PEABODY HEAD ADDRESSES CHAPEL

Dr. Hill Tells Students To Know Limitations, Meet Life's Difficulties

Dr. Henry H. Hill, president of Peabody College, Nashville, Tenn., addressed the students and faculty of Murray State college in chapel November 12.

Dr. Hill in recalling some of his difficulties that he had faced during his life told his audience that they too would face many difficulties as they go through life.

You need to know your limitations, said the speaker, so get out in life and face difficulties. Two possible goals for everybody in facing difficulties are:

1. Learning to make friends and the way to make friends is to be a friend.

2. To be a success in life without our own limitations we must choose a goal.

Dr. Hill said, "Though you may have some difficulties in your path through life you can grow and grow and grow by meeting some of these difficulties."

President Ralph H. Woods in introducing Mr. Hill said, "that before going to Peabody, Dr. Hill served as dean of the University of Kentucky, superintendent of schools at Lexington, St. Louis and Pittsburg, instructor at the Universities of Virginia, Utah, Duke and Harvard."

Dr. Woods announced that all students should see their department heads and work out a schedule for this winter quarter as soon as possible.

About ninety five per cent of the student body expressed their desire to take flu vaccine as soon as it can be ordered.

Dr. Southall Gives Keynote Of Convention

Miss Rubie Smith, of the Murray education department, was named president of the Kentucky Association for Childhood Education at their annual meeting at Murray State on Saturday, Nov. 8.

Dr. Maycie Southall, member of Peabody College faculty, and past international president of the association, gave the keynote address of the convention: "The Challenge in ACE's Program for Children."

The morning session was presided over by Miss Ruth Dunn, retiring president. Greetings from Dr. Woods, and Anna Catherine Clark, president of the MSC chapter of ACE, were extended to the delegates. The fifth grade of Murray Training school gave the devotional and a group of children from the city schools sang.

Photo Course To Be Offered in Spring Quarter

Announcement is made by the physical sciences department that a course in photography will be offered during the spring quarter. Prof. A. G. Canon, of the physical sciences staff, will be in charge of the course.

The course will be known as "Physics 104," and will be open to a limited number of students who have completed the necessary prerequisite of Physics 102B.

It is believed that this course will fill a long recognized need, heretofore not offered because of insufficient staff personnel. Both theoretical and practical study of the photographic processes will be included in the course.

At the present time, limited laboratory facilities will make it necessary to restrict enrollment. However, with the completion of the new science building, excellent laboratory facilities will be available, and a greater number of students can be accommodated.

The plans for the new building include, four individual darkroom units, and larger facilities for other necessary operations.

Currently, a laboratory which will serve until the science building is completed, is being constructed in Room 105, Wilson Hall. This laboratory will be adequate for the limited enrollment which will be permitted.

'Marshall Plan Simple To State, Impossible To Solve,' --- Lowry

"The Marshall plan is simple to state but impossible to solve," said Dr. C. S. Lowry, head of the social science department, at the conclusion of his speech before the International Relations Club on Tuesday, November 11.

Dr. Lowry's discussion centered around two questions: (1) What is the Marshall plan? (2) What does the Marshall plan propose to do?

In answer, Dr. Lowry said, "The Marshall plan was an announcement by the Secretary of State, whereby the United States would aid the European states in the rehabilitation of the European economy."

Continuing, Dr. Lowry said, "The plan proposes that the European nations get together and decide upon what they need individually, and upon what they need collectively. The European nations must also decide what they are going to do individually to aid in the rehabilitation of Europe."

Truman Doctrine
In discussing the relationship between the Truman doctrine and the Marshall plan, Dr. Lowry said, "The Truman doctrine is an announcement on the part of the United States that it will help its friends and contain its enemies." He also pointed out that the Truman doctrine has never been disavowed.

Further, Dr. Lowry said, "If there is an implication of the Truman doctrine in the Marshall plan, then the Marshall plan is nothing but an instrument to be used in the 'Cold' war between the United States and

U. S. To Extend Aid

As to when the world would know the relationship between the Truman doctrine and the Marshall plan, Dr. Lowry said, "Only when we can see what France, Ireland, Italy and all the rest of the European nations really need. Only when we know what the European countries propose to do about the economic condition within their own country. Only when we know the conditions on which the United States is going to extend this aid."

In discussing the problem confronting the Marshall plan, Dr. Lowry said, "After ten years of war, Europe is in an economic chaos. There has been an incalculable destruction of commercial institutions. The whole economy of Europe has fallen down, and there is no division between labor. The condition is so serious that we can't even stop to consider the Marshall plan. Stop-gap aid must be our first step."

Two Objections

Basically, there are two objections to the Marshall plan said Dr. Lowry. First, the people of the urban areas in Europe have found that they can get better food at a cheaper price from the United States. Thus, the people of the rural areas have no markets for their produce, consequently, they produce less causing greater soil waste. Second, and by far the more important, Russia and by the Marshall plan as an instrument upon the Marshall plan as an instrument (Continued on Page 2)

On Wednesday, November 12, Dr. Ralph H. Woods, formally broke ground for the new science building. Those watching the ceremony are, from left to right, Prof. A. M. Wolfson, Mr. M. O. Wrather, Mr. J. W. Kemper, Mr. P. W. Ordway, Prof. E. B. Howton, Prof. W. E. Blackburn, Miss Ruby Simpson.

Shall We Stand By Idly?

Congress begins a special session today to enact the emergency aid program designed to carry hungry Europe through the trying winter ahead.

The proposed four year European reconstruction program, known as the Marshall plan, has been estimated by Secretary Marshall to cost between 16 and 20 billion dollars. The Secretary of State has pointed out the immediate need for an appropriation of 597 million dollars to support Austria, France, and Italy until the 16 nation program is legislated and is under way.

In his report to the House and Senate Foreign Relations committee last Monday, Marshall estimated the first 15 months of the program to cost $7,500,000,000. The balance of the planned fund is to be used as needed in the remaining years of the recovery program.

