Students Donate Sixty-Five Pints Of Blood to Army

Volunteers Deny Themselves Dairy Products and Food

Over sixty-five pints of Ursinus college blood were "shed" in Trinity church on May 5 and 6 when the Montgomery county blood donors unit visited Collegeville, but not one casualty was reported, according to Blanche Shirey '43, and William Daniels '43, chairmen of the project, sponsored by the combined Y's.

After denying themselves dairy products for four hours before their appointments, the volunteers, recruited from the Collegeville Flag factory, Superior Tube, and Jacobs Aircraft, as well as from the College, were rewarded by fruit juices, coffee, and cinnamon buns served by the College Canteen under the direction of Mrs. Jesse Heiges.

Although a few of Ursinus' sturdy lassies were turned away because they did not weigh enough, the unit did not stop for lack of "victims," but for lack of bottles. Every one was used by four o'clock except one. (It was cracked.)

The donors have more than bandaged arms to show for the encounter. Each came through with a certificate and a pin to show that they contributed their blood for their country.

BLAZERS AND MEDAL AWARDED AT ANNUAL WAA INSTALLATION

At the annual WAA banquet in the upper dining room on Friday, May 7, Nancy Landis '43, retiring president of the organization, had charge of the installation of new officers, while Miss Eleanor F. Snell made special awards to outstanding girl athletes.

New leaders for next year will be: president, Mildred Halbruegge '44; vice-president, Betty Umstad '45; secretary-treasurer, Betty Claves '46; senior representative, Jane Kircher; junior representative, Anne Baird; and sophomore representative, Tinker Harmer.

Marion Bright and Jeanne Mathieu received the scarlet blazers. This award is made to the girl who, at the end of her junior year, has the highest number of WAA points and has been outstanding in achievement in sports. This year, two girls received the honor. Mildred Halbruegge won the medal for participation.

For participation in class games, Doris Harrington won her class numerals, while Marion Stocker received a hiking slipper for hiking 800 miles.

PHYS. ED. CLUB HAS PICNIC

Having their final meeting in the form of a picnic, the Phys. Ed. club elected their officers for next year on Wednesday, May 5. Winners of the elections are: president, Anna McDaniel '44; vice-president, Grace Knopf '44; and secretary, Peggy Hudson '45.

After a strenuous softball game, the phys-edders sang songs around a campfire.

Goodyear Offers Women Positions

Engineering Scholarships Available to Students

Women students who have a sufficient background in mathematics may apply for scholarships in the Junior Engineer college training program for women.

The Goodyear Aircraft corporation, sponsors of the program, will give successful applicants six months' training at accredited engineering institutions, starting about June 1. Courses will include mathematics, mechanical drawing and aircraft studies. The corporation will pay tuition, board, and room and each student will be paid $50 per month while in school.

Upon completion of the training, the student will be employed in the various engineering departments of the Goodyear Aircraft corporation in Akron, Ohio, at salaries from $125 to $150 per month.

Applicants must pass a physical examination and must have successfully completed elementary college mathematics, including algebra and plane and solid geometry, must be above average intelligence.

Applications should be sent to the salary personnel department, Goodyear Aircraft corporation, Akron, Ohio.

English Club Draws For Books at Meeting

On Monday, May 3, when the English club met at the home of Dr. Norman E. McClure, Mary Virginia Ernest '43, reported on The Mountains Wait by Theodor Broch, and Adele Kuntz '45, reported on The Life of John Wollman by Janet Whitney.

Following the reports, the drawing of the books purchased by the club throughout the semester was held. Of the 14 books bought by the club, the people who were drawing books had a choice of 12.

No officers were elected nor were any provisions or plans made for the summer semester. For the fall term, Barbara Cooke '44, who is now secretary-treasurer, will automatically become president, and a new secretary-treasurer will be chosen.

DEBATERS ELECT KNIERIEM

Frederick Knieriem '46, was elected to succeed J. William Ditter '43, as president of the Men's Debating club at the regular meeting held on Monday, May 3, in the Freeland reception room. James Marshall '45, was chosen as manager and Calvin Garber '46, became secretary of the organization.

The club voted to buy Andrew Souerwine '45A, a copy of Wendell R. Willkie's new travelogue, One World, as a token of his part in the debate before the Phoenixville Rotary club. Reports were made on the victorious engagement with Villanova and on the more recent debate with the Moravian girls.

