Kreger: Late Autumn Sunrise

Late Autumn Sunrise. Jack Kreger

Paris Café Writing Mardelle Fortier

Moon falls over a sidewalk café
and I write in a slow drip of words.
Espresso tries to shake synapses awake
as I scribble on a lonely page.

Two painters pontificate at the next table
while a poem leafs out in the dark.
In the lulls of silence I can almost hear
the faint music at my core.

Hunger drives me from deep inside;
have not eaten all day. I weep
for every artist, striving down solitary streets of the heart.
