REPORT OF SCHOOL BOARD

The annual meeting of the School District was held March 14, 1925, and the following officers were elected: Harry G. Atwood, Moderator; D. Beatrice Smith, Clerk; James E. Fowler, Treasurer; Eugene C. Patridge, Auditor.

Christopher A. Pollard was elected a member of the School Board for three years.

The School Board met and organized as follows: Alice J. Patridge, chairman and clerk; James L. Coe, committee on repairs; Christopher A. Pollard, committee on fuel.

REPORT OF THE SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS

To the School Board and Citizens of Newfields:

I submit herewith my seventh annual report as superintendent of the Newfields schools, a report of the activities of the school year which ended June 30, 1925, and so much of the present year as has elapsed. The work of the teachers of last year, both of whom left us for much higher salaries in Massachusetts was of a very high order and they counted for good in the community in many ways. A good teacher cannot confine her influence to the school room and neither Miss Rowell or Miss Kingsbury cared to do so. The pupils whom they trained did good work in the school room and those who went on to High School have in general done well this year. None of the harmful influences in and out of school which had to be forcibly put down a year and a half ago has developed. In the main our pupils are well behaved on the street, they are certainly so in school. Miss Carpenter and Miss Varney are keeping good schools and will go on to better things, I am sure.

The policy which you adopted last year of shorter terms after Christmas and vacations to include holidays resulted in the addition of about ten days to the school year and no weeks broken up by holidays and that at no added expense to the district. The year had 178 days of actual school.

It will be noted in Table I that the percentage of attendance, that figure which tells of the actual school attendance of pupils rose last year to 94.8, which I think is the highest percentage the district ever had. This was due to the removal from town of some habitual offenders, to the efforts of teachers and attendance officers and to a general advertisement of the fact that children must attend school.

During the first part of the current year our attendance has kept up to that of last year, but at the present writing it is not quite so good. The weather has interfered more than usual and more than it ought to. The teachers have received specific instructions in regard to reporting offenders and in regard to holding school on stormy days and I think the record for the rest of the year will be better.

I think some form of transportation other than the train might be found for our pupils who attend school in Exeter. The pupils have to leave home very early in the morning and wait a long time for school to begin, but worse than that is the wait at the railroad station in the afternoon. The Exeter schools hold the pupils as long as possible at the school houses, but there is an hour or two after that which must be spent on the street or at the station. From the standpoint of morals and conduct such a wait is most undesirable. When they reach home the pupils have been away practically twelve hours—far too strenuous a day for young children. Would it not be possible to find a reliable person to transport the children by automobile at a reasonable rate?

Aside from the usual repairs the school house is in fair condition. A law passed at the 1923 session of the legislature requires a slight change in the locks of the outside doors to insure their perfect use as fire escapes. This change ought to be made at once.

It is a matter of regret that no health inspection was made last year. A combination of circumstances seemed repeatedly to prevent the school physician from doing what he had planned to do in this regard. The inspection has been made this year with the result shown in Table V.

It is with a deep appreciation of the co-operation of parents, citizens and School Board that this report is

Respectfully submitted,

CLIFTON A. TOWLE,
Superintendent of Supervisory Union No. 16.