The 16 nation program is to help feed and clothe the hungry peoples of western Europe, to aid in European industrial and economic recovery, and to halt the westward spread of communism. Something must be done immediately if the democratic western European states are to survive.

If communism is to be halted, Congress should not hesitate too long in passing measures to put this plan in effect. Hungry people are interested in food, and the government that can supply this is the government they want, whether it be democratic or communistic. The plan must be put into effect to put western Europe in a position where it is capable of supporting itself.

One of the reasons for the present crisis in western Europe, excluding the devastation caused by the recent war, and the crop failure resulting from this summer's drought, is that there is no exchange of goods between industrial western and agricultural eastern Europe. Thus the states of western Europe turn to the United States and other American governments to supply the essential food and other scarce goods.

We are no longer economically independent of the rest of the world. By helping Europe get back on survival footing we can also help ourselves by having a ready market for our goods available for export.

If the Marshall Plan fails to get the approval of Congress, European nations will not be able to purchase our American products. The result of this could mean a recession in American production, with the possibility of this recession turning into depression. If the plan is approved, large shipments will cut down on the already scarce goods and create new shortages for the American consumer.

Let us plan for the future of America now. By helping Europe to recover we help ourselves to greater prosperity. By helping Europe stop the westward movement of communism, we strengthen the democratic governments of the world, thus strengthening our own democracy. If we fail to help the democratic loving people, we are in danger of being one democracy, surrounded by a totalitarian world.

Press Association To Be Reborn

Elsewhere in this issue is a story about a reorganization meeting of the Kentucky Intercollegiate Press Association.

This is good and as it should be. The College News is pleased to know that soon there will be some organization binding the college papers of Kentucky together. This is the only way that student publications can work together as a whole and at the same time forward the cause of a collegiate press and their freedom of expression.

Not intended as destructive criticism is the fact that the first KIPA, during its 15 years of existence, was marked by inefficiency and non-attention. It must be admitted that from the beginning the association had a rather stormy life, due mainly to its methods of electing officers. Those students elected to serve KIPA were usually seniors and the result was that there was no continuity in office. The entire organization was weakened by constant change of personnel, desultory practices, and occasional clashes of personalities.

Several attempts since the war have been made to revive the association but due to lack of initiative nothing was accomplished.

Last year Kipa Pi, the campus journalism club, took as a project, the reviving of the group. Through the work of the club and Kelly Thompson of Western the Kentucky Press Association was approached with the plan that KIPA should be revived under the sponsorship of the state organization.

The executive committee of the KPA approved this plan and accordingly invitations have been extended to state colleges to send delegates to meet with the State Association. This project has the support of the college papers here, at Morehead and the University and it is hoped that others will join.

It pays to pretend you're dumb even if you know all the answers.

Student Lounge Gains Popularity Says Dean of Men

Since the removal of the Student Lounge from the fine arts building to Wilson Hall, it has been gaining in popularity, according to Prof. A. F. Yancey, Dean of men.

The additions to the new lounge are two ping pong tables, making the total four; new paddles; a juke box; a piano; and numerous booths and tables. These facilities are open to all students from 1 to 5 in the afternoons and in the evenings from 7 to 9:30.

The snack bar has been improved. A side feature of school jewelry has been added, including lapel pins, bracelets, charms, cigarette lighters, and stationery—all with the Murray shield on them.

This snack bar is operated by a student-faculty committee for the students. Dean Ella Welhing is chairman. The other members are: Dean William G. Nash, Dean A. F. Yancey, Miss Evelyn Linn, Frank Vittetow, and Miss Marjorie Gaylord.

Bill Coleman and Raford Bebout have been employed to manage the bar. There are no individual profits from it as is the case in concessions.

In the fine arts lounge, the bar operated at a loss. The note is still outstanding but, according to this year's receipts thus far, it is expected to be paid within three months.

All the profits from the snack bar and juke box will be spent on improvements for the lounge. Tentative plans have been made for booth lights on the east wall and a miniature bowling alley. This bowling alley will be approximately 30 feet long and easily movable.

Other improvements and additions will be made if the students desire them and keep patronizing the snack bar and juke box, state officials.

Veterans Hospital Needs Shows, MSC Visitors Find

A recent visit to the Veterans Hospital at Dawson Springs reveals that the patients are in dire need of entertainment, says Barkley Jones, president of the campus Red Cross unit. Particularly, needed is entertainment sponsored by young groups.

On Thursday, November 13, five members of the Murray unit of the Red Cross drove to the hospital to inspect the entertainment and activities program now being carried on by the hospital.

The committee spent two hours going from ward to ward speaking with the patients and with the Red Cross director at the hospital.

Before leaving, the committee decided that the Unit could supply entertainment two Sundays each month.

All students that would be interested in going on one of these trips please contact "Pinky" Pace or Barkley Jones.

Film Library Serves West Kentucky Schools

The cooperative film library at Murray State College began its second year of operation with the opening of the fall quarter and has a total of 138 films available for distribution at the present time.

Located in the basement of the library building, the cooperative service serving schools in Western Kentucky in September of 1946. At present 47 schools have a membership in the film distribution program.

Mr. M. O. Wrather, head of the college extension service, has charge of the project and Mrs. Don Souder is film librarian.

Purchased Films
At the time the organization was formed each school purchased four films on becoming a member. Mrs. Souder distributes, by mail, two films a week to each of these schools. With the beginning of each school year, the schools receive a film calendar for the entire year listing the films they are scheduled to receive each week.

When the films are returned to the college from the member schools, each film has to be unpacked, checked, and spliced. In the past two operators clinics have been sponsored by the college to improve the efficiency of the films always remain in the library.

Structors who wish to show them to their classes on Tuesday, Wednesday or Thursday of each week.

Library Science Majors Conduct Evaluation Study

Library science majors under the direction of Mr. and Mrs. Joe H. Bailey have inaugurated a program to aid the administrators of Trigg County high school in evaluating and selecting suitable books and materials for the school library.

