

7-9-1845

Letter to Philander Chase

Thomas Holme

Follow this and additional works at: https://digital.kenyon.edu/chase_letters

Recommended Citation

Holme, Thomas, "Letter to Philander Chase" (1845). Philander Chase Letters. 1246. https://digital.kenyon.edu/chase_letters/1246

This Book is brought to you for free and open access by the College Archives at Digital Kenyon: Research, Scholarship, and Creative Exchange. It has been accepted for inclusion in Philander Chase Letters by an authorized administrator of Digital Kenyon: Research, Scholarship, and Creative Exchange. For more information, please contact noltj@kenyon.edu.

J. Holms
England

E. Court on July 9th
Northallerton, 1845
Yorkshire

My Mother and Dear Sir

Having for several months been expecting to receive a letter from you, I am afraid that if you have written to me your letter has been lost - & that you may think me long in honouring you Dr. or James George's aid.
Since I last had the pleasure of writing to you I have received assistance from some new friends who singularly enough at the very time of my application were collecting subscriptions for some other benevolent cause which you had taken in hand —

I had a letter from Mrs. George some time ago giving an interesting acc. of your interview with her and also a painful statement of the privations to which she had been reduced — On mentioning this to our worthy Bishop he kindly begged that I wd request you to pay Mrs George L. O. on her own acct. This perhaps you will be able to do - I add it to the Coll. Bill -

It is lamentable to see that even in America the Tractarian love has been working and spreading so extensively - In our own Church I am inclined to hope that its popularity is on the wane, & that ultimately good will arise from evil - It is how ever grievous to think that in the best places of our Zion with some few exceptions The doctrine of Regeneration as necessarily accompanying the Sacrament of Baptism is so strongly maintained -

I am Right Rev. & very dear Sir with respect & esteem Yours faithfully

J. Holme