Digital Magazine Access Expanded

By Tina Beis

To support remote learning, University of Dayton students, faculty and staff can now access a collection of over 1,400 popular magazines digitally using the Libraries' subscription to Flipster, a next-generation magazine service. This temporary, expanded access is available through June 30. Magazines can be viewed online with your UD login; to read them offline, download the free Flipster app.

Instructors can link to class-related publications such as business magazines (Forbes, Businessweek, Bloomberg) and art and architecture (ArtNews, Architectural Digest). Professional development, news and leisure titles are also available, including The New Yorker, The Atlantic, Real Simple, Men's Health, O, the Oprah Magazine, Prevention, People and Shape.

If you need help installing the Flipster app, check out the Libraries' blog post or email library@udayton.edu.
