The "Oupnek-hat" is a Latin trans-lation of the "Upanishads," made by Anquetii-Duperron, from a Persian ver-sion of the Sanscrit original, which was published at Strassburg, in two volumes quarto, 1801-1802, under the title "Oupnek'hat, id est, Secretum Leendum." It consists of a group of treatises, expounding a general sys-tem of mystical panthelsm, which arose as a development of the more theosophic element in the Vedas. It is believed that this influenced Schop-
