STUDENT RECITAL

John Lam

Bandmaster John Lam, a native of Owen Sound, Ontario, joined the band in 1985 on bass trombone. He was appointed Deputy Bandmaster in 1991 and Bandmaster in 1995. A graduate of the University of Western Ontario, in performance and education, John has enjoyed many performance experiences with groups such as The Band of the Ceremonial Guard, Brassroots, Intrada Brass and has also toured with the Canadian production of "Les Miserables". For many years, John was the bass trombonist with the Canadian Staff Band and became CSB Bandmaster in 2008.

A passionate music educator, John has enjoyed his career teaching instrumental music in both elementary and secondary schools for the Thames Valley District School Board. He is currently Head of Performing Arts at Glendale High School in Tillsonburg, Ontario. During the summer months, he enjoys teaching at numerous Salvation Army music camps across Canada including the National Music Camp at Jackson's Point.

London Citadel Band

London Citadel Band was formed in 1883 and is part of the world-wide Salvation Army banding movement, praising God and spreading the Gospel through music. All members are professing Christians, whose church home is The Salvation Army and whose membership in the band is part of their service to God, the Church and the community.

In addition to weekly Sunday services, the band presents many concerts in and around London each year. It has travelled widely, touring England in 1976, Bermuda in 1980, the Canadian and United States West Coast in 1987, the USA Southern Territory in 1994, and Great Britain in 1997.
