Honorable Usher L. Burdick, M. C.
House of Representatives
Washington, D. C.

Dear Sir:

I acknowledge receipt of your letter of February 2, and as soon as I have looked over the book on Indian law, I will be glad to return it to you. No doubt Mr. Black Dog will bring it to my office.

I have read with great interest your observations on the Bricker amendment and want you to know that I personally heartily approve your views on the matter.

Sincerely yours,

WALDRON & KENNER
