If Roses Grow In Heaven

*If Roses grow in heaven Lord
Please pick a bunch for me.
Place them in my brother's arms
And tell him they are from me.
Tell him that I love and miss him
And when he turns to smile,
Place a kiss upon his cheek
And hold him for while
Because remembering him is easy
I do it everyday . But there is a hole within my Heart that will never go away.*

Reflections

“ To every thing there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven: A time to be born, and a time to die; a time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted.....”

Ecclessastics 3:1-2

Marlon Olin Everett, was born on September 6, 1977, to the late Willie Olin Everett and Minnie Pearl Wilson Everett, in Statesboro, Bulloch County, Georgia.

He was educated in the public schools of Bulloch County and was a 1997 graduate of Statesboro High School. He was last employed by Sheilds Grass Farms and an avid Georgia Bulldogs fan.

Marlon was a member of Summer Hill Baptist Church. He loved the Lord and the Georgia Bulldogs.

After a lengthy illness, on Friday, February 16, 2018, Marlon was called from labor to reward at the East Georgia Regional Medical Center, surrounded by family and friends.

He leaves loving memories to be cherished by his mother, Minnie Pearl Wilson Everett, Clito, GA; a sister Tonya Everett and two brothers, Deacon Tim Wilson (Vicky) and Willie LeGrant all of Statesboro; eight aunts, Christine Porter (Clinton), Missouri Murray, Beverly Walker, Mary Ann Williams, Elease Everett, Denise Everett, Cynthia Melvin and Donna Everett; three uncles, Anthony Ray Everett (Barbara), William Everett and Douglas Everett and a host of other relatives and friends.
