FOOTBALL

URSINUS, 16. RUTGERS, 0.

The victory over Rutgers last Saturday was the first that an Ursinus eleven had carried away from the gridiron at New Brunswick, and further, it was the first game this year in which the Varsity scored more in the second half than they did in the first. In many ways the outcome was very satisfactory; in others, not so much so.

The game was the longest played this year, one half of 25 mi. was succeeded by a 20 mi. one, and until the game was over, every player was very tired. Victory came because each man played hard and steady; there was little of the phenominal in the play; constant plunging at the tackles was the style employed by both teams. It is true, the Rutgers boys tried flukes several times, but generally there was a slip in the execution, and they netted no yds. for the team.

The places which seemed to need bolstering up in our team, especially on account of Rutgers' style of play, were those very close to centre. Time and again their backs would drive through large holes made in the line. The half backs playing behind the tackles made it very difficult for our tackles to handle the two men opposed to each of them.

We should have had another touchdown. We were steadily advancing up the field and came to the ten yd. line and there, by several unfortunate signals, we were held for downs.

There was considerable punting during the game since both teams were often forced to do so. Rutgers' got off every kick, and good long ones, too; but the passing of Trexler was very erratic, and lost us many yards.

Hobson gained most consistently for Ursinus. His gains averaged about 8yds. a down; he made 3 runs of 20 yds. each. Excellent interference and a weak tackle were in his favor. His weight and speed give him an advantage not often possessed by a single player.

The team was not as strong a combination as we shall be able to put against Swarthmore tomorrow. Neumuller was not in the game on account of a bad ankle, Haines was not in until the second half, and Gettel, the regular quarter, was on the side lines. It is probable that these three men will line up tomorrow and make the fight as strong as possible. But the team held the Rutgers' eleven on our one yard line, and this fact, possibly more than anything else, took the courage from the New Jersey boys.

A pretty exhibition of college spirit was displayed at the railway station while we were waiting for the train. For twenty minutes the Rutgers' rooters and the Ursinus squad strove with each other in song. Song followed song in rapid succession and when the train pulled out each team gave complimentary yells and parted in very friendly spirits.

The line up.

TUESDAY NIGHT CLUB

At 7.30 on Tuesday Evening the first meeting of the Tuesday Night Club for this year was held. Mr. Peters was chairman of the meeting. Misses Shipe, '05, and Miles, '04, became members. A bulletin board will be put up in the corridor near the library entrance within a few days. The first feature was a paper by Professor LeCompte on "The Art of Tennyson." It was in part as follows:

"There are three general questions which we may ask about a poet's art. What were the subjects that appealed to him? What was his method of treating these subjects? What was his mastery over the tools of his art—his technical skill?

"Tennyson was a conservative in thought and deals with the old and simple questions of life. Three-fourths of his work has some ethical import. He rarely deals with trivial subjects. There is a high seriousness about all his work.

In the treatment of the subjects which appealed to him, we may say that Tennyson is both simple and elaborate—simple in his main conceptions, elaborate in detail. In this he stands in contrast with Browning, whose main conception is often subtle, abstruse, far to seek.

"In his technical skill Tennyson shows the passion for perfection which is characteristic of the painstaking workman. Perhaps the most striking quality of his technique is that marriage of sound and sense which comes from the skillful marshalling of vowels and consonants."

Mr. Hoffsommer's paper on "Organizations and the College Student" dealt with a very timely problem concerning students who wish to stand high in their classes and yet get into the life outside of the class room. He pointed out in a brief manner the ideals of a college course and indicated how far grinding and how far actual organization work would help to realize these ends.

Miss Spangler read a very interesting and quite comprehensive report on art and literary articles in the current journals.

The term election resulted as follows:

President, Henry Graber, '03; Vice-President, Marion G. Spangler, '03; Secretary, Mary E. Shade, '04; Treasurer, O. D. Brownback, '04.

FOOTBALL SONG

Tune: Marching through Georgia.

- Our boys are on the football field,
They've gathered for the fray;
Ursinus' yell is in the air,
We've come to win the day.
We'll teach the game of football
To our friends across the way,
While we are shouting Ursinus.

CHO.—Then rush! oh rush! we'll rush
the ball along.

A kick, a shove, we'll send it through the throng,
No line can stop our fellows in their rushes fierce and strong,
While we are shouting Ursinus.

- Our players every one
Are made of mind and muscle tough;
The combination always works
For they are up to snuff;
They'll show the — — boys
They're diamonds in the rough,
While we are shouting Ursinus.—CHO.

- Then shout the grand Ursinus yell,
We've sent her through the goal;
— — line looked solid
Our full-back found the hole;
See the rush, the scrimmage,
Then the tackle and the roll,
While we are shouting Ursinus.—CHO.

—ADAPTED.

