the Bibles, because they are left here. — Those bibles are a gift from a lady to the church. —

Mr Pfundstuehl has a small account against the building, and your improvements must be paid also. —

Please make yourself ready for a plan of buildings for the house refectory bar and woodshed. — I think the public letting soon to be had is quite an object: before the development of summer work it will be taken cheaper.

your friend & Brother.
P.S. When you are ripe then

I am anxious for a meeting of the committee. please call them together when you are ready. —

My dear Brother:

Now it is your turn to crow. I left out $50. - $25. -- of prof Van and $25. of Bisschop payments on the old subscriptions: and Mardenberg of New Brunswick did promise me to pay his $25. on the old list; if I did give Him a warning in May: if spared we will not fail in this. Then I forgot to mention that Mr. Schieffelin did pay out already between forth and fifty dollars from the money in his hand freight etc on the Box with Bibles from the Netherlands: I suppose I did send the receipt to Dr. Oggel I can not find it: this money paid on those bibles is safe enough, but we shall have to make it out the Bibles; because they are left here. Those Bibles are a gift from a lady to the church.

Mr. Pfanst^{ehl}ichi had a samll account against the building and you improvements must be paid also.

Please make yourself ready for a plan of the buildings for the house refectory barn and woodshed. I think the public letting soon to be had is quite an object: before the development of summer work it will be taken cheaper.