Those students who assisted Mr. Bailey and Miss Mary Bess Cropper, library science teacher, include Misses June Oliver, Jean Wiggins, Mary Carolyn Utterback, Wynell Hopkins, and Carolyn Jones.

Work was done there on November 1, in discarding undesirable and worn-out materials and in selecting additional books to include in the collection.

In time, other library science students will select, order and catalog new materials for the high school, thus creating a work and laboratory class for the courses to be offered in the winter and spring quarters. Through this, the department plans to teach the theories of library science by practical application.

The Trigg County high school served a steak dinner to the workers at the end of the day's project.

Mrs. Mary Ed Hall of the art department was confined to her home Friday with laryngitis.

MORE On Lowry's Speech

ment against them. They see in it implications of the Truman doctrine.

Communism Is Luxury
In discussing the possibilities of Europe turning to communism if the United States refused to send aid, Dr. Lowry said, "Communism is a luxury that only a few can afford." "Desperate people have always turned to the 'right' in their political thinking."

The next meeting of the International Relations club will be November 25. A movie on international affairs will be the highlight of the evening. All students are invited. There are no special requirements for membership, and a student's presence at a meeting is all that is required to be a member.

MURRAY STATE COLLEGE RED CROSS UNIT ADDRESSED BY EASTERN AREA DIRECTOR, MISS HELEN PICKING

Its purpose is to organize activities on the campus for the benefit of the campus and the community. It is under student leadership and supported by a local chapter of the Red Cross.

Miss Picking said that there is a total of 45 units in the Eastern Area. Five of these are in Kentucky.

MURRAY-WESTERN TILT SATURDAY CLOSES GRID SEASON

Rivals To Clash In Fourteenth Grid Game

Murray's Thoroughbreds will play host to their long-standing bitter rivals, the Western Hilltoppers, in Cutchin Stadium Saturday, November 22, bringing to a close the 1947 football season. This will mark the fourteenth time that the Toppers and the Breds have met on the gridiron. Western has an edge over Murray in the victory column, having won seven times. Murray has been victorious three times. Three of the tilts ended in ties.

The rivalry started in 1931 and continued until 1943 when both schools dropped football because of the war. Murray started the sport again in '44 with the aid of the naval unit on the campus.

Resumes Football

We resumed football last year and received the worst defeat in the history of the Murray-Western rivalry. The score—55-6 Murray. This is the highest score that either team has been able to run up.

The scores of the games since 1931 are as follows:

YEAR	MURRAY	WESTERN
1931	0	7
1932	0	6
1933	20	6
1934	27	14
1935	6	20
1936	0	14
1937	7	7
1938	7	21
1939	12	12
1940	0	6
1941	0	0
1946	55	6

The Hilltoppers this year are a much improved outfit. Western lost only two of last year's starting eleven and have been strengthened by a number of freshmen with considerable ability. In Jim Pickens, Western has probably the finest passer in the state. Harold Murphy, Hilltopper back, boasts one of the best kicking averages in the south. He has averaged over 40 yards per kick.

Field Team

Murray will field practically the same team that downed the Toppers last year. End Wid Ellison and tackle Vito Brucchiari were lost to the Murray squad last year by graduation. Jesse Braboy, Rollo Gilbert, Cliff White, Tom Nield, and Tubby Taylor are not on the Murray roster this season. Murray fans have not seen the full power of the Thoroughbreds in action this year. Two players are definitely out for the season. Powell Puckett, captain in the Murray-Western game last year, has been unable to play this season because of a badly sprained ankle.

Evansville Tilt

Don Souder has been bothered this year with an injured knee suffered in the Evansville tilt last year. Murray coaches decided to keep the Indiana back out of uniform for the rest of this season.

Formal Initiation Dinner Planned By Home Ec Club

Members and pledges of the Home Economics club met Thursday, November 6, at 5:00 p.m. President Evelyn Winebarger presided.

The club voted to have its picture made for the Shield at the formal initiation dinner to be given at the Collegiate Inn on December 4.

Program leader, Mildred Rogers, took charge of games in which she conducted a Dr. I. Q. program. The questions were taken from material concerning home economics.

Later members of the club conducted a "get acquainted" party.

JAYVEES BATTLE CAPE ELEVEN TO 6-6 DEADLOCK

Junior Breds Scoring Done In Third Period

Murray's Jayvees and the Southeast Missouri State Teachers College B team battled to a 6-6 deadlock in Cutchin Stadium Monday, November 10, before 500 chilled student fans.

The junior Thoroughbreds defeated the junior Indians 13-0 earlier this season at Cape Girardeau in the first tilt between the two teams.

The second game was a defensive battle with neither outfit picking up yardage via the ground or air routes.

The Missourians picked up their six points early in the first period. Cape punted into Murray territory where the ball bounced off halfback Jones into the end zone. A Cape Girardeau lineman recovered the ball over the Murray goal line for the tally.

The Thoroughbreds collected their marker in the third period when Jones raced 35 yards off tackle to paydirt.

Most of the game was played between the 20 yard markers until Murray threatened late in the final quarter. The visitors held the Jayvees on the ten yard line for downs. Cape lost to its own five. A Cape halfback dampened Murray's hopes when he kicked from his own end zone to the Murray 10 for a sizzling 90 yard boot.

TRAINING SCHOOL COLTS OPEN SEASON ON NOVEMBER 18, WILL PLAY 23 GAME SCHEDULE

The Murray Training School Colts will open a 23 game schedule when they oppose Sedalia on November 18. Coach Johnny Underwood has announced. The sked will include a three day road trip into Illinois where the Colts will meet Golconda and Newman. Golconda is coached by Tim O'Brien, a former Murray student, and Newman is the home of Coach Underwood.

The Colts have been practicing since October 10 in preparation for this year's gruelling schedule. Ralph Boyd, Jimmie Richardson, and Bob Trevathan, all starters last year, form the nucleus around which Underwood is building the '48 edition of the little Breds. Other returning lettermen include Gus Robertson, Bill Peters, Joe Rogers, and Isaac Dowdy.