SUNDAY EVENING SERVICES

The meeting on Sunday evening was addressed by Mr. Smyser, General Secretary of the Norristown Y. M. C. A. His subject, "Personal Work," was based on Isaiah 50: 4. He showed how many persons are ready to accept Christ as their guide in life who are only waiting for his followers to help them to make the decision. Some wait so long for this word that they are forced to cry out with David, "No man careth for my soul." When the opportunity is ripe, only a word of hope is necessary to turn one from darkness to the light.

The Sunday evening meeting for October 26 will be postponed until Tuesday evening, October 28. Rev. S. S. Snyder will conduct the services at that time. Rev. Snyder is the Christian Endeavor missionary of the Reformed Church in Japan and will no doubt give an interesting account of his work. Since so little is known of this progressive Eastern country, all should avail themselves of this opportunity. The meetings are open to the public as well as to the students.

The First Reformed Church Philadelphia, Rev. E. F. Wiest, '93, S. T., pastor, celebrates its 175th anniversary Sunday, October 26th. Addresses will be delivered by Dr. N. C. Schaeffer, State Superintendent of Public Instruction, Rev. Rufus W. Miller, D. D., and Prof. W. J. Hinke.

FRIDAY OCT. 24, 1902.

The average college student is like a sponge; he is continually receiving thoughts and impressions; he gradually fills up with ideas and theories that are poured into him from without; he needs a little squeezing to show his content.

The very attitude in which he enters the college halls at the beginning of his Freshman year indicates a too ready willingness to receive—to take all that may come his way—with little regard as to whether or no he can digest and use this material.

And if he does not pay special attention to the matter of his sponginess, this nature will gradually take on a more serious aspect.

His later years in college will only emphasize the fact that he is a receptacle.

If he continues thus he will never learn the value to himself of giving out some of the great things which he is getting: the value of changing the form of them and touching them with his own personality, and thrusting them out as food for another.

Lucky is the student who receives squeezing before he passes out of college into active life.

For there will still be chance to recognize one grand mistake of a college course—the mistake of not imparting from internal stimulus—and there will be chance for remedy.

But the pressure will surely come in later life.

And at this time the figure of the sponge must be dropped; for, strange as it may seem, that which went into the college student cannot come out as it would come out of a sponge.

He has lost what was given him; some how or other there is clogging and a disheartening sluggishness in the outflow.

He had, but he has not.

There is an old story told about a man that buried his talent.

This is the same story.

FUMBLES

Put on your best voice for tomorrow's yelling.

C. B. Heinley, '00, was visiting here on Monday.

Graduate Director of Athletics E. E. Kelley, '01, witnessed the game between Swarthmore and Rutgers at New Brunswick on Wednesday.

Did anyone miss the train for Rutgers in the city on Saturday?

Mabry, '06, Wise, '06, Balliet, A., and Fry, A., spent Sunday at their homes.

A trip to Lebanon during the summer by one of our Seniors is to be held responsible for the prevalence of the catchy "Heigh Lee, Heigh Lo!"

Don't forget to show your season ticket on Saturday. This is important!

Foltz, '06 and Schweyer, '06, spent Sunday at King of Prussia, the latter's home.

Prof. and Mrs. LeCompte, Prof. and Mrs. Gummere and son, John Flogg, took a drive on Sunday.

Smith, '03, is making a short call at Nazareth this week.

The inmates of the "Dog House" give nightly concerts from Luna's rising even till it steals around the East Wing corner.

The Rev. Harvey E. Kilmer was the guest of Miss Mary E. Behney, '06, Sunday.

"How dear to my heart is the old apple orchard,

The old campus orchard that stands on the green!"

The Seniors in Hebrew have adopted as their laugh "Ha-ar-etz," the supposed pronunciation of the sixth word in the original text of the Bible.

"The Dutch Company" has suddenly sprug into favor since the trip to Rutgers.

Haines, '03, has been placing a large number of "Carmina Princetonia" in the hands of the students. The book is well-arranged and contains a goodly number of popular College songs. Now, let the the welkin ring!

LITERARY SOCIETIES

"Should examinations be abolished at Ursinus College" was the question debated by the Schaff Society Friday evening. Miss Lutes, '06, was chief affirmative and Miss Ebbert, '05, for the negative. The affirmative showed how examinations are an incentive to cheating, while the negative brought out the fact that they tend to become a goal towards which to strive. The decision was given in favor of the negative. Miss Hobson, '06, rendered a piano solo.

A miscellaneous program was the order of the evening in the Zwinglian. Messrs. Schappell, A. Conness, A., Bordner, A., and Gonzalez, A., declaimed. An essay on "Gems from the Life of McKinley" was read by Mr. Yocum, A. A piano Solo by Mr. Wise, '06, and a vocal solo by Mr. Sando, '04, varied the exercises. Mr. Rapp, '03, delivered an oration on "The Hope of the Negro." The Review was read by Mr. Townsend, '05.

