URSINUS WINS AGAIN

URSINUS, 16. SWARTHMORE, 10.

In a game full of brilliant runs, beautiful kicks, fierce tackling, and smashing mass plays Ursinus downed Swarthmore by the score of 16 to 10. Three touchdowns for Ursinus, and two field goals for Swarthmore. The Red and Black's goal line was not crossed and the record still stands of having but one touchdown scored upon us this year.

The day was clear and bright, perhaps a trifle warm for the players, but just comfortable for the fashionable grandstand coterie and yelling sideline enthusiasts. Ursinus' cheering was fairly snappy and vigorous, but in the second half there were times when the grandstand was as silent as a tomb. In this half many men were hurt and delays were long and frequent. During these irksome periods college songs would be just "the ticket" to shove things along.

Ursinus appeared on the field first and were given a rousing cheer. Ten minutes later Captain Stewart led out his sturdy band.

Swarthmore won the toss, and Ursinus kicked off to Sinclair, who rushed it back to his own 30yd.

JOHN LENTZ,

line. Swarthmore was forced to punt. Gettel rushed back 10 yds. Roth ran through tackle for 13 yds. Price gained two yds. Ursinus was then held for downs. Swarthmore now took the ball and principally through Stewart's splendid line bucking carried the pigskin 45 yds., when Ursinus braced and the ball changed hands. A few mass plays netted 15 yds, and then Price started his grand work by sprinting 25 yds. to Swarthmore's 35 yd. line. On the next play Rapp raced over 7 white lines for the first touchdown. Price kicked the goal Ursinus, 6. Swarthmore, 0.

After the next kick-off, Ziegler, Hobson, Price, Faringer, and Neumuller advanced the ball 70 yds., without a break. Swarthmore then braced and obtained the ball. But Crowell was soon called back to punt and Gettel received the ball for Ursinus. At this point with tackle play and end runs the Varsity went steadily down the field to Swarthmore's 3 yd. line. Twice the tangled mass of warriors, plunged, struggled, swayed and fell, but the pigskin remained on the same white line. Once again the gritty line garbed in Swarthmore garnet crouched for the charge but this time Captain Roth plunged through their right tackle and landed the ball over the goal line. The goal was missed. Ursinus, 11. Swarthmore, 0.

Another kick-off, a few plays, and the ball went to Swarthmore. Tackle and centre plays forced Ursinus back, but on their own 5 yd. line, the line made its usual

ADDRESS BY REV. SNYDER

Rev. S. S. Snyder, Christian Endeavor Missionary of the Reformed church in Japan, addressed the meeting in the chapel on Tuesday evening. The work in Japan has been eminently successful. A few years ago the penalty for accepting Christianity was death; to-day the religious freedom is almost equal to that of this country.

Forty-six thousand Japanese have become communicant members of Christian churches. The Bible has been translated into their language and is being spread rapidly throughout the empire. One of the far reaching influences of the missionaries is the educational institution at Sendai. Here the student is given a course very much like that of the American college, but above all he acquires a thorough knowledge of the Bible. However, the work is far from completion. Only about one per cent. of the people have accepted Christ, while thousands have never even heard of him.

A NEW ORGANIZATION

The students of the Historical Political Group met on Wednesday, October 29, and organized a club for the purpose of discussing current topics. Speakers will be secured throughout the year to make addresses on national problems. The officers elected were: President, C. G. Haines, '03; Vice-President, R. G. Gettel, '04; Secretary and Treasurer, C. A. Townsend, '05.

ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

At a meeting of the Association Monday evening, Messrs. Poorman, '03, Hoyt, '04, Clinger, '05, and Schweyer, '06, were appointed as a committee to act with the President in completing arrangements for the Haverford trip. Mr. Earl C. Wentz, '05, was elected the manager of the football team for the season of 1903.

The Athletic Committee desires to announce that the admission to the game with Franklin and Marshall on November 15 will be fifty cents. Alumni will be charged only half-rate.

HALLOW-E'EN PARTY

The annual party at Olevian was a pronounced success. The invitations were headed by a drawing of a skull and cross bones, and read as follows:

Ye Sister Shades of Convent Olevian beg that ye Brother Shades of Monastery Ursinus will cross the Styx and hold grave converse with said Sister Shades within the walls of said convent, choosing, for said converse, the thirtieth day of October, in the year of our Lord, nineteen hundred two at the dread hour of eight, after the sun sinks.

Signed in the presence of

L. F. GUMMERE,
Mother Superior.

Refreshments—Apples, pears, and chestnuts were served in pumkins; doughnuts served in squash; cider from the keg.

Lights—Jack o' Lanterns, and candles in carrot candlesticks.

Games—Guessing of characters represented, bobbing for apples, and other Hallow-e'en games.

Decorations—Autumn leaves, shocks of corn, chrysanthemums, hydrangeas.

A novel feature was a phantom feast, phantoms eating shadows of food.

The characters represented were:

Miss Shade,	Marjory Daw.
Miss Boston,	Desdemona.
Miss Myers,	Mary Stuart.
Miss Ebbert,	Queen Elizabeth.
Miss Dotterer,	Little Miss Muffitt.

FRIDAY OCT. 31, 1902.

