The freshmen have had a very successful season winning the majority of the games. Soccer practice starts and a regular schedule has been arranged. This soccer practice takes the place of the hockey played in the fall. Tennis will be resumed and the courts are now in shape. Archery will be continued only it will be carried on out of doors.

M.O.C. TRIP APR. 28 AND 29

At the meeting of the Outing Club last Thursday evening in Winslow Hall, plans were discussed for a forthcoming trip to Green Lake. The trip is scheduled for the week-end of April 28, and 29. A bus will leave Winslow Hall at 1:30 Saturday for a cabin on Green Lake. One dollar will cover all expenses. As the trip is limited to eighteen members desiring to go should see either Bob Laverty in 305 Oak Hall, Roger Cameron at Phi Eta, or Win Cushing at Balentine.

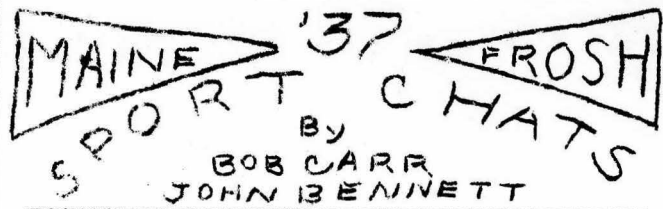

NOTICE

Freshman girls, don't forget the picnic at the Lodge this coming Wednesday at 6:30.

The series of Stag Dances for the year 1933-1934 was successful completed with the dance Friday night sponsored by the Big Sister Council.

With the termination of these enjoyable, weekly affairs we realize that school is almost at an end to the delight of some and the dismay of others.

Larry Miller's Bears furnished the music and the chaperones were Dean Wilson, Dr. and Mrs. Small and Professor and Mrs. Lutes.

A nine-inning baseball game is slated for the coming Saturday between the two squads. As yet the players have no batting practice and those men who show the best hitting ability will clinch the positions which are now being fought over.

This week, Coach Kenyon will introduce a new practice policy to the freshmen baseballers. Owing to the size of the squad baseball practice is slightly inefficient at present. Therefore the coach is to divide the squad into two groups which will practice on alternate evenings.

The outfielders have not yet been allowed to report on account of marshy condition of the outfield. A few days of warm spring sun will quickly dry it and make ready for use.

Romeo Pascarelli, a senior who played second base during his freshman year, is to be in charge of the outfielders when they report.

Kon Webb again was the high scorer for the frosh track team when he got two firsts and one second, totaling 13 points. Bill Hunnewell is still the leading distance man and was second highest scorer contributing 10 points to 1937's track team.

Fuller and Sherry who flashed for Decring Saturday will be Maine men next year and will help shape up the '38 track team.

BLACK BEARS IN BABY BLUE

Everyone knows two facts about the University of Maine, but few outside New England can supply three. Last week newsreaders learned that the University whose hymn is the "Stein Song" and which once harbored Hubert Prior ("Rudy") Vallee, had elected a new president, LaFayette's Dean Arthur Andrew Hauck.

University of Maine is tucked away 68 mi. up the Penobscot River at rustic Orono (pop.: 3,400), eight miles above Bangor. It started out in 1868 with twelve students and two teachers as a State College of Agriculture and Mechanic Arts. By 1897 the school had added a college of arts & sciences and was ready to call itself a university.

Track Meet with Portland

Most of Maine's 1,408 students one-third of whom are women, are women, come from the State's farms and small towns. A student who dresses up is a sissy and one who fails to shout "Hello" at everyone he meets on the campus is a snob. Men wear corduroys and sweaters (Dinsmore please note) add sheepskins and knee boots when it gets cold. For fun they go off on hunting and fishing trips, hoot and stamp their boots in Orono's lone cinema theatre. Each spring freshman and sophomore boys take three days off for their class fight. This year freshman and sophomore girls put on a tussle. Maine goes in hard for athletics, put up $450,000 gymnasium last year and calls its football team the "Black Bears." The University color is baby blue.

This Saturday brings Portland to the pine scented campus to oppose the strong Pale Blue frosh track team.

Bob Allen, '37, was elected manager of the golf team at their meeting last Tuesday. A nominal fee of $2.00 is charged each competing member of the team for the year. The team's schedule is as follows:

May 5	Colby	Waterville
" 19	Boston College	Orono
" 21	State Inter-Collegiate	Orono
" 22	Colby	Orono
