COURSE DESCRIPTION

In this course, students will begin to develop a critical perspective on social issues of contemporary Southeast Asia, including social and economic development, the aftermath of the Vietnam War, inequality, poverty, the environment, urbanization, prostitution and human trafficking, and human rights issues. The course draws on examples from various countries in Southeast Asia and highlights some of the links between countries in Southeast Asia and global powers like China, Japan, and the US. Students' performance will be evaluated based on two in-class quizzes, three homework assignments, two in-class exams, one final exam, one poster project and presentation, and attendance, preparation for and participation in class discussions. This course provides General Education credit in the Social Sciences and Indigenous and Global Perspectives groups. This course is a content course for the International Development Studies minor; please contact Dr. Kimber McKay at kimber.mckay@mso.umt.edu if you are interested in adding the IDS minor or the Peace Corps Prep Certificate. It is also a content course for the South and Southeast Asia Studies minor. Please contact Dr. Ruth Vanita at ruth.vanita@umontana.edu if you are interested in adding the SSEAS minor.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES:

During this course, students will successfully:

1. Demonstrate the development of a sociological perspective and use it to begin to understand and compare processes and outcomes of economic and social development in Southeast Asia. Selected social problems that cross borders including human trafficking, migration, and citizenship, as well as regional efforts at cooperation will be highlighted.
2. Employ selected sociological concepts and theories to explain the cultures, social organization, and selected social problems in mainland Southeast Asia.
3. Understand and begin to assess how generalizations about the societies and social problems examined in class are based on historical and contemporary empirical data.
4. Explain the implications of colonialism, development, globalization, and climate change for individuals, groups, and societies in Southeast Asia.

5. Examine citizenship and associated political and economic rights, gender relations, race and ethnicity, and migration in selected Southeast Asian countries and relate their understanding to the broader US and regional context.

GENERAL EDUCATION LEARNING OBJECTIVES FOR ALL SOCIAL SCIENCES COURSES

1. Describe the nature, structure, and historical development of human behavior, organizations, social phenomena, and/or relationships:
2. Use theory in explaining these individual, group, or social phenomena; and/or
3. Understand, assess, and evaluate how conclusions and generalizations are justified based on data.

COURSE MATERIALS

All students should purchase the following textbook:

McGregor, Andrew. 2008. Southeast Asian Development. London: Routledge.

It is available from Amazon.com at cheap prices as well as in the Bookstore in the UC. In addition, one copy is on reserve in Mansfield Library. Additional assigned readings will be available through the Moodle system (discussed below).

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Moodle:

Course readings, review sheets, and announcements will be posted on the Moodle System. In addition, for most lectures, I will post the most important charts and graphs as Power Point files on Moodle. You can access Moodle for this course by clicking on the Moodle link in Cyberbear, and then finding the class by my last name (Sobieszczyk) or SOCI 212. Go to any computer lab on campus or print from home if you have the necessary file readers and computer programs. Students who miss a lecture should be sure to print relevant charts and graphs from lectures, review class announcements, and obtain the class notes from the missed lecture from a fellow classmate.

Classroom Environment:

I will respect you by dismissing class on time each day. In return, please show your respect for me and your fellow class members by coming to class on time, refraining from chatting, reading newspapers, texting, web surfing, or otherwise disrupting class. If you need to leave class early, please let me know before class begins so that I don't worry about you! Be sure to turn off your cell phone when you come to class. If I catch you texting or using a computer for something other than taking notes, I will confiscate your device for the remainder of the class period. Also note that the whole class will start with 5 extra credit points. Every time the TA or I notice someone texting or misusing a computer in class, I will subtract one point from each class member's 5 extra credit points – in other words, the whole class loses one extra credit point if one student is caught texting or misusing a lap top or tablet in class that day.

We will be talking about some sensitive and potentially controversial issues this term. Please treat each other and each other's ideas respectfully. Keep in mind that the University of Montana forbids discrimination on the basis of ethnicity, race, religion, sex, age, marital status, sexual orientation, or disability.

All students must practice academic honesty. Academic misconduct, including plagiarism and copying another student's paper or exam, is subject to an academic penalty by the course instructor, which will be failing the assignment or exam or, for repeat offenses, failing the course, and/or a disciplinary sanction by the University. All students need to be familiar with the Student Conduct Code. The Code is available for review on-line at http://www.umt.edu/vpsa/policies/student_conduct.php

Attendance, Class Preparation, Homework, and Participation (15%)

I expect students to attend each class and to be on time. If you are habitually absent or tardy, your grade will be lowered. Attendance will generally be worth 1 point per day, unless there are discussions or other group work (see schedule, below), in which case, it will be worth 2 points per day. Tardiness or leaving the class early without an appropriate excuse will cause you to lose 0.5 points from the day's attendance score. I am aware that from time to time, students may have to miss class. Acceptable excuses for missed classes include a doctor's note, a judge's note, an absence due to an official UM activity such as a sport or a field trip (with documentation), or an obituary or funeral notice for the funeral of a family member. Other excuses will not be accepted.

