Spectators at the annual Christmas handicap ~~track~~ meet must have been satisfied, because yesterday Coach Jenkins had the handicaps figured out just about right and all the races were thrillers with close finishes and very fast times.

There were no teams competing in the meet- the athletes vied for individual honors with ~~hurry~~ George Frame coming out on top, with eleven points to his credit. Starting from scratch in three events, Frame got a first place in the discus throw, a first in the thirty-five pound hammer, and a third in the shot put.

Probably the most spectacular running of the day was done in the hurdles and dashes. Bottcher, a Frosh, and Johnny Murray, a Sophomore, renewed their rivalry and both came within one-fifth of a second of the record in the two-twenty yard dash. Unfortunately the two dashmen were in different heats and the spectators missed what might have been the greatest race of the day had they run in the same heat. Another rivalry that dates back to high school days was renewed for the second time this year between Johnny Gowell, Frosh, and Webb, Sophomore. Starting ~~eight~~ feet behind Webb, Gowell overtook and passed his rival at the finish of the one-hundred yard hurdles to nearly equal the University record.

The track meet was another display of the ability of the Freshmen as Gowell, Bottcher, Hardison, and Fuller defeated varsity opponents in their events to cop first places.

The trackmen winning places in the meet were well rewarded for their efforts as medals were awarded for first places and ribbons for both second and third places.

EDITORIAL

Aside from the fact that we are looking forward to the Christmas Holidays as a joyful release from the drudgery of daily classwork routine, the vacation will give us a chance to catch up with ourselves. Life moves so swiftly here at college that we seldom, if ever, get a chance to stop and take stock. After we have rested during the first few days of vacation, we will be able to take an inventory of what we have accomplished during the first four months of our Freshman year.

So with the delightful aspect of a pleasant vacation before us, let us leave the University and the studies behind, to take full advantage of the let down, and return ready to start the new year right.

VOTE TO BE TAKEN ON COVER

The staff would like the opinion of the freshman class concerning the front page of the paper. Would the paper be improved if the pictures on the cover were discontinued? The class will vote on this question sometime after the Christmas recess.

WINTER MAJESTY

The stillness of the centuries
 Has dropped upon these woods,
 And through the listening quiet
 The powdery snow-flakes drift.

No sound comes with the deepening dusk

All nature is asleep,
 And silence still remains complete
 Though falls some laden twig,

No bush or tiny forest plant
 But has a deep white fringing,
 And bows its head in meek
 obeisance
 Under the soft cold burden,

The little brook is strangeld still

Caught in a mask of ice
 That turns the sparkling
 water-falls
 Into majestic curtains of lace,

And in this fairy land of beauty
 There's none but God to see
 Night wrap her winter cloak around

This solitude of majesty.

 Evelyn Adriance

GUIDANCE

As I travel up
 The long steep trail
 I come upon deep ruts
 Sharp rocks
 Tis then I turn my eyes
 And watch to see
 How He
 Has made His way...

THE MILITARY BALL

As far as the Freshman, at least, are concerned, the Military Ball was a grand success. Those who attended are: Kay Cox, Alice Collins, Adolphine Voegelin, Ethel Mae Currier, Georgia Taylor, Betty Fournier, Barbara Ware, Lucy Cobb, Bunny Hamilton, Blanche Holman, Betty Bruce, Rose Whitmore, Betty Clough, Cynthia Adams, Cora Sharon, Joanne Stewart, Marjorie E. Thompson, Alice Harvry, Norma Lueders, Amelia Woodman, Walter Davis, Bud Frost, Russel Orr, Dick Bither, and Bill Henderson.

INTRA-MURAL SPORTS

Intra-mural volley ball brought a close last week with the winning of the finals by Phi Eta Kappa. The other winners in their respective divisions were: Sigma Nu and Phi Kappa Sigma. Phi Eta defeated both of these quite easily, however, to claim the title.

Intra-mural basketball will start immediately after Christmas with two leagues, the northern and the southern league. Those out for freshman basketball may not participate in the intramural basketball.

Society

Georgie Taylor went home to South Portland for Thanksgiving.

Evelyn Adriance was the guest of Nancy Hennings, in Deering, over the Thanksgiving holiday.

Barbara Ware spent Thanksgiving at her home in South Portland.

Alice Collins went home to Lewiston for Thanksgiving.

Women in Sports

Evy Adriance is our Freshman representative in the Women's A.A. We all know that she will make a most conscientious and capable representative.

The prospects are pretty good for the Freshmen girl's basketball team this year. From the few scrimmages that they have had, certain girls such as Peg Hinkley, Mary Deering, and Betty Clough are definite promises for the team.

The girl's Freshmen Hockey team (four members) entertained the Frosh Gridders Saturday night. Such a versatile bunch! They indulged in ping-pong, new fangled baseball, shooting basketballs, cards, dancing, and eating toasted cheese sandwiches and drinking hot chocolate, so ably prepared by the girls. No one needs to ask Harpo if he had a good time--with Mary Deering there. Don't worry the party was ably chaperoned by Miss Longyl and Miss Rogers.

Society

Ethel Mae Currier spent Thanksgiving at her home in Caribou.

