INVOCATION

THE REV. JOHN ELLIS LARGE, Class of 1928

II

HYMN

Come, Thou almighty King,
Help us Thy Name to sing,
Help us to praise!
Father all glorious,
O'er all victorious,
Come and reign over us,
Ancient of days!

To Thee, great One in Three,
The highest praises be,
Hence evermore;
Thy sovereign majesty
May we in glory see,
And to eternity
Love and adore. Amen.

PRESENTATION OF THE BOOK

SECRETARY OF THE FACULTY

Hunc librum patrium, praeses honorande, tanti aestimatum, ab omnibus alumnis sic tactum, scientiae symbolum magna cum cura per hunc annum a professoribus nostri collegi custoditum, tibi tradimus quem inter manus eorum qui cursu finito ex aulis almae matris ituri sunt proprie ponas.

This precious book, touched by each graduating class on Commencement day; a symbol of knowledge committed to the care of the Faculty during this past year, we now present to you, Mr. President, that you may once again place it in the hands of those who are about to be graduated.

THE PRESIDENT

Hunc librum a vobis fideliter custoditum accipio et omnibus vobis professoribus maximas ego et habeo gratias quod hosce iuvenes studiose docuistis praecceptis Collegi Trinitatis Sanctissimae observatis.

I accept this book held in your loyal custody and I gratefully thank all of you for educating these men devotedly in the tradition of Trinity College.

'NEATH THE ELMS

'Neath the elms of our old Trinity,
'Neath the elms of our dear old Trinity,
Oh it's seldom we'll meet,
In the moonlight so sweet,
'Neath the elms of our old Trinity.

College days are from care and sorrow free,
And oft will we see in memory
Those days that are past,
Far too joyous to last,
'Neath the elms of our old Trinity.

Then we'll sing to our old Trinity,
To our dear old Alma Mater, Trinity;
We're together today,
And tomorrow away,
Far away from our old Trinity.

'Neath the elms of our old Trinity,
'Neath the elms of our dear old Trinity,
No more shall we meet,
Our classmates to greet,
'Neath the elms of our old Trinity.

HYMN

Almighty Father, strong to save,
Whose arm hath bound the restless wave,
Who bidd'st the mighty ocean deep
Its own appointed limits keep:
O hear us when we cry to thee
For those in peril on the sea.

O Christ, the Lord of hill and plain
O'er which our traffic runs amain
By mountain pass or valley low;
Wherever, Lord, thy brethren go,
Protect them by thy guarding hand
From every peril on the land.

O Spirit, whom the Father sent
To spread abroad the firmament;
O Wind of heaven, by thy might
Save all who dare the eagle's flight,
And keep them by thy watchful care
From every peril in the air.

O Trinity of love and power,
Our brethren shield in danger's hour;
From rock and tempest, fire and foe,
Protect them wheresoe'er they go;
Thus evermore shall rise to thee
Glad praise from air and land and sea.
Amen.

ISIDORE WISE

Hic bene amatus Quiris, praeses honorande, nos memores sui fecit merendo. "Euge tuum et belle," poeta antiquus dixisset si vitam famamque huius viri notavisset. Nec licet mihi exponere immensam laborum seriem pro pueris mancis et in multis muneribus pro bono publico perfungendis. Decorum est talem virum nobis honorare. Quaproptec hunc mercatorem, Hartfordiae amatorem, Scholae Algerianae alumnum qui in salutem populi maxime valet et spectatus est quod se in rem communem libenter expendit et res populo utiles semper fovit ad te duco rite ornandum, Isidorum Wise.

This well-beloved citizen of Hartford, Mr. President, has made us mindful of him through merit. His life and reputation could well serve as a model for the youth of our community. He has risen to high honor through his invaluable services to the Newington Home and Hospital for Crippled Children, as councilman, alderman, Police Commissioner, member of the Hartford Public High School Building Commission, the Connecticut River Bridge and Highway Commission, Board of Park Commissioners, the Community Chest, State Prison Board and numerous other positions of responsibility in our community. Honor with honor due, Mr. President, this merchant of and lover of Hartford, a distinguished alumnum of the Horatio Alger School of Life, one who is greatly esteemed because he is public spirited and gives himself completely to good causes — Isidore Wise.