I also expect you to complete assigned readings prior to the class for which they are assigned and to be prepared to discuss them with your peers in class. Several times during the semester, your participation and preparation for class will be evaluated with discussions, problem solving activities, homework exercises, quizzes, and/or other exercises. Keep in mind that if you miss a class without an acceptable excuse, you may not make up missed class work, quizzes, or attendance, which ultimately lowers your grade. Together, homework assignments, class participation, attendance, class activities, quizzes, and preparation for class will be worth 15 percent of your overall grade.

Homework

Please see the attached list of homework assignments. All homework assignments should be printed on a computer printer. Be sure to cite your sources and provide a reference list for each using the citation guidelines attached at the end of the syllabus and discussed in class. Please save all graded homework in a folder so that you can review it prior to exams. Be sure that you write your own homework responses to avoid plagiarism. If you have to miss the class for which a homework assignment is due, please bring it to a class prior to the due date, drop it off in my mailbox before class, or send it to class with a friend; otherwise, it will be considered late. All homework is due at the beginning of class on the date listed in the syllabus. Late homework exercises will be accepted; however, assignments turned in later than the class period in which they were due will be lowered one letter grade from what they would otherwise have received. In other words, a homework assignment that would originally have received an "A" will receive a "B." All late assignments must be turned in by the last day of class.

Poster Project: (20%)

Either on your own or with one other classmate, prepare a trifold poster board on a topic related to Social Issues in Southeast Asia. You should both describe the chosen topic AND note factors causing it as well as its impacts on society, the population, the government, the family, etc. We will have a poster preparation day on 11/10/16 during which you can work to assemble your poster using Dr. Sobie's materials. The poster presentation day will be on 11/15/16 when you will have about 7 minutes to explain the main findings you presented in your poster to the class. Your poster project grade will reflect the quality of work of both your actual poster and your oral presentation in class. Grading criteria and a list of suggested topics will be distributed in class. EVERYONE must attend the poster presentation day as information from the posters and presentations will be on the final exam.

Exams (65%)

During the course, three exams will be given (2 regular exams and 1 final exam). Exams will likely include multiple choice, short answer, and/or essay questions. Exams will ask you to think critically and synthesize arguments and will cover materials from course readings, lectures, discussions, and films. The exams will be non-cumulative, except to the extent that earlier materials inform later discussions or topics.

Preparing for Exams

Before each exam, I will provide a study guide to highlight what will be covered on the exam. Be sure to review all assigned chapters and readings, review your class notes, and the study guide before the exam and to check in with me during office hours or at an alternate appointment if you have questions.

Make up Exams

Students with acceptable excuses (see list above) or who have three or more final exams in one day may be allowed to take a make-up exam with prior notice and permission from the professor. Students should provide documentation and then schedule a make-up exam at a time convenient to the professor, either very soon before or no more than one week after the scheduled exam date. It will not be possible to make up exams more than a week after the scheduled exam date. Make up exams likely will be in an essay format. The make up for the final exam must be completed by 12/20/16.

Distribution of Course Grade

2 in-class exams and 1 final exam	65
Poster project	20
Homework assignments, quizzes, attendance, in-class activities	15
TOTAL	100%

A plus / minus system of grading will be employed (e.g. 93+ = A, 90-92 = A-, 87-89 = B+, 83-86 = B, 80-82 = B- and so on). All materials (books, dvds) borrowed from Dr. Sobieszczyk must be returned by the final exam for the class or you will earn an 'Incomplete,' which will remain on your record until the materials are returned or replaced. If you are enrolled Pass/Not Pass, you must earn a C- or better to pass.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Office Hours

Please feel free to visit me during office hours. Generally, I will be available for a few minutes after class if you have a quick question. If you are unable to attend the scheduled office hours, you may arrange to meet me at a different time by appointment.

Students with Disabilities

Students with disabilities may request reasonable modifications by contacting me. The University of Montana assures equal access to instruction through collaboration between students with disabilities, instructors, and Disability Services for Students. "Reasonable" means the University permits no fundamental alterations of academic standards or retroactive modifications. Please bring in the letter from DSS documenting your disability and accommodations by the end of the second week so that we can arrange for any warranted accommodations.

Extra Credit

You are eligible to submit up to 2 extra credit assignments this term. To earn extra credit, please attend a special lecture (options will be discussed in class) and type up a 1 ½ -2 page paper about the film or lecture. The paper should include (a) a summary of the presenter's main points and (b) a critique of the arguments (e.g. did you agree with the points; why/why not). The first extra credit opportunity will be held on Wed., 8/31/16, from 7-8:20 p.m. in GBB123. Dr. Sobie will be speaking on "The Power of One: Ponheary Ly's Educational Development Efforts." Ponheary Ly is a grassroots development activist in Siem Reap, Cambodia.

Study Groups

I recommend that you participate in study groups to discuss readings and review for exams. Students who meet together in study groups tend to do much better on homework assignments and exams than those who do not. Keep in mind that even if you meet in a study group to discuss an assignment, the work you turn in must be written individually, in your own words!

