EXECUTIVE OFFICE

WELCOME TO WINDSOR

Through the medium of your printed program I am once again privileged to bring greetings to our visitors to Windsor on the occasion of the 32nd Annual Emancipation Day celebration.

In my own name, in the name of the members of City Council and the citizens of Windsor I extend to you a most cordial welcome.

Your presence here on Canadian soil is a tribute to your loyalty and appreciation for an act of social reform passed by the government of Great Britain on August 1st, 1834, abolishing slavery in the whole of the British Empire. From that day forward many hundreds of your ancestors sought refuge in Canada and with Terence, the freed slave of ancient Rome they could declare "I am a man - nothing human is alien to me."

Windsor takes pride in the large number of ethnic groups who live, work and play in a spirit of harmony, fraternity and goodwill. Naturally, through human frailty, there are differences and difficulties in many facets of daily living, but let me point out a high degree of community spirit and civic pride exists, and I need point to only two facts to emphasize this, one is the fine support given our Red Feather Campaign and the other is good labour-management relations the past few years.

You come here year after year to give thanks but also to promote the cause of justice and equality. Prejudice, based on opinion formed without time and care for fair appraisal takes patience and resourcefulness to overcome, but there are hopeful signs that benevolence will replace malice, charity will replace greed and exploitation will perish as the fires of tension, animosity and hatred are extinguished in the human breast.

We are in conscience and duty bound to promote the betterment of all groups, particularly their language, their natural gifts, their ancestral customs, their accomplishments and their endeavours in the social and economic order.

Biography Of The Reverend Wyatt Tee Walker

Executive Assistant To Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.

Southern Christian Leadership Conference

HIS JOB:

Atlanta's 34-year-old Rev. Wyatt Tee Walker is Executive Assistant to Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., who is President of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference. In this position, Rev. Walker is administratively second in command of the clergy-led S.C.L.C. Rev. Walker usually travels with Dr. King when the latter makes major civil rights appearances, "people-to-people" educational tours or wages protracted crusades like 1961's campaign to bring about integration in Albany, Georgia. On many occasions, when Dr. King's hectic schedule makes it impossible to make important appearances, Rev. Walker is deputized to represent him.

CIVIL RIGHTS BACKGROUND:

Former President, Petersburg, Va. N.A.A.-C.P. State Director (Virginia) Congress of Racial Equality. Member and Founder, Virginia Council on Human Relations (sole-biracial group in state working for desegregation).

Jailed in Petersburg, Va., as leader of ultimately successful protest against segregated libraries early 1960.

Jailed twice in 1961 in Alabama and Mississippi while serving as co-ordinator of Freedom Riders. His involvement with this movement led to Rev. Walker's appointment by Dr. King — first as Executive Director of S.C.L.C. and subsequent promotion to Executive Assistant to The President. With his wife, the former Theresa Edwards of Washington, D.C., Rev. Walker formed the first husband and wife team to be jailed in Freedom Ride movement.

During Albany, Georgia crusade, Rev. Walker took the full brunt of the day-to-day direction and administration of S.C.L.C.'s co-ordination work with Dr. W. G. Anderson and the leaders of the Albany Movement. Forbidden by S.C.L.C. to allow himself to be deliberately jailed, Rev. Walker handled national publicity, issued statement by and for Dr. King, stimulated sympathetic action around the nation and prompted raising of necessary funds.

Arrested in Shreveport, Louisiana and examined on "lunacy" charge after he had requested police authorities to provide protection for participants in prayer meeting.

PERSONAL HISTORY:

Born Brockton, Mass., August 16, 1929. Attended public schools of Merchantville, New Jersey. Virginia Union University, B.S., Chemistry and Physics, Magna Cum Laude, 1950. Virginia Union University, Graduate School of Religion, B.D., Summa Cum Laude, 1953. Post Graduate Work, Union Theological Seminary, N.Y.C.