Manson Coaches Junior Team
Coach Underwood stated that Hal Manson, Murray State football star, would be in charge of the junior high team this year. Manson replaces Hugh Redden, who graduated in the spring.

Practice sessions for the junior Colts will begin around December 1.

The roster as announced by Coach Underwood includes the following:

Team Roster
Ralph Boyd, senior, 6', forward; Gus Robertson, senior, 6'1", forward; Bob Trevathan, senior 6'2",

JIM MOORE

Moore came to Murray in 1938 as line coach and was elevated to the head coaching position in 1941. During the war he served as a Lieutenant Commander in the Navy and saw three and a half years of sea duty. He returned last year to head Murray's first post war team. Moore graduated from the University of Connecticut and got his master's degree from the University of Indiana. He headed the 1941 squad but was handicapped all season by players leaving for service. His squad last year was composed of entirely new men who had to learn the Moore system. Moore is a great exponent of a powerful defense.

Marshall Team Beats MSC 41-20 In Scoring Duel

The Murray State College Thoroughbreds grabbed a 6-0 lead in the first period against Marshall's Thundering Herd but the lead was short lived as the Big Green jumped ahead in the second quarter and went on to trounce the Racers 41-20 in a free scoring battle at Marshall College.

The victory put Cam Henderson's eleven among the nation's top teams with a record of seven wins against a lone defeat to Cansius. Murray's loss made the Thoroughbred record read five victories and two defeats.

Most of the first quarter was a kicking duel between Bob Hartley and Ralph McClain with neither team picking up a first down. The Big Green of Marshall gained ground as the six punts were exchanged as they moved from their own 39 to the Murray 36. Here Marshall decided to open up and Bobby Wellman attempted a pass that was partially blocked by Murray's captain Jack Wyatt.

Intercepted Pass
Paul Ward, Bred tackle, intercepted Wellman's pass and raced toward Marshall's goal line with Max Carlisle trailing him. About to be tackled on the eight yard marker, Ward lateraled to Carlisle who went over for the touchdown.

With Murray out front 6-0, the enraged Thundering Herd came back strong, took the Thoroughbreds' kickoff and marched down field for the game-tying tally and then kicked the extra point to go ahead.

Fieldson and Wetsel alternated to carry the ball to the Murray 26 before the first period ended. On the first play of the second quarter the Big Green moved, the ball to the six but on an end around Bob Koontz was thrown back to the 15. Wellman tossed to Koontz on the one and Wetsel plunged over.

Marshall Scores
The Thundering Herd scored again after Murray punted out to the Marshall 26. Wetsel and Fieldson picked up 64 yards to the Murray ten. They took to the air to score with Wetsel tossing to Fieldson for the touchdown.

After Marshall kicked off to Murray, Tommy Walker fumbled and the ball was recovered on the Bred 25 by McWhorter. Wetsel passed to the 22 to Don Gibson and then the star fullback bulled his way over for Marshall's third score.

At the half the West Virginia eleven was out front 20-6 and had collected eight first downs while keeping the Kentuckians from gaining a first.

First Down

Murray came back strong the second half and pulled within six points of Marshall with a score early in the third period. Murray kicked off to Marshall and the Big Green drove to the Bred 44 where the linemen from Murray halted the drive. Singleton and McDaniel carried the ball for a first down to the 50.

A forward pass from Walker to Wyatt and a lateral from the latter to Bob Sanders netted 18 yards. A pass interference moved the ball to the 16 and Walker passed to Guthrie on the five. Three plays later Neal Hobart carried the ball over.

Miller Recovers
After Murray had kicked off to Marshall the Herd kicked to McClure who fumbled on the Murray 41. Claude Miller recovered for Marshall. Wellman passed to Don Gibson for 29 yards and Fieldson broke through to the one as the period ended. Marshall pushed the ball over from the one early in the fourth period.

Marshall collected two more touchdowns in the final stanza. Singleton attempted a pass into the flat which was intercepted by Willey. Singleton pulled him down a yard short of a score but Wetsel plunged over on the next play.

The kickoff was fumbled by Murray and recovered by Marshall on the 16. Bill Young went 14 yards to score after Gibson had picked up two off tackle.

Trailing 41-13, the Thoroughbreds still had enough power and spirit to push across another tally. Starting on their 13, they used the forward-lateral combination of Walker-to-Wyatt-to-Sanders for a 25 yard gain. Joe Bronson and Winfred Dill combined to carry the ball to the six with Bronson going over for the score.

Paul Ward, tackle from Huntingdon, Tenn., put Murray out front against Marshall's Thundering Herd when he intercepted a pass on his own 35 late in the first period. About to be tackled on the Marshall eight yard line, the fast thinking Ward lateraled the ball to center Max Carlisle who went over for the touchdown.

The Bred Basket

By Fred Lamb

The "mostest horse in the world" died Saturday, November 1. Man O' War, the world renowned thoroughbred, is gone; but the tales of his feats will always live in the history of Kentucky. "Big Red" was the Babe Ruth of horse racing. He lost but one race in his career, and, appropriately enough, it was to a horse named Upset.

The death of Man O' War carried much significance to the students of Murray State, whether they knew it or not. Our athletic teams carry the name of Thoroughbreds in honor of the famed racers that have been a part of the lore of the Bluegrass State. It was only proper that the greatest Kentucky thoroughbred be chosen for the emblem of Murray College athletics.

The Bred athletic teams formerly had a replica of the head of Man O' War on their uniforms. The College News still carries this replica in the masthead. The teams have come to be known as Men O' War. The state, and, especially Murray State, has lost a friend.

According to word received by Carlisle Cutchin, the grand old man of Murray athletics, Bob Salmons has been appointed basketball coach at Queens College in Flushing, N.Y. Bob ranks with the all-time greats among the Thorobreds on the hardwood. He was selected as All-American in 1941 at the National Intercollegiate tourney in Kansas City. Salmons was the most uncanny passer from the pivot post that Murray fans have ever watched.

