ABSTRACT

Professor Sheingold will discuss how the department evolved from the 1940's to the 1970's. He'll provide us a background on the origins of the ECE department on how portions of the Physics, Electronics and the tradition Electrical Engineering (machinery) evolved into the present day organization. The exodus from Annapolis, a review of the past chairmen, and how the campus has changed will be addressed. Additionally Prof. Emeritus Conley Smith has provided videos and images of NPS both here and in Annapolis.

BIOGRAPHY

ABE SHEINGOLD is a Distingusihed Professor Emeritus from the ECE Department. He graduated from City College of New York in 1936. He joined the NPS faculty in 1946 and retired in 1984. Presently Professor Sheingold is a board member for the NPS Foundation.
