Dear Sir

I answered your letter that, required a payment to be made by me, to Mr W^m Norton on your bond to his brother John with much certainty that I would comply with your desire, relying on a decision I expected in my favor against the Estate of Jth. Gordon which terminated contrary in January last, and disappointed me exceedingly, however I hope to have it in my power this Winter to to discharge this sum due.

You, however, can direct it to be paid, I am
