

Suicidal Hanging, is suicide true? A rare case report

ABSTRACT

Hanging is one of the most common methods of suicide worldwide, and is increased in number of deaths by years. This report describes rare case of hanging which was done by the age of 10 year-girl as suicidal hanging of a child is very uncommon. The investigating officer and forensic team immediately visited the crime scene and checked the possible foul play. Autopsy study supported the suicidal hanging with motive.