Kay Cox and Virginia Moore were the guests of Solveig Heisted in Rockport, for Thanksgiving.

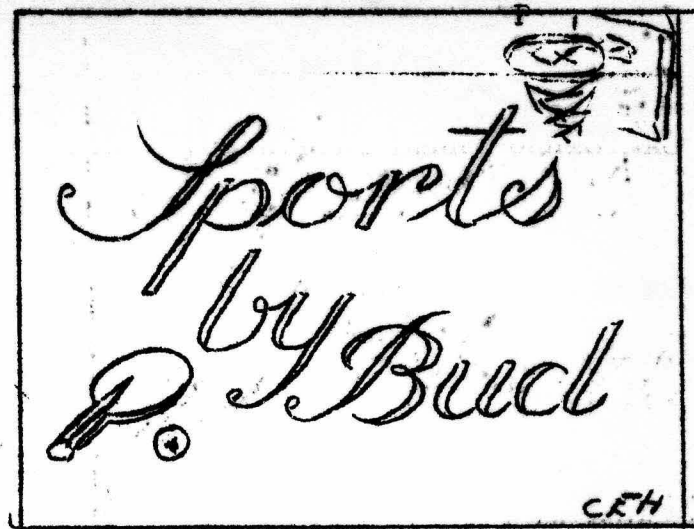

Bob Fuller, Bill Smart, Buzz Sherry, Johnny Gowell, and Don Kelley, and Howard Crafts went to Portland for Thanksgiving with Mr. Fuller.

PING PONG TOURNEY FINISHED

The ping-pong tourney which has been conducted by the Maine Christian Association was brought to a close last Friday afternoon when William Veague defeated George Tsoulas in straight sets 6-3, 7-5, 6-4. Veague will receive a plaque as the reward for winning the tourney. This tourney was started about a month ago with about eighty competing, for Basketball practice for the forsh hoopsters has been going on for the past two. With a squad of about 70 to deal with, Coach Kenynn will have his hands full to pick two teams from this number. There are many fine players among the f freshmen this year, and a fine hopp team will represent the class of '38 this winter.

Once more the frosh ganared in more athletics victories as they made a fine showing in the Christmas handicap. The infloor track schedule for the '38 runners opens on January 19 with the South Portland as the opponents. The next meet takes place on February 16 with Bridgeton offering the opposition. The following week the intramurals will be held. The season come to a close on March 2 and Coburn and Hebron will be the final guests.

After the Christmas vacation the winter sports team will be called into action (if any show). Members of the freshmen class are eligible to represent the University in this sport, and it is expected that many freshmen will take part in this sport the coming season.

The recently organized frosh bowling team gained a moral victory over the stong Theta Chi pin pickers last Tuesday night, when they held the last year's champions to a tie.

With the fall tennis tournament completed the swiners of the tennis racquet will play in the infloor tournament that is going to be held right after vacation. Many freshmen are expected to enter the tourney.

And now ye old sports hasher

THE TOWER OF BABEL

Alumni Hall is one of the best places for couples to spend these cold winter evenings. This information is furnished by Dick Boyer.

Dick Byther has been spending quite a lot of ~~the~~ in Brewer. Could it be Peggy?

When Hildegard Fortin was asked who she liked best, she replied, "Doug Best".

What is the great attraction that the Sigma Chi boys hold for the Balentine freshmen.

Don Adams thinks that Gloucester is the only place in the world. Don't you, Don?

So Getch got cold feet about going on a blind.

What caused the great change in Cora? Wasit Bobbie?

Some of the fellows in Hamlin Hall were quite excited about the Military Ball coming off on Friday night.

BeaLou makes Crono seem closer to Bar Harbor.

We hear that Reidie makes the boys cry. How do you do it? We thought that Finney might be the lucky man but we were wrong. It was Stewart.

And there was Sara Littlefield standing on the chair and wiggling her toes.

Who's Helen Minot's big moment?

Newcomb went to Bates this weekend. We wonder if he made a visit at Colby.

Marjorie M. Thompson wasn't too sick to let Ernie walk her home, anyhow.

We wish Perkins and Ried would tell us why they wear skii pants on heavy dates.

Why did a certain Maples' girl stay on the porch Friday night only until the lights were turned on?

Some of the fellows went on an overnight hoke Saturday night. How did they survive the night?

Isn't it funny how ears get frost bitten?!

Verna has us all beaten. She goes on three dates with one man all on the same night.

'Phone calls at the Maples are becoming quite standardized.

The telegraph system in the boys' dorm is Boyer's newest. Don't ever feed him beans or onions, Bunny.

What will Ruth Robinson do during Xmas vacation with Bangor so far from Lewiston.

Speaking of tact, why not use a little in breaking dates, Mary -Hale?

After much persuasion Boyer cleaned the room.

Is anyone glad that vacation is coming?

Who called up Alice Harvey and told her that her "date" was indisposed?

She followed instructions when it came to ~~falling~~ them "Miss Jack Frost" has been receiving quite a bit of mail lately.

Betty Drummond swore she would not go walking in the cold on Sunday afternoon. Wally must have hidden powers.

June Clement says that Bud is "just a pal" but we have ideas.

Bernie and Mary Hawkes can even dance without music.
