2022 Commission on Latino Affairs Symposium
Equity and Healthcare and Promotion Beyond the Covid-19 Pandemic
September 21st, 2022

Introduction

The Clemson University Libraries provides top-tier research services to faculty, students, and staff in all research areas. Librarians also act as key research partners by providing in-depth literature searching consultations that strengthen the reproducibility and rigor of scientific research. This poster explores the variety of research tools, databases, and services that the Libraries provide to support Latinx research and researchers in the Health Sciences. Get a blueprint to take your Latinx research to the next level!