Dr. Lewis C. Scheffey Addresses Graduates At Seventy-Third Commencement Exercises

COMMENCEMENT SPEAKER

DR. LEWIS C. SCHEFFEY

Speaker Urges Grads To Accept Challenge to Service

"Your four years in college have coincided with a world at war, but the beginnings of the struggle go back to the days of your childhood," said Dr. Lewis C. Scheffey, Professor of Gynecology at the Jefferson Medical college this morning as he urged the graduates to accept a challenge to service at the seventy-third spring Commencement of the College in Bomberger chapel.

Dr. Scheffey said that the elders of our college men and women had an opportunity to create something worthwhile twenty-four years ago, but they ignored it. It is up to the young people of today to make certain that these responsibilities are not shirked again.

Stresses Peace for All

"And we again confront a similar situation—the necessity of overcoming an enemy in order to preserve eternal principles in which we truly believe, but which we are too often prone to disregard, and without the survival of which our very existence is threatened." The Jefferson professor went on to say that "Peace for us is dependent upon peace for all; the freedom of all must accompany our freedom."

Dr. Scheffey urged that we do not hate or condemn any one race because of the warped mentality that has misguided it. We in this country are fortunate in that we are the blended product of many lands. That very inheritance improves the fallacious dogmas of those who say that any one racial strain is consistently evil.

Background Needed

Today, technical and scientific backgrounds are needed to solve the problems of administration, rehabilitation, engineering, public health and sanitation. The heritage of the humanities and the liberal arts are essential to an understanding of the correlated social problems. And, the religious side must not be slighted in preparation.

"It is fortunate that you at Ursinus have had the opportunity of being well prepared in all these fields," stated Dr. Scheffey.

He concluded with the challenge, "If we can work and sacrifice to the limit for war, why can't we do the same for the peace of the future world?"

Portrait of Dean Unveiled Saturday Rev. Lampe Speaks At Baccalaureate

Highlighting the events of Alumni Day Saturday the unveiling of a portrait of Dean Whorten A. Kline in the library at 4:00 p. m. Following this a reception was held by President and Mrs. Norman E. McClure.

The Alumni dinner was held in the upper dining room with Dr. Charles A. Behney, a member of the Board of Directors and the graduating class of 1912, as the speaker.

Throughout the day the five-year classes held their reunions. The Alumni association held its annual meeting in Bomberger and the Alumni Athletic Club had a luncheon meeting at noon. The Board of Directors also held its annual meeting yesterday morning.

Miller Reminds Graduates

Mr. Charles H. Miller, secretary of the Ursinus Alumni association reminds all graduating students and others leaving school that they should keep the school informed on their addresses so that they can receive the Alumni journal and other alumni material.

Mr. Miller also explained that the seniors' first five years' alumni dues have been paid from their twenty dollar graduating fee.

FORUM COMMITTEE ELECTS OFFICERS FOR SUMMER, FALL

Electing Betty Freeman '44, and Lois Ann Fairlie '45A, to succeed Carol Swartley '43, as president, the Forum committee held their last meeting of the semester on Thursday, May 6.

These other officers will also serve this summer and next year: treasurer, Louis Oddo '46; advertising agent, Eleanor Grubb '44; and secretary, Margaret Brunner '46A.

One hundred thirteen seniors gathered together in the Evangelical Reformed church on Sunday to hear Reverend William Edmund Lampe, Ph.D., LL.D., wish them God-Speed in a troubled world.

Rev. Lampe, who is secretary of the General Synod and General Council of the Evangelical and Reformed church, told the graduating class they were especially fitted to carry the spark of Christianity to the world. Just as the twelve Disciples carried the word to a waiting world, the senior class may also serve by spreading the precepts of Jesus.

After discussing briefly the economic and political factors of world reconstruction, Rev. Lampe concluded that reconciliation must be accomplished by love and by love alone. Love can be instilled only by Christianity.

The organ prelude, Before the Image of a Saint, was given by George MacNeal '45, and Charlotte Wolfe '44, rendered the solo, O Lamb of God. Rev. Franklin I. Sheeder offered the prayer.

TWO WIN OPEN SCHOLARSHIPS

Two girls came out victorious in the open scholarship examinations given here by the College on May 1. They are: Marjorie Williams of Gwynedd, Pa., from Lansdale high school and Joan Wilmot of Oakmont, Pa., from Haverford township high school.

The scholarships, awarded annually, are for $300, renewable if a high scholastic standard is maintained.

F. & M. TO HEAR DR. McCLURE

President Norman McClure will deliver the Commencement address at Franklin and Marshall college on Sunday, May 23.

He will be given an L.H.D. degree by the college at the exercises.

