INTRODUCTION -

Purpose:

To help you make an informed decision about where to live next year.

How are we going to achieve this:

We will analyze the important characteristics of each dorm and compare them.

How we will analyze the characteristics:

The book “Student Learning in College Residence Halls : What Works, What Doesn't, and Why” by Gregory Blimling (2015) discusses the many factors that go into making a residence hall a great learning environment. We will use his findings.

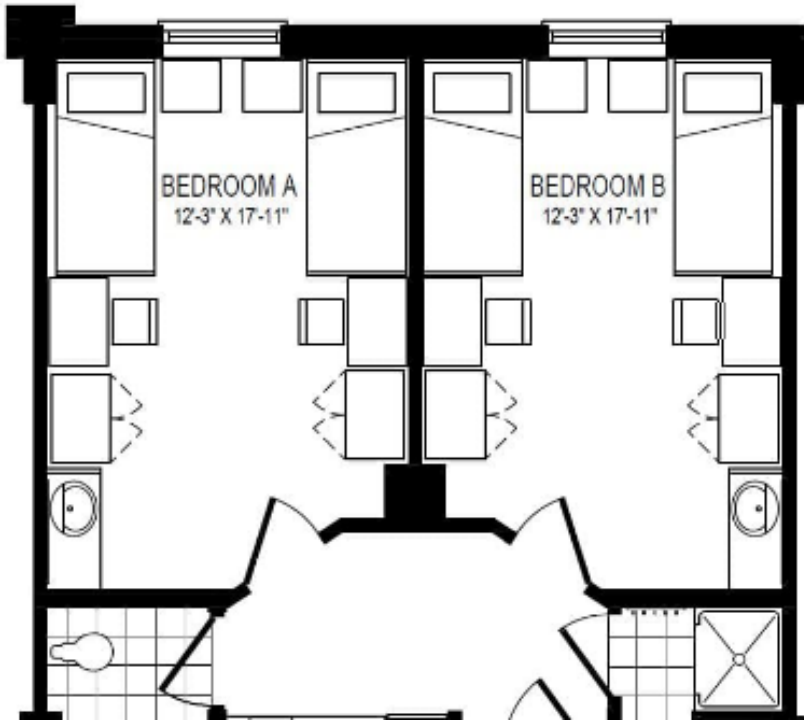

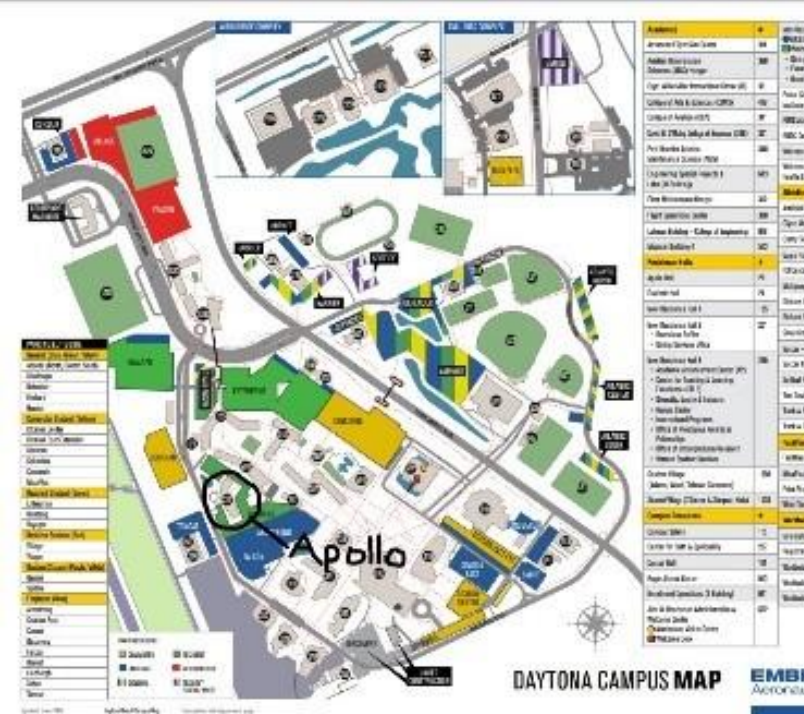

APOLLO -

O'CONNOR -

- O'Connor Hall is a five-story residence hall located in the student village next to Stimpson Hall.
- Suites consist of four bedrooms, a common room kitchenette, and two bathrooms.
- The bedrooms can either have one or two students each.
- The building also has multiple study and social lounges.
- $4450 per student per semester for private bedrooms, $3250 per student per semester for shared bedrooms.

