House of Representatives,
July 3, 1848.

Gov. Ransom.

Sir

Not having leisure at this moment for a personal interview, I take this method of requesting you to delay action ^{factum} as to the appointment of a Special Commissioner under the provisions of a Bill for constructing a wharf &c, for the benefit of the Holland Colony, I am anxious for many reasons to receive (if consistent) that appointment. I will seek an early opportunity of conferring with you in reference to the matter

Yours in haste,

W. J. Littlejohn
