

THINGS

...interest but the
 from the category and he (she was added) and a lobby grew sider may to were raised to a committal gauge, and the
 in) and can to the good old hotel me and my mental
 ing) secreted to the road's set to decipher row a past destiny
 I now seem for the sun and me, believe me not one of those date it is easy in the making as you have to it keep an eye but a destiny store where I once read a French detective tale honest rappers store where I once read a French detective tale on the class in my youth (once read a French detective tale where the shoes were actually in Italia, but that is not Mc-Fate's way - even if one does seem to recognize certain obscure For instance: I would not swear that there was not at least one occasion, prior to, 1972

★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★
 YOU MAY ALREADY BE A WINNER!!!!

I M T O

Flowers.—To dream you are gathering flowers, is a very favorable omen: expect to thrive in every thing you undertake, and that you will be successful in love.

Flying.—To dream you are flying, is a very excellent omen: it foretells elevation of fortune; that you will arrive at dignity in the State, and be happy. If you are in love, your sweet-heart will be true to you.

Clock.—To dream you hear the clock strike, denotes that you will be speedily married, and that you will be moderately successful in life. To dream you are counting the hours, if in the forenoon, shows much happiness.

Cross Purposes.—To dream that one plays at cross purposes, signifies prosperity, joy, pleasure, health, and concord.

Death.—To dream you see this grim-looking bundle of bones, denotes that you will either be speedily married yourself, or else die.

21
ETCETERA

THE PEOPLE'S ALMANAC'S
15 FAVORITE ODDITIES
OF ALL TIME

1. COINCIDENCE

On December 5, 1664, the first in the greatest series of coincidences in history occurred. On this date, a ship in the Menai Strait, off north Wales, sank with 81 passengers on board. There was one survivor—a man named Hugh Williams. On the same date in 1785, a ship sank with 60 passengers aboard. There was one survivor—a man named Hugh Williams. On the very same date in 1860, a ship sank with 25 passengers on board. There was one survivor—a man named Hugh Williams.