

The Lincoln Repository

Ten reasons why you should put a copy of your work in the Repository

1. Because people will find your stuff

- 70% of visits to the Repository come from Google
- 82% of visits come from outside Lincoln

2. Because people will cite your stuff

Anything up to a 250% increase in citations

3. Because of the REF

4. Because it promotes you, your department and the University

5. Because the Library will take care of your records (and your publishers)

6. Because you can re-use the info.