Y. M. C. A.

The members of the delegation that attended the students conference at Northfield reported at the meeting on Wednesday evening, October 15. Mr. Roth, '03, spoke largely of the athletic side of the conference. Mr. Anson, '03, dwelt upon the beautiful scenery along the way and surrounding Northfield; Mr. Rapp, '03, gave an account of the 4th of July meetings and of the celebration on Round Top in the evening; Mr. Hoffsommer, '03, emphasized the spiritual side of the convention. It should be every student's aim to go to Northfield at least once during his college course.

ALUMNI NOTES

John R. Wells, M. D., ex-'80, of Chester Springs, Pa., is spending a few weeks in Europe for the benefit of his health.

Walter L. Steiner, A. B., ex-'00, is at present pastor of the Presbyterian church at Morrisville, N. J. Mr. Steiner after leaving Ursinus completed his collegiate training at Hamilton College, N. Y.

Mr. E. P. Gresh, a member of the Board of Directors and a former student at Ursinus, has returned from Honolulu in impaired health. He has been one of the most loyal and enthusiastic friends of the college, being ever alive to the interests of the student-body. His rapid recovery is hoped for by every one.

The annual session of the Northern Union Sunday School of Chester County was held in St. Paul's Lutheran Church, Lionville, Pa., on October 11. Several Ursinus men took part in the exercises. The Rev. A. L. Shalkop, ex-'98, spoke upon "The Influence of the Sunday School Upon Character"; the Rev. H. H. Long, '84., A. B., Delegates Report of the State Sunday School Convention; the Rev. J. M. S. Isenberg, A. B., '93, "The Bible Study and Spiritual Growth"; others who took part in the discussions were the Revs. E. C. Sult, S. T., '93, and C. H. Slinghoff, A. B., '90.

Rev. Charles A. Waltman, A. B., '99, was graduated from the School of Theology last May is busy with pastoral duties in the Reformed Church, at Blain, Perry County, Pa. Rev. Waltman takes special interest in the educational work of his church.

Samuel P. Dietrich, A. B., '98, is serving his third year on the faculty of the Sunbury High School. Mr. Dietrich has done much to raise the standards of that School, which now holds one of the Ursinus Prize High School Scholarships. Its efficiency in the work of College preparation is proved by the work of one of the present Sophomore class.

MORAVIAN, 6. URSINUS SCRUBS, 5.

Ursinus Scrub lost Moravian College 6 to 5. The game was a hard fought affair. Moravian carried off the honors in the first half, scoring 6 points, rushing the ball about 60 yds. Ursinus received the kick off and rushed the ball 30 yds, but lost it on downs. Moravian then took it down the field for a touch down. Ursinus kicked off and again Moravian took it down the field but fumbled on Ursinus' 20 yd. line. Ursinus was forced to punt, the ball remained in Scrubs possession in middle of the field, at the end of the half.

In the second half the Scrubs went into it with a yell. Ursinus kicked off. Scrub secured ball on their own 20 yd. line. Tackle plays brought it to the middle of the field, when an end run brought the ball to Moravians 8 yd. line; here on a fake try for field goal the ball was placed 2 ft. from the goal. Foltz rushed it over. Townsend failed at goal. Moravian kicked off and an end run of 50 yds. with tackle plays placed the pigskin on Moravian's 3 yd. line. With 3rd down 2 yd. to gain a field goal was tried and failed. Time up.

Roth, Eoltz, Snyder, Hartman, and McCullum, played the game for Ursinus, and Stemple for Moravian.

SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY NOTES

Rev. Dr. T. P. Stevenson lectured to the students Tuesday morning, October 21, on "The Bible and the public School."

Prof. Hinke is preaching a series of sermons in Salem Reformed Church, this city, on "Samson, the Athlete." Sunday evening he will deliver an address in the First Reformed Church on "The First Fifty Years of the First Reformed Church, Philadelphia."

On Friday evening Rev. H. Weiss, Superintendent of the Lepers' Home, Surinan, Dutch Guiana, addressed the student body.

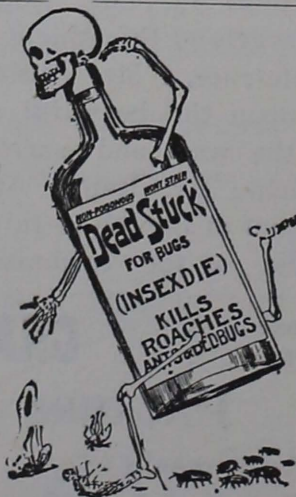

Rev. A. C. Thompson, Saxton, and J. Kern McKee, Red Lion, were recent visitors.

ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION.

The student body was assembled in mass meeting on Monday evening in the Chapel to arrange for systematic yelling at the coming "big games." The President appointed Hoyt, '04, Sando, '04, Brownback, '04, McCollum, '05, and Dotterer, '06, as leaders of the yelling. It was decided to have a rehearsal every afternoon on the grandstand at five o'clock.

J. N. Clark, the Newark thread manufacturer who died recently, left $10,000 to Rutgers College.

President Faunce of Brown University promises that six new buildings will be built at that institution in the next two years.
