PUBLIC ART DUNDEE Cycle Trail

Dundee has an amazing collection of over 600 pieces of public art, including sculptures, murals, mosaics and more. Many of them lie on the existing Green Circular Cycle Route while others are just a short distance away from it. This public art trail is based on the Green Circular with a few deviations on quiet roads or other cycle paths.

This trail has been created by the University of Dundee Museum Services with photographs by the Menzieshill Photography Group and map design and illustrations by James Gemmill. Find out more at www.publicartdundee.org