Tri-Sigs Discuss Shield Pictures

Alpha Chi chapter of Sigma Sigma Sigma held its regular meeting Monday, November 3, in the fine arts building.

Martha James Houston, president, conducted the formal business meeting. Reports were given by Naomi Whitnell, vice-president; Jo Hurdle, treasurer; Wynelle Hopkins, corresponding secretary; and Edna Copeland, recording secretary.

Discussion was held on the Shield pictures and a time was appointed to meet with photographers.

Virginia Nicholson was appointed Scrapbook chairman for the year.

The active members were entertained by the pledges who presented a varied program.

Singing of Sigma songs was conducted by the group at the end of the program.

served with the Army during the war years, and returned to complete his Master's work at Columbia University. Queens College is indeed fortunate to secure the services of Bob Salmons.

The Thoroughbreds of Jim Moore have been the center of quite a bit of bowl talk, but it seems apparent that the Green Wave of Marshall put a damper on any such plan. The Associated Press reported that Murray was being considered for the Tangerine Bowl in Orlando, Fla.—this was promptly denied by the officials sponsoring the Florida classic. Within the past week agitation has been started for a post season game between Murray and Louisville to be played in the Tobacco Bowl in Lexington, U. of L. says they are not interested in any post season game regardless of the opponent. This game would have been a grand opportunity to decide the best in the KIAC—assuming that the Breds will beat Western on November 22. At the present time it appears that Murray will end the season on that date. And we will never know the relative merits of the Cardinals and the Thoroughbreds.

Rumor has it that there will be a football game in Cutchin Stadium on November 22. Jesse Thomas and his Hilltoppers will be out to avenge the record breaking 55-6 score piled on them last year. Jim Moore and his Breds are just as determined to make it two in a row over their heated rivals. Both clubs are stronger this year, but the Toppers have the edge here because they had more room for improvement. On the basis of play this year Murray seems to have the better balanced ball club. But time will bear out the theory that class means little when these intense rivals clash on the gridiron... Our prediction: MURRAY 20—WESTERN 7.

Some changes have been made in the pattern of play in early workouts. Johnny Reagan, the Missouri redhead and two time captain, will probably be used exclusively at center this year. In order to affect this switch, Charlie Snow has been moved to forward. Frank has been teamed with veteran Pearce in the guard positions. It would be a thankless task for anyone to try and pick a starting lineup at this time.

Breds Will Open Regular Season November 25

Coach John Miller and the 1947 edition of the Murray Thoroughbreds will pry the lid off the basketball season with an intra-squad game on Wednesday night, November 19, at 8 o'clock in the Carr health building.

The Breds will open the regular season against the Anna, Ill., Independents on November 25 in Murray. They will play a 21 game schedule which will include such teams as Marshall, winner of last year's National Intercollegiate tourney; Western Kentucky, champions of the KIAC and SIAA; and Eastern Kentucky, one of the stronger small teams in the nation.

Sponsored by M Club
The intra-squad contest is being sponsored by the M club. Admission will be 15c for students and 25c for all outsiders. Each student is requested to select the team of his choice and cheer for that aggregation. The cheerleaders will be on hand to build up enthusiasm for the Western football game as well as to teach the student body the cheering procedure for basketball.

Coach Miller has worked out a plan which will give some slant on the year's prospects. The first half will match the freshmen against the returning stars of last and former years. The second half will bring together teams selected by Miller on the basis of comparative strength. By this method the Murray mentor hopes to give the fans a good ball game in addition to giving himself an insight into the effectiveness of various players.

Returning Lettermen

The Breds have been working since early October in preparation for this year's schedule. Returning lettermen include Johnny Reagan, Charlie Snow, Harry McPrath, Rex Alexander, Jim Pearce, Jim Frank, Odell Phillips, and Harold Loughary from the 1946-47 squad. Kenneth Cain and Zadia Herrold are lettermen who will be back from the service. Cliff Cavender played for Murray in 1942 and is returning after coaching at Sedalia.

Reagan at Center

Some changes have been made in the pattern of play in early workouts. Johnny Reagan, the Missouri redhead and two time captain, will probably be used exclusively at center this year. In order to affect this switch, Charlie Snow has been moved to forward. Frank has been teamed with veteran Pearce in the guard positions. It would be a thankless task for anyone to try and pick a starting lineup at this time.

Dates Tentatively Set For Purchase-Pennyrile Tilt

Joe Royer, manager of the 1948 Purchase-Pennyrile Tournament, today announced that February 18 and 19 have been tentatively scheduled for the games.

Royer states that the dates are subject to change and definite dates will be released as soon as negotiations are completed with the administration.

The Purchase-Pennyrile Tournament has been sponsored annually by the International Relations Club since 1936 when Nebo defeated Brewers in the first game by a 25-19 score to give the Pennyrile its first crown.

Royer and a tournament committee have made plans to have the two day meeting with games between the two sections on the opening date. The second night will see a game between the winners of the first night's games for the grand championship and also a consolation game for third and fourth place.

The system of having one representative from each area competing for the crown was continued until 1941 when the double entry method of selection was put into operation. Hardin and Sedalia represented the Purchase with Hartford and Graham coming from the Pennyrile. The first year under this set-up resulted in a clean sweep for the Purchase.

During the time that the double entry system has been in operation, two tournaments have ended in ties and the Purchase have won the other five.

There has been a total of 19 games played in the 12 year old tournament with the Purchase taking 15 of those games. The Pennyrile has managed to win the tournament two years under the single entry system and tie two series under the double entry system.

Brewers High of Marshall County leads in games won with victories in 1943, 1944, and 1947. Nebo, Kuttawa, Calhoun, and Lacy have each won one for the Pennyrile.

