Preparation: Many students find this to be a rigorous course that demands a significant amount of study time outside of class. Initially you should plan on spending approximately six hours per week reading and studying the text and completing homework problems. This time may need to be increased if you are having difficulty. Note that the concepts build throughout the course and it is important to gain a good foundation early in the semester. Regular attendance and class participation, even though not a formal part of the grade, are a very important element of success.

Exams: You must be present for exams as scheduled. You may not leave the exam room during an exam, and you may not use PDAs, cell phones, dictionaries, or any other devices without prior approval of the instructor. A make up exam will not be given without prior approval from the instructor.

Disability Accommodations: If you have a documented disability for which you are requesting accommodations please see the instructor during the first week of class.