OTHER DATA:

Former pastor for eight years of 166-year-old 10,000 member, Gillfield Baptist Church, Petersburg, Virginia. Member, Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity. Member, Board of Lott Carey Foreign Mission Convention.

In 1961, received National Civil Rights Award of I.B.P.O.E. of W(Elks) for "his steadfast and rewarding struggle in helping our people attain equality of opportunity in the United States." Appeared in the recent T.V. documentary "Walk In My Shoes" which graphically portrayed the civil rights struggle in America to-day. Featured recently on C.B.S. "Eyewitness To History" network commentary on Albany, Georgia.

NOTES:

Rev. Walker has been described as the "Tom Paine" of nonviolence.

A dynamic and inspired preacher and lecturer, Rev. Walker is considered one of the most articulate spokesman for nonviolence and its practical application to the American dilemma in race delations.

Mr. Walker is widely traveled in the United States and has been acclaimed as one of the outstanding civil rights personalities of this generation. His brilliant pastoral record, his identity with "cause" organizations, his penetrating religious mind and devotion to the non-dynamism and creativity to produce in him a maturity far beyond his years.

Guest Speaker . . .

MRS. MYRLIE EVERS

Mrs. Myrlie Evers widow of the Mississippi N.A.A.C.P. "Freedom Fighter" and dedicated national hero Medgar Evers who was assassinated in the driveway of his home in Jackson Mississippi will be the Emancipation Day speaker here in Windsor Sunday, July 28, 1963.

Mrs. Evers in a phone call to the Emancipation Headquarters at 789 Mercer Street stated that I am sincerely gratified and extremely happy to accept your invitation as your 131st Anniversary Emancipation Celebration spoken of the ending of slavery and human trading throughout the British Commonwealth of Nations and the British Isles.

Tell the Canadian people that I have a story to tell of "how I have and what it means to work for the freedom and constitutional Guarantees of the pursuit of Happiness at the Cost of Loosing your life in Mississippi."

Mrs. Myrlie Evers the new "First Lady" of the National Association for the Advancement of Coloured People (U.S.A.) stood before 30,000 audience in Chicago July 4, 1963, standing stately on the speaker's platform facing a dozen radio and television microphones, Mrs. Evers spoke quietly with tears streaming down her cheeks and choked with emotion of joy of pathos and sadness said with a warmth, with conviction and eloquence which made a majestic picture of hope and courage to thirty million American Negroes and countless numbers of White Americans and Canadians as she spoke. This giant-sized audience stood choked with intense, interest as did her two older children who sat in the front row.

MRS. MYRLIE EVERS

She said: "I accept this spingarn Award (highest award given each year to the Negro and White person who contributes the greatest toward the progress of the American Negro) for my deceased husband, Medgar Evers, as he would have personally accepted it — with a deep sense of humility and gratitude. He had more than a strong feeling about his work and the N.A.A.C.P. he loved both dearly, he loved his people, city, state and country to the extent that he worked seven days a week and up to 21 hours a day to help America be the type of democracy she should be. He stood for equal Justice and Freedom for all under the Law of man and God."

Two Hundred and Seventy-Five Organizations throughout the state of Michigan together with every Branch of the N.A.A.C.P. in every city in the State of Michigan and many church, civic, social and cultural Women's and Men's groups of Windsor and Ontario will join hands and hearts to see and hear and help Mrs. Myrlie Evers in her visit to Windsor, Ontario, Canada, Sunday, July 28, 1963, she will speak at 7:30 p.m. Services at Jackson Park.

All Clubs who wish to assist Mrs. Evers in her life's new adjustment Programme for herself and her children may call and register at 789 Mercer Street, Phone 253-6937 or in Detroit at the N.A.A.C.P. Branch on Dexter Blvd. or phone TO 9-6412 or TE 2-7252. Attorney Edward Turner, President of the Detroit and Michigan State Branches.