Scores of past games:
1936, Nebo—25, Brewers—19;
1937, Kirksey—41, Clay—15; 1938, Sharpe—29, Central City—26; 1939, Heath—29, Olmstead—25; 1940, Kuttawa—32, Pilot Oak—28; 1941, Hardin—29, Hartford—22; Sedalia—35, Graham—23; 1942, Calvert City—40, Hartford—26; Murray—29, Graham—24; 1943, Brewers—36,

Olmstead—29; Benton—23, Crofton—21; 1944, Brewers—42, Daviess Co.—26; Calhoun—30, Murray—29; 1945, Brewers—48, Drakesboro—26; Lacy—34, Murray—27; 1946, Sharpe—27, Greenville—24; Benton—38, Owensboro—25; 1947, Brewers—44, Beaver Dam—35; Wickliffe—54, St. Joseph (Owensboro)—47.

Life At Ordway

Now that the mid-term exams are over, the boys have begun to throw away many of their ingenious inventions for keeping important knowledge close by in case they happen to need it at some odd moment.

Well, as you all know, the election finally came off—no, not the election of governor, but the election of suite captains at Ordway. Each captain is elected for a period of one year or until his suite mates decide to end his reign.

The suite captains are: Tommy Walker, Paul Mahan, J. B. Taylor, Paul Willoughby, Jack Adams, Robert Blakeney, Ed Norris, James Powell, Hal Fiser, Bill Sloan, Jim Owens, Clarence Walker, John Padgett, Calvin Riggs, Odell Phillips, James Johnson, Albert Davis, Russell Phelps, Lawrence Fuller, Jack Wyatt, and last, but by no means least—James "Adron" Majors, the Wingo youth who became a millionaire on the campus of Murray State College. Just ask anyone about his occupation.

Each suite captain is to appoint a committee of one man to see that the rooms are kept neat. To date, no appointments have been made, but you can bet that "Snake" Dailey will be the man for the job in suite 101.

Nash Attends Council Meeting

Dean W. G. Nash has returned to the campus following a meeting of an advisory committee to the Council on Public Education.

Dean Nash states that there will be some changes made in the requirements for teacher certification but these await the approval of the state board of education.

If approved, the requirements will not become effective until September 1, 1948.

Social Science Enrollment Hits All Time High

The social science department has reached an all time high with about 1100 students enrolled in its various fields. This is approximately two-thirds of the whole student body. Dr. C. S. Lowry, head of the department, announces.

Dr. Lowry also added, "The war has brought an increase in social studies, particularly in economics and history."

To help take care of this large enrollment, Mr. Auburn Wells, a graduate of Murray State who is now working on his masters degree, has taken Dr. W. E. Barnwell's place in the teaching of several history courses. Dr. Barnwell resigned last year to accept a position in North Carolina.

The remainder of the staff includes: Dr. Lowry, economics; Prof. Rex Syndergaard, history; Miss Mayrelle Johnson, political science; and Miss Halene Hatcher, sociology.

Besides his many classes, Dr. Lowry is in demand as a speaker for various groups. The Lions Club of Paducah and the Young Businessmen's Club of Murray are among the organizations to which he has spoken recently. His next speech is scheduled for March.

Miss Johnson has been serving as the head of the campaign for the Constitution Convention, among her other duties.

Physical Ed Club Elects Dirickson Secretary

Miss Ann Dirickson was elected secretary of the Physical Education club in a meeting held Tuesday at 7:00 p.m. in the health building.

Miss Dirickson succeeds Sam Jones, who resigned.

The meeting was highlighted by the showing of basketball films. Teams shown in action were: N.C.A.A. champions Holy Cross vs. Oklahoma; N.I.T. winner Utah vs. Kentucky; an All-Star team from the west vs. and All-Star team from the East; and an inter-sectional game between Notre Dame and N.Y.U.

Plans were discussed for the club to sponsor a chapel program. Date for this event has not been set at present.

ASA Observes Founder's Day

Alpha Sigma Alpha observed Founder's Day at the regular meeting, Monday, November 10.

Vivian Outen, Reba Jo Cathey, and Betty Altman presented a short program on "Worldmanship" and the history of the sorority which was founded at Farmville, Va., on November 15, 1901.

After the program, refreshments were served to the members and the pledges who were guests of the sorority.

Training School Will Present Three Act Comedy

BOOKSTORE MANAGER PLAYED AN IMPORTANT ROLE IN BRINGING COLLEGE TO CITY OF MURRAY

Next to the Registrar's staff and a few teachers, the first person with whom most students here come in contact during the first weeks is Mr. Lee Clark, operator of the college bookstore. Few realize, however, the important role played by Mr. Clark in bringing the "home of the Thoroughbreds" to this locality.

The small, genial bookstore manager was elected five times to the State Legislature during the 1920's, and served in that body when heated arguments were waged concerning the location of a western Kentucky "normal."

Convinced that the people of the Purchase should have higher education brought nearer home, Mr. Clark finally won his struggle against determined opposition—and "the South's most beautiful campus" in Murray is the result. Calloway County may indeed be proud of its five-time representative, and well may Mr. Clark be proud, also, of the record which he made during those terms.

Bookstore Manager
Mr. Clark, who, with the exception of his absences in Frankfort, has been college bookstore manager since its foundation, is a staunch believer in young people and asserts "we have the best in the country here at Murray".

Watching the continued growth and progress of the college since its establishment has been a real pleasure for Mr. Clark, and he ventured the prediction that "we're going to develop and expand even more under our present leadership".

Operates Farm
Besides his duties at the college, Mr. Clark operates a farm near Lynn Grove, and is superintendent of the Methodist Sunday school there. The "Lee" in his name stems from the fact that he was named after the famous Southern general by his Confederate-veteran father.

As is only natural, the former legislator still maintains an active interest in public affairs, especially in Kentucky.

Certainly it is to the mild mannered, unassuming little man behind the bookstore counter that students owe much of the thanks for attending school here—in the "heart of Jackson's Purchase".