ROBERT IHRIE AND ALVIN CREITZ LEAD GRADUATES

VALEDICTORIAN

ROBERT IHRIE

Claiming the highest class honors, Robert Ihrie and Alvin Jeremiah Creitz were named valedictorian and salutatorian respectively at the seventy-third Commencement exercises of the College in Bomberger chapel this morning.

Both men received a Magna Cum Laude citation. Others receiving this citation were: Gilbert Mathers Bayne, Margaret Elizabeth Herbert, and Llewellyn William Hunsicker.

Ihrie, whose home is in Allentown, is a history-social studies major and a member of Alpha Phi Epsilon fraternity. A member of the Weekly staff since his freshman year, he was sports editor for the past year and was

ASSOCIATED PRESS AWARDS SECOND PLACE TO WEEKLY

A second place rating was awarded to the Weekly by the Associated Collegiate Press's All-American Newspaper Critical Service, according to the judges' reports from May 6.

Papers are placed in classes according to the size of the college, and are judged with other publications in their class.

In a critical supplement, the Weekly was given a rating of excellent in covering the war effort.

The ten outstanding All-American papers were given the Pace-maker award. Receiving this honor were papers from the following colleges and universities: Carleton College, Northfield, Minn.; University of Wisconsin, Madison, Wis.; Syracuse University, Syracuse, N. Y.; University of Texas, Austin, Texas; University of Southern California, Los Angeles, Calif.; Wayne University, Detroit, Mich.; Emory University, Atlanta, Ga.; Macalester College, St. Paul, Minn.; University of Minnesota, Minneapolis, Miss.; Ohio State University, Columbus, Ohio.

STUDENTS AID CHARITIES

During the past year, Ursinus students have sponsored and supported various drives for contributions to charitable organizations.

The World Student Service fund received $172 from the College efforts, and students gave $140 for the support of a Spanish child. They contributed $67.75 to the Salvation Army and $55.55 to the Red Cross.

NEXT YEAR

Today, when we leave the campus and friends to return to our homes, we'll be taking one last look at the College as we have always known Ursinus. The next time we see this campus, it may not seem the same. With Navy men sharing our campus, we may find the life here a different one.

However, it will be up to us to keep this school as close to the old Ursinus as we can. We will be expected to keep the old spirit, to keep organizations as active as they have always been, to keep up our interest in studies, and to make friendships meaningful as we have always done. The seniors who will be leaving us today are counting on us to continue with our activities as we did when they were here. They will want to be able to return to the same school that they left. In spite of the war coming closer and closer to us by the Army calling our men and the Navy coming to Ursinus, we must endeavor to make it possible for them to recognize the school as their college.

Besides keeping up the old Ursinus spirit for the sake of our alumni and ourselves, we want to make the Navy men who will be coming here feel at home. We want them to be able to take part in activities and feel that they are a part of our institution. Instead of looking at them as outsiders intruding and coming here to break up our old routine, we must take them in and help them to be happy on this campus.

To the seniors who are graduating today—we wish you success. We know that we'll be proud of you in your work, and we hope that you will be proud of us as we endeavor to take your place here at Ursinus.

NEW EDITOR

Once more, The Weekly is changing hands. This time, Robert Tredinnick will become editor for the summer semester, while this staff takes over again in the fall. We say 'good luck' to him and his summer staff, and we know that he will carry on successfully the work of this paper.

A REAL HEROINE

There's more than one kind of hero . . . A small child stood in the street, unconscious of a car about to back into him. A passing coed ran out to pull the tot from the path of the wheels. He was saved. But several of Joyce's toes were crushed.

She wouldn't tell you a word about it, but we point with pride.

WHAT ABOUT RUSSIA?

The recent Polish-Russian squabble has brought to the fore more emphatically than ever one of the very important questions of this war and the peace that is to follow the United Nations' victory—the question of the attitude of Russia.

The issues of the dispute are relatively unimportant. The Poles charged the Russians with the execution of numerous captured Polish officers—to which charge came the Russian answer that the whole matter was attributable to German propaganda. Most recently it has been claimed that this Polish charge was used as a cover-up to conceal the Polish desire to prevent a force of Russian trained Poles from serving on the Russian front. This force of approximately 75,000 Poles obviously can we'll be used in alleviating the rather serious shortage of trained soldiers which is facing Russia after two years of costly fighting.

Whether the Poles or the Russians were right in their arguments is not to be decided here. The more serious question is that the unity of the United Nations was periled. Russia did not hesitate to take a positive insistant stand on the question. She was obviously determined that her desires be the ones to prevail. It seemingly meant little to her that the established Polish government-in-exile in London, which has consistently and as strongly as possible aided the Allied cause, should be sacrificed to another Polish exile government sympathetic to Russian aims which was proposed to be set up in Moscow.