THE URSINUS WEEKLY is now a reality. We hope that it may accomplish its intended mission. In order to warrant its permanent success, we ask for the non-paid subscriptions. Subscribers will please remember that the financial success largely depends on their promptness.

We also take the liberty of recommending our advertisers. In order that business men may learn that it does not pay not to advertise in college papers, and that those who do advertise with us may receive adequate returns, our readers should patronize them whenever it is possible.

At some places they are called "muggers." The word is not in our "Standard," at least not with the meaning that we wish to give to such persons. One could almost tell from the sound what the word means. Particularly, a mugger is a rooter who throws out vile, personal remarks. Preparatory students and under-classmen make up the larger part of such a gang. We have seen them at many colleges and schools. They are in themselves the direct cause of "cancelled relations" in many instances. They are the fellows who run out on the athletic field when they have no business there. They are the fellows who shout insulting remarks through their megaphones when the sensible student-body is quiet. They are the fellows who fail to recognize that both contesting teams are composed of gentlemen—that the contest is between peers; they are the fellows who think that their team is all honor, and the other team is composed of "sjobs."

The writer heard a mugger at a recent intercollegiate debate. He was in the gallery. When the judge announced that the decision was against his debating team, this fellow yelled at the judge, "You're a lobster." He represented a class which causes the better students to blush for their college.

After one of our football games this fall we walked away from the gridiron in company with a friend—a student at the institution. We spoke to him about some of the remarks that came from the bleachers. He hung his head in shame. He said that the large body of students frowned upon such actions, but there were a few who persisted in being muggers. And they gave the school its name.

Well, we do not want any muggers at Ursinus. Nor do we want any approach to the detestable practice. Muggers are in their element when they cheer the football team of some rough athletic club.

Y. M. C. A.

"The Source of Strength" was the prayer-meeting topic on October 22. H. H. McCollum, '05, was leader and showed how we derive all spiritual strength from God. The spiritual muscles, as well as the physical, must have exercise to make them strong. By doing our best to live righteously and by helping others to do the same, we obtain the needed exercise.

The different Bible-study classes have been organized with the following teachers: Senior, Prof. G. L. Omwake; Sophomore, C. G. Haines, '03; Freshman, H. S. Gottshall, '04. No definite arrangement has been made as to who shall teach the Junior class. The two Academy classes will be in charge of W. E. Hoffsommer, '03, and E. Frederick, '05. The classes will meet for the first time next week.

The reception room on the first floor of the East Wing has become quite popular. A number of students gather there every evening to spend an hour in pleasant recreation before beginning the evening's work. By the addition of a few more games, the influence of the room may be widened.

LITERARY SOCIETIES

A miscellaneous program was rendered by the Schaff Society Friday evening. A trio by Misses Ebbert, '05, Wolff, '05, and Hobson, '06, and a vocal solo by Miss Spangler, '03, constituted the musical numbers. "Byron's Dream" was read by Miss Miles, '04. Miss Paist, '06, and J. H. Spangler, A., declaimed; the former recited "Just 'fore Christmas," the latter, "The Man in the Moon." Papers were read by A. E. Wagner, '03, and F. H. Hobson, '03, on "The Humor of Chaucer" and "The Strenuous Life."

O. D. Brownback, '04, was elected recently as member of the Library Committee from the Schaff Society.

The Zwinglian Society debated the following question: Resolved, "That the Federal Government should provide employment for all able-bodied men who are idle." Messrs. McConnell, '05, Price, '05, Laros, '03, and Peters, '03, discussed it affirmatively. The negative side was championed by Messrs. Fry, A., Faringer, '06, Sando, '04, and Poorman, '03.

Both societies counted among their visitors former members, now alumni, who had come in good time for the Swarthmore-Ursinus game.

stand and with 3d down 5 to gain Crowell dropped back and kicked a neat field goal for Swarthmore. Ursinus, 11. Swarthmore, 5. Half time was soon called, the ball being in our possession.

SECOND HALF.

In the second half within fifty seconds of play Price ran 70 yds. for the last touchdown. It was a great effort and practically made the victory certain. Time and again the Ursinus 1. e. was called upon to carry the ball and he never failed to gain from 5 to 20 yds. In this half Swarthmore tried to keep the ball in their possession, knowing it was their best hope for staving off an overwhelming defeat. The ball seesawed up and down the field exchanging hands frequently. Once it was dangerously near the Ursinus goal, but Price punted 51 yds., to Crowell who made a difficult catch for a free kick on our 41 yd. line. It was a slim chance to us, but a happy inspiration to Crowell, and he was equal to it for with a powerful kick he lifted the yellow oval for the long journey and it sailed over the bar. This ended the scoring. Shortly after time was up and two tired elevens limped slowly off the field in the fast gathering gloam.

Price was the star of the game and Ursinus' best ground gainer; Hobson, Ziegler, Faringer, Roth, and Rapp also gained offensive honors; while Neumuller, Place, Haines and Trexler played strong on defense. Gettel tackled fiercely in the open field. Swarthmore never gave up; they played gamely until the end. Stewart tore through Ursinus time and again while Hall was right there with his tackling and headwork. Final score, Ursinus, 16. Swarthmore, 10.