NEW WOODWIND INSTRUCTOR PLAYED IN HAVANA SYMPHONY

Professor David J. Gowans, a new instructor in the music department at Murray State, at one time played the bassoon in a symphony orchestra in Havana, Cuba.

Playing first bassoon with the "Sinfonica Filarmonica de la Habana," Mr. Gowans was in Havana several months. He returned to the United States in 1942.

During World War II Mr. Gowans was in the Army, serving in England, France, Belgium and Holland.

The professor teaches woodwinds and theory here, and incidentally, this is his first teaching position. When asked if he liked teaching, he replied, "I am enjoying my work, although I am kept very busy."

In addition to teaching, Prof. Gowans directs the string orchestra, and plays the bassoon in the College orchestra. He is also director of the church choir at the First Christian Church.

Mr. Gowans is married and lives on north 16th street. When asked what he thought about Murray, he said, "Murray is a friendly place; everyone is very nice."

The professor received the first three years of his college education at the University of Miami, Coral Gables, Florida, and received his B.S. and M.S. degrees from Wayne University, Detroit, Mich.

Students Invited To Physics Club

The Nathan B. Stubblefield physics club announces that membership in the club is open to all students of MSC who are interested in the field of physics.

The Nathan B. Stubblefield Physics Club is one of the oldest clubs on the campus, being organized in 1929. Profs. Patterson and Canon were charter members of the organization while they were students at Murray.

The club is named in honor of the late Nathan B. Stubblefield, who lived at Murray, and made his discovery of radio here.

Meetings are held at bi-weekly intervals, on Wednesday evenings, at 7:00 p.m. The next meeting place is room 22, administration building. Students interested in physics are invited to visit the meetings and to become members.

The Nathan B. Stubblefield Physics Club has been continuously active since its organization, except during the war.

College Vets Advised by VA On Over Payment

Student vets at Murray are advised by the Veterans Administration not to cash their subsistence checks if they believe they are not entitled to the full amount of the payment.

Notices are being sent to the veterans and are designed to help eliminate subsistence allowance over-payments and the necessity for refunds by veterans.

The notices enclosed in the G.I. checks inform the vet that, according to VA records, he is still in training and urges him to contact the nearest VA office before cashing the check if he has stopped training or has any other reason to believe the check represents an over-payment of his account.

War Is Not An End In Itself, Marion Group Told By Woods Nov. 11

"War with all its horrors, is not an end in itself, but merely high interest on our legacy of living in freedom and peace," said Dr. Ralph Woods, president of Murray State College, in his speech before an Armistice Day crowd at Marion.

Speaking on the subject, "Between Yesterday and Tomorrow" Dr. Woods said, "Twenty-nine years ago, we celebrated Armistice Day. On November 11, 1918, President Woodrow Wilson issued the following statement:

"The Armistice was signed this morning. Everything for which America fought has been accomplished. It will, now be our fortunate duty to assist by example, by sober, friendly counsel and by material aid in the establishment of a just democracy throughout the world."

Hope Not Realized
Reminding his audience of a slogan used in the first World War, Dr. Woods said, "During World War I, the statement came from the lips of most every one that we were fighting the war to make the world safe for democracy. President Wilson's statement was a dream, a hope which was not then and has not since been realized."

In discussing the situation in which we find ourselves, today, Dr. Woods said, "If I were an artist confronted with the task of depicting the situation in which we find ourselves, today, I would draw on the canvas an hourglass."

Significant Features
"One end of the hourglass would be called 'yesterday'; the other end, 'tomorrow'. I would overprint, or paint, on the yesterday end of the hourglass the significant features of our way of life for the past third of a century. This would embrace World War I, the termination of which we celebrate, today."

Fall of Paris
Continuing, Dr. Woods stated that he would picture our efforts as well as our failures in behalf of the League of Nations, the rise of communism and fascism, the great depression, the dust bowl, Hitler's rise to power, the unwarranted attack by the German air force and tank corps on innocent peoples, the fall of Paris, Dunkirk, Pearl Harbor, the Solomons, Siapan, Iwo Jima, the Battle of the Bulge, our sacrifices in World War II, unexcelled production, unexcelled heroism and bravery on the part of the sons of America, finally, V-E Day in Europe, the bombing of Hiroshima and Nagasaki.

As for the tomorrow part of the hourglass Dr. Woods asked, "What shall we picture on that end of the hourglass? Shall it be a repetition of the history of the past; or will it be a way where men are willing to live together in peace, full employment, high efficiency and happiness?"

Requires Careful Planning
Dr. Woods pointed out that there is evidence that human frailty encourages relaxation and complacency if not indifference. Love of freedom and willingness to die for it in time of war are not enough. To be able to handle successfully the responsibilities as builders and keepers of a nation of free men, in one world or two worlds, will require all the careful planning and the most efficiently directed effort of which we are capable.

In conclusion, he said, "The work of the world is never finished; the tasks of humanity are never finished; the struggle for liberty and peace and justice is not finished, and will not be finished in our life-time; but it is up to us to work devotedly at the task."

"We have learned how to take the Atom apart, now the major task before us is to learn how to get people together in a pattern of peace and freedom," emphasized President Woods.

Veterans Club To Contribute To Friendship Train

The Veterans Club at Murray State College is sponsoring a drive to obtain donations for the Friendship Train, Bill Presson, president of the organization, announced today.

The announcement was made to the student body at a recent chapel program after the Vets' club decided at their regular meeting Monday night that someone here should take an active part in helping the starving Europeans.

Friendship boxes will be placed at various points on the campus late this afternoon to receive donations of foodstuffs, money, or clothing from college students or townpeople. The collected material will be stored at the college temporarily, until the stockpile grows too large.

The Friendship Train, originally started in California to collect food for the starving Europeans, has aroused a great deal of interest throughout the nation. A forthcoming announcement will tell when and where the Murray contributions will be loaded onto the train.

Presson said that plans have been made to contact every organized group on the campus to secure their cooperation in this drive. He also expressed a hope that one of the civic or social organizations in the city would take the initiative in furthering the drive in Murray proper and surrounding communities.