This stand taken by the Russians is indicative of the Russian attitude. It cannot be denied that for Russia, the Russian aims came first. Their war aims are established and will probably be insisted upon by a victorious Russia striving to assume the dominant European position. England has already made evident its recognition of the Russia to come by completion of a treaty of mutual understanding between the two countries. She has indicated to the U. S. that we too should cultivate closer ties with Stalin's union of republics.

This is the war to end wars. War among nations can only be ended forever by a wise, just peace which must follow. Cooperation among nations is the crux of the problem. No nation can be allowed to dictate the terms in fulfillment of nationalistic dreams. All participants in this war at the peace table must forget war-provoking demands. Before all, as the guiding light, must be a desire for a world of co-operating peoples; decisions must be made with world interest as the motivating factor. Desires of Russia, of Great Britain, of the United States must be secondary if they clash with plans for a world state. At the peace table let the participating nations each have equal voice. Russia must not run the conference. Lasting peace is the aim and no one nation can be allowed to alter our stated aim.

Will Russia allow the re-creation of Estonia, Latvia, and Lithuania? Will she allow a deservedly proud Poland to live once more in the council of nations? The people of these countries must be given a voice—their Savior is not necessarily Russia. Till now Russia has assumed the major part of the brunt of the war. Our victory in Tunisia has somewhat equaled the score. We are all working toward the common goal. Let no one stand in the way of completing it. There can be no loss of the peace this time!

SUMMER EDITOR

ROBERT TREDINNICK

Tredinnick Will Edit Weekly This Summer

At a recent meeting of the Weekly Board of Control, Robert Tredinnick '44A, was elected to head the Weekly staff for the coming summer term.

Seven four-page issues will be published bi-weekly during the summer by the summer staff. The present staff, headed by Marion Bright '44, will take over again in the fall.

The board also elected Evan Snyder '45, to replace George Kratz '43, as business manager and Lou George '46, to replace Gilbert Bayne '43, as circulation manager for the summer and next year.

Joy Harter '46, and Frances Tisdale '46, will continue in their positions as editorial assistants during the coming term. Other staff positions will be filled at the beginning of the summer semester.

Tredinnick, who edited the Abington high school paper, has served on The Weekly staff since his freshman year and was an editorial assistant and columnist for the past year. A history-social studies major and a member of Alpha Phi Epsilon fraternity, Tredinnick has been elected president of the senior class for the summer term. He has been treasurer of the class since his freshman year. He is also a varsity football player, a thespian, and president-elect of IRC.

GAFF from the GRIZZLY

We're going to miss each and every one of the seniors, but a certain little grizzly is going to miss particular ones—but definitely. Don't know what he's going to do without Downsy and Munster. Or da-da-da Charlie. Or that tall, blonde math major who never did get her name in here.

Then there's Clark Moore and his Southern friend—could he have been dreaming about her that morning Dr. Miller caught him napping?

We'll miss good-natured Moose . . . Nancy Landis, the all-American girl — lucky Frank . . . Jack Thomas, Romeo, Romeo, wherefore art thou? . . . Betty Power, the wackiest woman west of the Perk . . . Helen Rogalinski and her "heeh" as the roll is called . . . Mary Alice, who thinks all phys-edders wear boots in the bath tub so that their athlete's foot won't get wet . . . Petunia's sleepy smile at eight o'clocks . . . that Shreiner-Sigma Rho combination . . . Nornie and her "Ripper" . . . red-headed Peggy Keagle, who lives for basketball season . . . Wilma MacCready and her bridge games.

What Next??

Those crazy 612 freshmen have been doing something new and different every day. Where do they get all the ideas?

In the Dining Room

Homer wonders what would happen if those Johnny cakes and Mary Anns got together.

Horsing Around

Sal Avella thought he had mistaken the stable door for Stine on Monday evening after the frat meeting. When he climbed into bed, grass had sprung up in his bed along with straw between the sheets.

Sprung

Spring does make us often tired; Lover's hearts are surely fired, and Hepcats are especially jivy Scratching itchy poison ivy.

Theme Songs

Show me the way to go home I'm tired cause I haven't been to bed; I had a stiff exam about an hour ago, And I now can't raise my head. OOoooooooooh!

Why Mabel!

Miss Stahr says she never spanked a Shreiner girl before, but . . . well, Mid?

Patriotic Coeds

It seems likely that Ursinus girls will be pursuing essential war jobs—Naval cadets.

Barking Dog

Ruth Titus couldn't help it if her foot hurt.

