

Providence College

DigitalCommons@Providence

Commentary

Don Juan in Hell (1977)

Spring 4-19-1977

Letter from Dr. William J. Adams to Rev. John F. Cunningham, O.P.

Dr. William J. Adams

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalcommons.providence.edu/donjuan_commentary

Part of the Acting Commons

SAN DIEGO STATE UNIVERSITY

SAN DIEGO, CALIFORNIA 92182

College of Extended Studies
Summer Programs

April 19, 1977

Rev. John F. Cunningham, O.P.
Department of Theatre
Providence College
Providence, RI. 02918

Dear Father Cunningham:

Alice Barnhart has been transferred to Napa Valley, so I am answering your charming, kind, and witty letter of April 12. Will you allow us to carry it in our fall issue of Readers Theatre News.

We will be reviving Don Juan in Hell next fall on our Series, and you are right, we will not be able to match your clerical feat!

You are not alone, indeed. Readers Theatre dots the entire world -- Zambia, Zaire, Japan, Canada, Philippines, Mexico -- but the little pockets of frenetic activity don't know much about each other yet. That's where Readers Theatre News comes in.

It is a pleasure to add your name to our permanent mailing list with the hope that you enjoy our publication and find it useful.

Why don't you join us this summer for the National Summer Workshop? I promise you a memorable experience! Or, failing that, we'll be back in London for summer 1978.

Meanwhile, our best wishes for a happy and successful spring.

Cordially,

Bill Adams

Dr. William J. Adams,
Director of The Institute for Readers Theatre

WJA:fs
encl.