In the meantime, however, all donations from local residents will be gladly accepted at the college, Presson said.

BILLY CROSSWY ON CHAPEL PROGRAM

Students Vote On Miss Murray State; Shield Staff Introduced

Murray State College students voted for Miss Murray State and listened to music by Billy Crosswy's orchestra in chapel November 5.

James Petersen introduced the newly elected Shield staff and instructed the students on how to vote for Miss Murray State and the campus favorites. He urged again that all students having snapshots that could be used in the Shield should turn them in to the Shield office or box 156 at the post-office.

Crosswy's theme song, "Happiness is Just A Thing Called Joe" led several beautiful numbers, "Stardust", "Deep River", "My Last Goodbye", "Slumber Song" and "Harlem Nocturn", featuring Ray Gill with the alto sax.

DAISY MAES' ENJOY SADIE HAWKINS DAY

Climax of the Sadie Hawkins Day at Murray State was a square dance held Saturday night at a tobacco warehouse in downtown Murray.

Hunting season opened at 9 a.m. after Daisy Mae and her sister spinsters had purchased hunting licenses from the Student Org. After that any man on the loose and without a tag was considered fair game for the designing females.

The male was considered captive of the gal from the time the card was pinned on until 11 p.m. Saturday night.

As the females were ruling the roost, it was only fair that all financial outlays were borne by them. They were responsible for food, entertainment, gas money, flowers and other incidentals which were encountered in celebrating the gala occasion.

A Daisy Mae-Lil' Abner race was held at 1 o'clock in front of the auditorium and Marryin' Sam was on hand to give the special preserved turnip weddings.

The bag limit for the girls was one male of any description, their only prerequisite being that he wore pants.

Prizes were awarded at the square dance for the most appropriately dressed Dogpatch characters.

VA CHANGES REGULATIONS

The Veterans Administration has announced that new leave policies are now in effect which permit unbroken subsistence payments to veterans attending college under the G.I. Bill.

Under the new regulations, veterans will receive subsistence payments for the full enrollment period certified to VA by the educational institution.

Rev. Dietze Leads Discussion Group

"Sex: Sinful or Sacramental?" was the topic of the Disciple student discussion group led by the Rev. Charles A. Dietze, associate director of the United Christian Missionary Society, Sunday night, November 16.

This discussion was one in the series on "Courtship and Marriage" now being discussed by the Disciple students at the Disciple Center.

DR. HILL TELLS AAUW MEMBERS THAT U.S. MUST TAKE ACTIVE INTEREST IN EUROPEAN AFFAIRS

"We have to stay in Germany and take an active interest in European affairs just as any more able person has a responsibility for helping and leading the more unfortunate."

This is the belief expressed by Dr. Henry H. Hill, president of Peabody College in Nashville, speaking at a joint meeting of AAUW and the Murray Woman's Club Tuesday night.

Dr. Hill, who was sent on a government mission to Germany last summer, was not too hopeful about our efforts to reorganize the German schools although he said "The Americans have done a prodigious job of getting the schools started."

The speaker accused the Germans of fostering a class system and making the majority of the German people incapable of critical judgment by their methods of taking about 8 per cent of the school children after the fourth grade and training them for leaders while leaving the balance of them to be trained as followers.

These people are deprived of all desire to lead themselves and are happy only when obeying orders he stated.

Pointing out that the women of Germany have had no influence in the past on the school system, the speaker censured Hitler's "Mein Kampf" doctrine of associating the women with the church, children and kitchen.

Miss Mayrelle Johnson, president of the Woman's Club, presented Dr. Ralph H. Woods, who introduced Dr. Hill.

Miss Lillian Hollowell, president of AAUW, gave the audience an opportunity to question the speaker after the address.

Miss Wingo Speaks To Woman's Club

Miss Caroline Wingo of the college home economics department addressed members of the Delta department of the Murray Woman's club at a meeting held November 4 in the club house.

Miss Wingo spoke on "Art in the Selection of Clothing" and discussed new materials and fashions trends in the clothing industry.

Mrs. Margaret Campbell of the Training School is chairman of the Delta club.

MR. MRS. JOHN WITT PARENTS OF BABY BOY

Mr. and Mrs. John Witt of Orchard Heights have announced the birth of a six pound baby born on November 14.

Orchard Heights

Rumor has it that Bob Stout has bought a box of cigars... El Ropes no dubt.

The bleary-eyed, haggard looking individual that has been seen stumbling into apartment no. 44 is none other than Clem Johnson. Now don't jump to conclusions. Clem is not out "clubbing" and having a gay time. No. It's just that he stays up nights (and early mornings) singing "Lullaby". His only comment: "Things sure have changed!"

Charles Anderson states that he is slightly exasperated with the person who wrote the Vet Views column in the last issue.

"That person just doesn't know what's going on at Orchard Heights. We still wear boots—the mud is deeper than ever."

You can tell who rules the roost in some households. Edwin Reid, Chester Kerth, and Tom Neece are now doing manual labor. To save face, they maintain that the high cost of living has caused this drastic step.

Social Committee Schedules Dance. Christmas Party

Social events will be fewer for the remainder of the quarter according to Dean Yancey who is chairman of the social committee during the absence of Dean Weighing.

The dance after the Western football game and a Christmas party are the only events scheduled for the last month of this quarter. The dance will probably be held in the fine arts lounge but the location is subject to change at any time. There have been no definite plans made for the Christmas party.

Dean Yancey complimented the student body on its participation in activities this year. He believes the reason for this cooperation is due to the fact that the students themselves have planned the activities rather than the faculty. Dean Yancey also complimented the Student Organization and the students who have worked with them to make these activities possible.

Mr. Johnson's office is in the professional arts building at Ashland.

Wesley Foundation Shown Movie

The Wesley Foundation student group saw a religious movie, "The Way of Salvation," Sunday, November 16, in the little chapel.