READING/ASSIGNMENT SCHEDULE (SUBJECT TO CHANGE)

Readings listed for a given date should be completed PRIOR to class as we will be covering them in class. Readings are either in the McGregor text (denoted "M") or on Moodle (denoted "Moodle"). Any assignments are due at the beginning of class on the date listed or they will be considered late. All films listed will be shown in class, so there is no need to watch them before coming to class. They are available either on reserve in Mansfield Library or on line.

CITATIONS & PLAGIARISM

To avoid plagiarism you MUST cite your sources if you use a direct quotation, statistic, table, map, chart, or idea that is not common knowledge taken from course readings, lectures, movies, websites, or another source. Passing off someone else's work as your own (plagiarizing), even unintentionally, violates the university's code of academic conduct and will result in serious consequences. Citations for direct quotations and statistics MUST include a page number. Please see me if you have any questions about citations or plagiarism.

Forms of Citations

For this class, please use the Chicago method of citation (detailed below). For the Chicago Style of Citation, two forms of citation are permitted. These are (1) the traditional method of footnotes with a bibliography and (2) the now generally favored method of parenthetical references with a reference list at the end of the paper or poster. This guide follows the second, parenthetical reference method. Titles of works cited should be italicized.

Parenthetical References (Turabian, Section 10)

In the parenthetical reference system recommended in this guide, authors' names and dates of publication are given in parentheses within the running text or at the end of block quotations, and correspond to a list of works cited which is placed at the end of the paper. This list is arranged alphabetically by author's family names and chronologically within lists of works by a single author. It can be called "References."

Below, I detail what your parenthetical references in the text of your poster and your homework assignments should look like.

A. Parenthetical reference in which you use the author's name in the sentence:

According to Robbins (2005, 21), household debt in the U.S. reached $8.5 trillion in 2002.

B. Parenthetical reference following a quotation for a quotation less than 2 type-written lines long, without the author's name used in the sentence:

Steinbeck is an imaginative writer who sought to breach "the narrow constraints of conventional language" (Huggins 2002, 180).

C. If your quotation is more than two type-written lines, then you should indent it uniformly and single space it (with double spacing between rest of the text and the indented, single-spaced quotation):

Labor migrants who go abroad through unauthorized channels increase their risks of being exploited. As noted in the 1980 Thai Labor Code,

Those who deceive others by claiming that they have the ability to find them employment abroad or can send them abroad for training and ask for money or gifts or other benefits from the person they are deceiving must be punished with imprisonment of between three and ten years, a fine of between U.S. $1,622 and $5,405, or both (Damrong and Thipin 1985, 37).

Clearly, according to the code, migrants who use or attempt to use an unauthorized mode of recruitment have a limited recourse for obtaining redress from their recruiters.

(NOTE THE LACK OF QUOTATION MARKS AROUND THE LONG QUOTATION. THEY AREN'T NEEDED AS YOU HAVE ALREADY SET OFF THE QUOTATION BY INDENTING EACH LINE AND SINGLE SPACING IT!)

Examples

The following sets of examples illustrate parenthetical reference (PR) forms for use in your text and corresponding reference list (RL) entries for use in your reference lists. Keep in mind that your reference list should be alphabetized.

Quizzes and Homework Assignments

1. HW #1: Complete the on-line Moodle tutorial and post your photo on Moodle. Photo posting due 9/6/16 by 5 p.m. (Note: You may already have done this in an earlier class—if so, you don't need to do anything, and you will receive credit for your photo posting. If you do not want to post a personal photo, post a cartoon so that we know you've done it.)
2. Geography Quiz: At the beginning of class on 9/8/16, there will be a short quiz on the countries and capital cities of the region.
3. Citation quiz: Conducted at the beginning of class on 9/20/16. This short quiz will cover the Chicago citation method covered at the end of the syllabus and during the in-class citation workshop on 9/13/16. The quiz MAY NOT be made up, so be sure to come to class on time!

4. HW #2: Due at the beginning of class on 9/22/16.

In a typed, double-spaced paper, please answer the following questions about the reading assigned for today. You may write a separate answer for each question. Your paper should be a total of 1 ½ - 2 pages long.

- (1) In their article "Two Cheers for Sweatshops, Kristof and WuDunn explain some reasons why work in a sweatshop may be problematic. Based on the article, discuss three problems associated with sweatshop work in Southeast and East Asia.
- (2) Now, using evidence from Kristof and WuDunn (2000) to discuss why some workers and their families may think working in a sweatshop is beneficial.

Notes:

- (a) Be sure to use specific examples and quotations from the readings to support your analysis.
- (b) Be sure to cite these examples and quotations in your paper.
- (c) Please provide an alphabetized reference list at the end of your paper (can be on the same page as your 2nd response). The reference list will not count towards your overall paper length, so plan accordingly. The exact reference list entries you need are listed in the reading assignment schedule (above).
- (d) You should not do outside research for this short paper.

4. HW#3: Due at beginning of class on 10/11/16. Based on your understanding of Gillogly (2004), discuss three main problems with the way the Thai government has treated uplanders. Please follow the notes listed above for HW #3.
