Sarah Dardarian is in her fourth year of the Doctor of Musical Arts program in piano performance at the University of Western Ontario and studies with Professor Leslie Kinton. Sarah completed her Master of Music degree also at Western and received her Bachelor of Music from the University of Toronto. Throughout her academic career, Sarah has demonstrated her versatility as a musician, participating in guest masterclasses, opera performances with UWOpera, and numerous chamber and solo recitals. Sarah's passion for music extends to the pedagogical as she is an active private music teacher in London, Ontario. Sarah is currently researching the music of the Armenian composer Aram Khachaturian.
