History of Coach Amos Alonzo Stagg

Amos Alonzo Stagg was born August 16, 1862, in West Orange, New Jersey. Working his way through grade school, and Phillips Exeter Academy, where he prepped for Yale University, his earliest ambition was to study for the ministry. However, from his early youth he developed a liking for baseball and football, undiminished to the present day.

While at Yale he went out for baseball and achieved the distinction of never having lost a championship game that he pitched. During his undergraduate work at Yale he was offered not one, but nine contracts by different major league baseball clubs. It is interesting to note that football did not interest him as much as baseball until "Pa" Corbin got a hold of him and talked him into going out for the game. In 1888 he played very well, from both the offensive and defensive standpoint, but it was the following year that Walter Camp named him on his mythical All-American football team.

Graduating from Yale, his first post was to organize and coach football at the Springfield College in Springfield, Mass. This was in 1889 and swerved him from entering the ministry and gave America the greatest sportsman of all times. Here he became the instructor of "The Theory and Practice of Training." Incidentally, while at Springfield, he organized and coached the first baseball team. It is interesting to note that he also played on these teams.

In 1890 his former teacher of Biblical literature at Yale, William Rainey Harper, founded and became the first president of the University of Chicago. He offered Stagg the post of head football mentor and director of athletics, and, in addition, an associate professorship which gave Stagg a lifetime position. He reported to the University of Chicago in 1892.

The chapter on the Maroon campus, where he spent more than half his lifetime, was filled with many memories of happiness and a few of sadness. It was here that he coached football for forty-one years, amassing a record that will be hard to equal, winning 273 games, losing 142, and tying 29.

The saddest moment in Stagg's life was when he reached the age of retirement, 70, and the college had to notify him he would have to retire. The board of regents in view of what he had done for the University of Chicago voted him a full pension.

From the many offers broached, he accepted the College of Pacific's, coming west in the spring of 1933. Last year he was invited to come east to play Chicago. His little band trekked over 3,000 miles eastward and prepared to meet the heavily favored Maroons on their home campus.

Friday night preceding the game, the Big C club threw a testimonial banquet and invited members of both squads. The stage was set and when Stagg entered the room, filled with dignitaries of city and state, important executives and officials of both educational institutions stood up and applauded the "Grand Old Man of Football" for over five minutes, cheering the man of their ideals, the man who was worshipped, respected and adored by the entire nation, Amos Alonzo Stagg.

The next afternoon the College of Pacific Tigers walloped the Chicago team by a 32 to 0 score.

This is Stagg's seventh year at Pacific and he has won two Far Western Conference championships and has finished second twice. The future holds many big games, amongst others the Fighting Irish from South Bend, Notre Dame, in 1941.

The "Dean of Football Coaches" is deserving of any and all honors that can and are being bestowed upon him. He has made collegiate football what it is today; his name is associated with so many firsts in the realms of baseball and track, in addition to football that probably no other college coach will ever near his record. And all the time his efforts to promote clean living and clean sportsmanship have always been foremost and for this he is loved as few men are.

His lifetime record of coaching is as follows:

2 yrs. Springfield 1890-1891	10	11	1
41 yrs. Chicago 1892-1932	273	142	29
6 yrs. Pacific 1933-1938	29	26	4
	312	179	34

So, at 77, Stagg marches on!

Today's Game

The city of Sacramento is privileged in holding tonight's game, which marks the "Grand Old Man of Football", Amos Alonzo Stagg's, fiftieth year of Coaching.

Sacramento Pyramid of Sciots, realizing the national prominence of Coach Stagg and the prestige the game would bring to Sacramento, spared no expense in securing a team that will enhance this prestige and secured the University of South Dakota, winners of the 1938 North Central Conference and coached by Harry Gamage, Illinois '25, who, it is interesting to note, played against Stagg coached Chicago teams for three years.

The College of Pacific had a very successful season, winning the Far Western Conference championship, then travelling to Chicago and defeating the Maroons to the tune of 32 to 0. This game was the turning point in Coach Stagg's comeback. To think of a man making a comeback during his early years is easy, but Stagg started his at the age of 70 in an almost strange part of the country. Thus, at 76, he again startled the sporting world by giving Chicago its worst trouncing of the entire season.

Since this game has gone out after "bigger game", and the larger eastern colleges are once again eager to schedule Stagg coached teams. Each year his teams play full schedules, twelve or more games.

With his comeback assured, Stagg is looking forward optimistically into the future for his "boys" at the College of Pacific, not only to produce winning football teams, but to follow his life's hobby of assisting in the development of clean sportsmanship and better men.

Short Stories on College of Pacific

Returning to the fold this season at Pacific will be seventeen lettermen and thirteen non-letter winners. Added to this will be a host of Jaysee transfers and a host of future material. Four all-conference choices return from Pacific's 1938 team, Bobby Kientz, Bob Adamina, both halfbacks; Jack Tullock, guard, and Hugh McWilliams, center. Both Kientz and Adamina made honorable mention on all coast and all American teams.

Two of the brightest prospects are Phil "Flip" Ritchie, a transfer from the local Jaysee, and Bill Thomas, a senior, who transferred from St. Mary's last year. There are six ends on this season's squad, all of whom are experienced men with the exception of Boyarsky, a soph who played on the C. O. P. frosh last year.

Eight guards, six of whom are experienced varsity men, are ready to go. Carl Zumstein is up from the frosh squad, and Conger is a likely looking transfer from Santa Monica Jaysee. Four men are out for the center post, of which two are experienced lettermen.

Four men are battling for the two tackle posts, with Stan Vaughan and Jack Lyons being favored. Bob Ijams and Darrell Condron, both up from the frosh, are very highly rated.

