In consultation with the University administration, the University Libraries will close effective 5 p.m. on Wednesday, March 18. The building will remain accessible by University ID until noon on Friday, March 20, for faculty and students to remove items from their study carrels or retrieve books.

Students, faculty and staff are encouraged to contact the library for remote guidance via email, text, chat, Zoom meeting or phone call.

Please refer to the Libraries' closure website and the university's COVID-19 resources page.
