Dear Frank and Auel:-
Received your letter this morning and glad to hear from both, but sorry Auel has not been well. Now Auel you have got to be careful about what you eat, and keep to the plain home cooked food. These manufactured foods are little else but poison. I sure hope you can come down for Christmas. We will rustle some artillery and get some cotton tails if you come. Once been as you saw, and you can see some of the surrounding trees and
