

To Bill Malone

BOOKS BY THOMAS DIXON

The novels listed below are housed in the Special Collections Room and do not circulate under any circumstances. They may only be used in the Special Collections room. (Most of these copies are first editions and many are in poor condition; they are also very difficult to replace.)

- uncataloged
no cards anywhere*
1. The Black Hood. Appleton, 1924.
 2. The Clansman. Doubleday, Page, 1905.
 3. Comrades. Grosset and Dunlay, 1909.
 4. The Flaming Sword. Monarch, 1939.
 5. The Foolish Virgin. Appleton, 1915.
 6. The Leopard's Spots. Grosset and Dunlap, 1902.
 7. The Love Complex. Boni and Liveright, 1925.
 - * 8. The Man in Gray. Appleton, 1921.
 9. The Root of Evil. Doubleday, Page, 1911.
 10. The Sins of the Father. Appleton, 1912.
 11. The Southerner. Grosset and Dunlap, 1913
 12. The Sun Virgin. Horace Liveright, 1929.
 13. The Traitor. Doubleday, 1907.
 14. The Victim. Appleton, 1914.
 15. The Way of a Man, Appleton, 1919.
 - * 16. The One Woman. Doubleday, Page, n.d.

The library owns duplicate copies of the following of these novels. Although these books are also kept in the Special Collections Room, they may circulate by Special Permission of a librarian.

- uncataloged
no cards anywhere*
1. The Flaming Sword. Monarch, 1939.
 2. The Leopard's Spots. Grosset and Dunlap, 1902
 3. The Root of Evil. Grosset and Dunlap, n.d.
 4. The Traitor. Doubleday, 1907.
 5. The Victim. Appleton, 1914.

*Cataloged
LC*

The two non-fiction books owned by Gardner-Webb are also housed in Special Collections and do not circulate from that room. They are:

1. The Inside Story of the Harding Tragedy. Churchill, 1932.
2. The Life Worth Living. A Xerox copy of Doubleday, Page, 1902 ed.

Books by Thomas Dixon which the library does not own:

- Listed
with several out of print dealers*
1. Companions, Otis, 1931.
 2. Dixon on Ingersoll, Alden, 1892.
 3. Dixon's Sermons. Bussey, 1899.
 4. A Dreamer in Portugal. Covici, Friede, 1934.
 5. The Failure of a Protestantism in New York and its Causes. Strauss
 6. The Fall of a Nation, Appleton, 1916.
 7. The Hope of the World, The author, 1925.
 8. Living Problems in Religion and Social Science. Dillingham, 1889.
 9. What is Religion? Scott, 1891.
 10. Wildacres. Mount Mitchell Association of Arts and Sciences, 1926.

See Cook, Raymond Allen: Fire from the Flint. John F. Blair, 1968 for complete bibliography including plays, articles, scenarios and unpublished work.