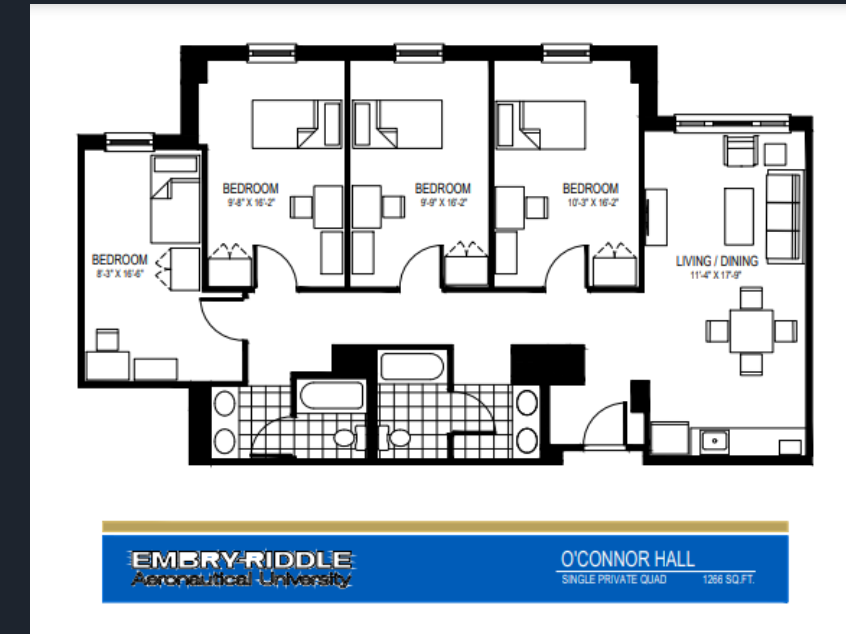

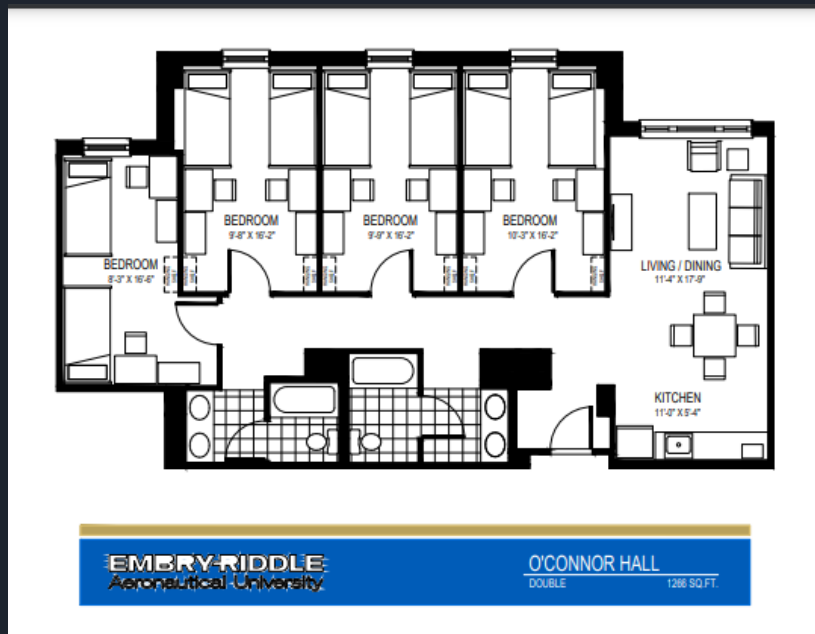

(O'Connor Hall)

LOCATION AND FLOOR PLAN

- Located near tutoring labs.
- Twin XL beds, desks and dressers in each room.
- Kitchenet contains full-sized fridge and Microwave.

(O'Connor Hall)

STIMPSON -

- Stimpson is a five-story residence hall located in the student village next to O'Connor Hall.
- Suites consist of either a single two-person bedroom or two single-person bedrooms, and a separate kitchen and living area.
- The kitchen features a personal stove top.
- The building contains many study and social lounges as well as a central reception desk.
- $3900 per student per semester.

(Stimpson Hall)

LOCATION AND FLOOR PLAN

- Located near tutoring labs.
- Twin XL beds, dressers, desks and chairs.
- Full sized fridge and microwave.

(Stimpson Hall)

ANALYSIS CRITERIA -

- American students like more privacy than students from other countries (Blimling, 2015, p. 186).
 - Individual bedrooms are preferred.
- Overcrowding, particularly three to a room, decreased learning ability significantly (Blimling, 2015, p. 186).
 - Limit the number of roommates.
- Students generally want AC, carpeting, classrooms, elevators, internet, kitchens, lounges, and laundry rooms close by (Blimling, 2015, p. 188).
 - Rooms should have these things.
- Students want rooms with big windows, neutral colors, overlooking greenspaces (Blimling, 2015, p. 197).
 - Have modern/clean architecture, preferably in open areas.

ANALYSIS RESULTS

	New
	Apollo	Chanute	Doolittle	Res 3	O'Connor	Stimpson
Affordability	2	2	2	1	3	2
Flooring	1	2	1	3	2	1
Kitchen	2	3	2	3	2	3
People/Room	2	2	2	3	1	2
Room Style	2	3	2	3	2	2
Near Class	3	1	3	3	2	2
Total	12	13	12	16	12	12

1 = Goes Against Criteria

2 = Neutral

3 = Meets Criteria

New Res 3, excluding the cost, is the best choice. It has a kitchen, individual rooms, and is the closest dorm to classes.

O'Connor, is the worst choice. While it is the cheapest option, it also has up to eight people in a suite and is in Student Village.

Because the rest are relatively neutral, personal preference will come into play.