SYDNEY DILLINGHAM PINNEY

Aliquos antea annos hic alumnus inter alia apud nos in scientia chemica et in ludo pilae parvulae fallaciter iaciendae excelluit. Usque adhuc, praeses honorande, nobis gaudentibus magnas pro alma matre res manu gessit ut olim in illo ludo quo multi spectatores bacchantur. Hunc igitur alumnum, stirpe alumna generatum, pro patria cum honore militantem neque numerorum Babyloniorum inscitum qui etiam magnopere laborat ut crescat academia nostra ad te duco ut artiore honoris vinculo nobis conligas — Sydneum Dillingham Pinney.

JOHN McKENNEY MITCHELL

Hic Asclepiades, praeses honorande, ex aulis nostris et Yalensibus non sine gloria exiit et eam crescit eundo. In duobus patriae bellis ut pedes et medicus cum honore militavit. Artem Hippocrateam quae est de pueris medicandis in urbe fraterni amoris exercuit, in Universitate Pennsylvaniensi edocuit et in multis chartis commisit. Quid multa? Quem ut filium dilectum amplectimur qui propter eximia erga Universitatem suam beneficia decanus nuper creatus est ut caput laurea Trinitensi coronemus ad te duco — Ioannem McKenney Mitchell.

OMAR NELSON BRADLEY

Cum hic vir, praeses honorande, ex bellatoria patriae academia exierat in commentario anniversario, quod naturaliter Tormentum nominatur, de eo scriptum est, "prospere succedit." Tanto successu elatus est ut Clio semper cantura sit Bradley Africanum, Trinacrium, Normannum et ad aethera eveectura sit

When this man was an undergraduate at Trinity, Mr. President, he excelled among other things in chemistry and as a pitcher on our varsity baseball team. Ever since then, Mr. President, he has been pitching for old Trinity, steadily, devotedly. I shall omit the catalogue of his distinguished record as Junior Fellow, Alumni Trustee, and all the rest, and present to you this son of an alumnus, a man who served his country with honor in the field of battle, an actuary of distinction, an alumnus who is deeply devoted to his alma mater, Sydney Dillingham Pinney. Bind him closer to us by the deserved honor you are about to bestow upon him.

This physician, Mr. President, graduated from Trinity and the Yale Medical School with distinction which his later career has increased. He has served his country loyally — in the First World War as infantryman and in the Second World War as Colonel in the Medical Corps with distinguished service in India. I should need, Mr. President, the inspired knowledge of Hippocrates to enumerate in detail his contributions to medicine. He has practiced pediatrics in Philadelphia, has taught it in the University of Pennsylvania and has written many valuable scientific papers. I now present to you for Trinity's laurel a choice son, who because of his ability and service has recently been elected Dean of the School of Medicine of the University of Pennsylvania — John McKenney Mitchell.

Mr. President, when this man graduated from West Point its year book, The Howitzer, said of him, "His most promising characteristic is 'getting there.'" He "gets there" with such distinction in service that the Muse of History will forever sing of Bradley of Tunisia, Sicily, Normandy, the Bradley who hunc ducem prospicientem qui ex Sancto Lo erumpit et ferratos postes portasque Rheni refregit ad aeternam nostrae aquilae gloriam. Vos igitur curiae Trinitenses muros, qui civem atque militem Laconicae simplicitatis et perillustris nostrae prudentiae imperatorem etiam summum rei publicae in bello et in pace optima opera praebentem viderunt, nunc honesti patriae custodis in honorem plausibus et acclamatione iteratis docete resonare. Duco at te, Omar Nelson Bradley.

swiftly broke through Saint Lo and the iron gates of the Rhine to the eternal glory of the American eagle. Trinity joins the great chorus of grateful Americans in honoring today this soldier-citizen of Spartan simplicity and Yankee ingenuity, a general of deep sincerity, vision, and moral courage who has served his country with distinction in the battlefield, in the Veterans Administration, and now as Chief of Staff. Bind this great steward of democracy closer to us by the honor you are about to bestow upon him — Omar Nelson Bradley.

LIVINGSTON WADDELL HOUSTON

Societatis vincula, quae nos cum Academia Rensselaeriana in disciplina scientiae Archimedae coniungunt, propria sua persona exprimit et repraesentat vir eximius, quem proximum vobis praesento. Eadem alma matre egressus per multos annos sollertia et diligentia multas societates rebus mechanicis deditas direxit. Unde evenit ut multo maiore humani generis amore imbutus ad iuvenes educandos progressus sit et ob virtutem et labores erga Academiam suam Praeses creatus sit. Hunc igitur socium praesidem semper anxium ut scientia mechanica Musarum amore percussa rem suam augeat qui etiam academiam suam ad res altiores ducit ad te duco ornandi causa — Livingston Waddell Houston.

The Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute and Trinity College, Mr. President, are bound by ties of friendship and mutual enterprise in the training of the disciples of Archimedes. We have among our honored guests today the distinguished president of this institution. His life is one of honor through service. Upon graduating from this institution he spent many years in the field of industrial engineering rising to the presidency of the Ludlow Valve Manufacturing Company. Since men, however, have triple A priority over things he was attracted to the field of education and because of his ability and service he was elected president of his alma mater. I now present to you your fellow president, who is ever concerned to relate engineering to a liberal arts education and one therefore who is leading Rensselaer to greater heights — Livingston Waddell Houston.

THOMAS BAYARD McCABE

Cum praeses Verusvir virum hunc praefectum aere Saturni designavit, munus maximi momenti quod monetalem populi fidem moderatur, dicitur in labyrintho, patriae patris nomine nuncupato, ei persuasum esse ut magnum negotium pro patria peragendum sit. Deficiet mihi, praeses honorande, tempus enumerare de rebus pro bono publico

When President Truman appointed him to the chairmanship of the Federal Reserve Board, a position of great responsibility in the control of money and credit in the country those "in the know" in the labyrinth of Washington said of the busy man, "Someone has convinced him that there is an important job for him to do for his country." Time fails me to tell of his other distinguished services, as Deputy Director of Priorities, Deputy Lend Lease Administrator, etc.

conceptis et perfectis. Talem virum, alumnum Swarthmorianum, chartarium Scotici societatis Castriensis, ob labores a patria coronatum ad te duco ut a nobis quoque merito ornatur — Thomam Bayard McCabe.

I therefore present to you this alumnus of Swarthmore, the president of the Scott Paper Company, a man honored for meritorious service by our country's Medal for Merit; honor likewise, Mr. President, this distinguished servant of our country — Thomas Bayard McCabe.

JOHN ELLIS LARGE

Hic alumnus, praeses honorande, hodie apud nos redit ut pro fide Christiana bene propaganda honoris diploma iterum accipiat. Bona cum disciplina hic et in seminario Virginensi imbutus illum logum Dei spermaticum in Sancti Andreae schola fertiliter sevit. Translatus tandem in urbe quae res monetales diligenter conficit altio rem Christi rem propagat. Ob labores bene perfunctos hunc pastorem fidelem et alumnum dilectum ad te duco ornandi causa — Ioannem Ellis Large.

This alumnus, Mr. President, is worthy of our honor today because of the splendid performance of his Christian mission. His education at Trinity and the Virginia Theological Seminary sent him forth a faithful vicar of Christ. Then as chaplain and instructor at St. Andrew's School he guided and shaped the lives of his boys through Christian ideals. As rector now of St. Andrew's Church in Wilmington he is very successful in seeing to it that this city, which is well known for its corporations, stores its true treasures in Heaven. I therefore present to you this faithful servant of Christ, a loyal alumnus whose career is already deserving of the honor you are about to bestow upon him — John Ellis Large.

CHARLES KENDALL GILBERT

Vita huius illustris viri reverendi, praeses honorande, nobis in memoriam, reducit illud vetus proverbium, laborare est orare. Postquam in pastorum ordinem receptus est longe lateque laboravit ut Christi Via et Veritas et Vita in hoc mundo imitetur. Ob labores fide ingenioque perfunctos episcopus sacrosanctae ecclesiae nostrae in diocesi Neo-Eboracensi creatus est. Hunc igitur alumnum Hamiltonianum pietate atque ingenio imbutum rerum scriptorem ecclesiasticarum, honorem etiam quem daturus es bene de ecclesia bene de nobis merentem ad te duco — Carolum Kendall Gilbert.

The career of this distinguished servant of Christ, Mr. President, brings to mind that old Latin motto, to pray is to work. Since the completion of his evangelical preparation he has been a hard working servant of Christ's Way and Truth and Life in many churches in many cities, in many important and high councils and positions of the Diocese of New York. Because he performed his duties and missions with faith and with distinction he was consecrated Bishop of New York. I therefore present to you this worthy alumnus of Hamilton, who combines piety with executive and literary ability, one well deserving of the Church, well deserving to be called one of our own, honoris causa—Charles Kendall Gilbert.