Stagg isn't short on backfield men with seven men battling for the halfback posts. With men like Kientz, Adamina, Thomas, Ritchie, Cooper, Bentley and Lloyd, he has a dream that is likely to turn out to be a nightmare for Stub Allison, as well as certain other coaches.

Two experienced signal callers are on hand to help Stagg formulate intricate plays this season, Oleata and Seifert. The former played most of last season, while Seifert didn't play sufficiently to earn his letter but is a smart player. Coupled with these two will be Walt Fellers, another non-letterman from last year, and Leo Johnson, up from the Cubs.

The fullback post will be nicely taken care of by Johnny Domench, an ex-Sacramento Jaysee player, Dale Halbert, and Doug Vieira. All were members of last season's C. O. P. varsity.

DID YOU KNOW

DID YOU KNOW that the College of Pacific is the oldest collegiate institution in the State of California, having been founded in San Jose in 1851 and moving to Stockton many years later.

DID YOU KNOW that President Tully C. Knoles of the College of Pacific is internationally known and was sent to Europe twice by the Rotary Club, of which he is a past national president.

DID YOU KNOW that Tully Knoles attended the University of Southern California and played football there.

DID YOU KNOW that Coach and Mrs. Stagg have just purchased twenty-one acres of land adjoining the institution with the proviso that an athletic field be laid out to be known as Knoles Field. Coach Stagg has a field named after him on the Chicago campus.

DID YOU KNOW that Stagg has not only coached the largest number of football games, but also in baseball. He taught baseball for twenty-one years and track for thirty-two years.

DID YOU KNOW that the school colors of Pacific are black and orange, but this year, because of Stagg's golden anniversary, the college has changed its colors to black and gold. This color scheme is being used on their uniforms and instead of being known as the Bengal Tigers they will go under the name of Golden Tigers.

DID YOU KNOW that Stagg had never coached a football team, until he came out here, that played under the lights.

DID YOU KNOW that Stagg is so modest about his accomplishments that if it were not for some of the publicity men at the institutions he has coached much would never have been heard of.

DID YOU KNOW that Mrs. Stagg is rated as one of, if not the most outstanding scouts in the country.

University of South Dakota Has Good Record

COACH HARRY GAMAGE

The University of South Dakota is a member of the North Central Conference, composed of seven colleges and universities—South Dakota, South Dakota State, North Dakota, North Dakota State, Iowa State Teachers College, Morningside, and Omaha University.

The University is located in Vermillion, S. D., a city with a population of 3,500. The university enrollment is 400 men and 500 women. The team is popularly known as Coyotes or Redshirts, and trains in the stadium at Inman Field, with a seating capacity of 3,500.

Graduating at the University of Illinois, Head Coach Harry Gamage coached at the University of Kentucky before he came to South Dakota. In his five years here he has piloted Coyote teams to 24 victories, 18 losses and 3 ties. In the last three years his teams have lost only two conference games while winning twelve.

His assistants this year are Athletic Director Carl B. Hoy, line coach, and Cle-tus (Red) Clinker, backfield coach. Both are graduates of the University of South Dakota, Hoy in 1919 and Clinker in 1935.

Although the University of South Dakota only lost one game last year, the Coyotes had only two points scored against them by conference teams.

ERNIE GUNDERSON—Regular left end of last year, and a sure bet to be in the starting line-up this fall. Gained all-conference recognition mostly due to his stellar defensive play and his part in the end-around play which the Coyotes used to great advantage last year in the championship drive.

ROY KESSLER—Played center on last year's varsity. Moved to quarterback to succeed all-conference Harold Port because of speed. Rated the best blocker in the conference.

FOOTBALL IS HERE ONCE AGAIN

With the game this evening heralding the football season for 1939 prospects for Mr., Mrs. and Little Fans to enjoy a fine and fast season are indeed bright. The Sacramento Junior College, under Coach "Hack" Applequist, will have one of its finest teams and is pointing to another championship.

The four prep schools are all hot to get into the fray. A beautiful rivalry has been built up between the Sacramento, McClatchy, and Grant Union High school institutions and the Christian Bros. College. Coaches at each of the schools are optimistic in looking forward to a city championship. The new high school rules may make it tough for Lodi this year and local schools are also hoping to take them down the line.

The Sacramento Elks are again sponsoring one of their fine games, at the end of the season this year.

Yes, Football Fans, the prospects for an enjoyable season are really bright.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Sacramento Pyramid of Sciots is deeply appreciative to so many individuals and organizations for assistance in promotnig this affair that it is impossible to list but a few here.

To all the business concerns that gave use of their radio time and newspaper space to publicize the game; John Breuner, Remington-Rand Inc., H. S. Crocker Co., Geo. M. Hammond Co., for office furniture for football headquarters; to Frederick-Burkett for making slides and to the various theaters which showed them free of charge; Willard Davis for use of the headquarters at 918 K street; Clark, Booth & Yardley for use of their ambulance at game; John Cloyd, Senator Smoke Shop, for use of sign space, and Wilson's Confecturant.

Alex McAllister and James Darwin, chief of police and chief of traffic division, respectively, for their cooperation.

The Sacramento Union for use of the cut of Amos Alonzo Stagg in this program.

Most of all our thanks to Steve George of the Sacramento Union and Wilbur Adams of the Sacramento Bee for their material assistance in publicizing this this game through the sporting columns of their respective newspapers and particularly for working in an advisory capacity with our committee. Also to sports editors of ninety-three Sacramento and San Joaquin Valleys and their papers. To John Peri of the Stockton Record, and to the Movietone News.

To the Sacramento Exchange Club for the testimonial dinner given Coach Stagg and other valuable assistance.

There are many, many others, but these deserve special mention.