Red Cross Day

Irene Sufas wanted her blood sent to Texas. Among those who ate too much spaghetti and so took longer to fill the pint bottle was Rog Staiger. And, Bill, we'll miss you too.

Men Finish Intramural Games; Basketball Program is Success

by Robert Quay '46

On May 4 the men of the College closed their sports season. Although interscholastic contests were somewhat curtailed this term, Coach Pete Stevens and Coach Charlie Steinmetz, having organized a school basketball team and a school wrestling team, kept Ursinus represented in interscholastic competition, while at home an interclass battle was raging for the intramural plaque and the championship of the school.

At the beginning of the term, intramural basketball held the limelight. With 10 teams contesting for leadership, the games covered a seven-week period and the final tabulation of scores found the Rangers supreme with the Snipers, Commandos, and Pilots following in close order. In the Rangers-Generals battle, near the end of the race, the highest point total was registered. The Rangers triumphed 60-43, making the total number of points 103. Their 60 points was also the high mark in individual team scoring until the Commandos, not long afterwards, garnered 71 markers in one game. Dave Zeigler racked up a 30-point individual record and individual scores at the end of the program showed that he and George Moore had led the pack.

The varsity basketball team dropped contests with Swarthmore, Temple, St. Joseph's, and the Philadelphia Coast Guards, but succeeded in whipping Haverford and F. and M. Pre-Flight school. In the Temple game, March 2, the Owls piled up a 26-8 halftime lead and sped toward an easy 60-25 victory after Swarthmore had conquered the Bears, 50-26, the day before.

Breaking their losing streak, the courtmen topped Haverford the same week, 59-45. St. Joseph's, with the high scoring George Senesky knocked off Ursinus 77-35 in the first game of a triple-header at Convention hall. Although Senesky was not in his best form, he tallied 28 markers to raise his total to 474 points. The Philadelphia Coast Guards outplayed Ursinus 54-37, but the home team downed the F. and M. Pre-Flighters three days later to close their season with a victory. Stellar performances for Ursinus were registered by the high-scoring George Moore and his teammate Dave Zeigler.

Although Charlie Steinmetz's grapplers couldn't come through with a win, three of Ursinus' individual performers made out well in the Middle Atlantic States wrestling championships. Dick Schellhase, 136-pounder pinned Bodner of Rutgers to become

Frosh-Juniors Take Track Meet Easily

To insure their victory of the inter-class championship and overwhelm the sophs-seniors, the frosh-juniors took nine firsts in twelve events to win the track and field meet, 87½ to 20½ on Monday, May 3.

In the 100 yard dash, Milt Merrill outspurred Warren Brown and Dick Schellhase in a close race, while the 220 was won by Schellhase with John and Tom Rorer taking second and third respectively. Dick Hunter completely outdistanced Andy Bain and Pete Tenewitz in the 440 and again the frosh-juniors took three places. Warren Brown outran the Rorers and "Swede" Hansen in the 880.

Dick Eccles won the mile run in the long distance races while Hunter came thru leading the two-milers. Walt Beadling and Stan McCausland finished second in the two events.

"El" Shropshire won first place in both the shot-put and discus events and placed second in the javelin throw. Andy Bain won the event. George Kennedy placed second in the shot-put and discus and third in the javelin throw.

The high jump event resulted in a tie between Bill Grau and Pete Tenewitz. Merrill won the broad jump with John Rorer and Andy Bain following. George Moore pole-vaulted a first for the sophs-seniors. Jack Kemp placed second, while Grau and Schellhase tied for third.

The outstanding performers of the meet were Hunter with ten points in the track events and Shropshire with 13 points in the field events. Bain, with ten points in both track and field, aided the winners cause and Merrill gained ten points for the sophs-seniors, almost half their total score.

Frosh-Juniors Win In Baseball Contest

Blanking the sophs-seniors to the tune of 6-0, the frosh-juniors annexed the baseball championship on Wednesday, May 5, behind the three hit pitching of southpaw Johnny Rorer.

The frosh-juniors jumped to an early lead in the first inning without the aid of a base blow when, after Ziegler and Tom Rorer had walked, Rank, pitching for the sophs-seniors, threw the ball into center field in an attempt to catch Rorer off second. Both runners raced to score.

In the next frame, with two down, Simons connected for a single into right-center field, and scored a few pitches later on a wild pitch, bringing the score to 3-0.

The third inning saw the frosh-juniors' Ziegler lead off with a triple over Kilcullen's head. After Geist had fanned, Tom Rorer sent Rank to the showers with a base hit which scored Ziegler from third. Moore, sent in to take over the mound for the sophs-seniors, put out the fire with no further damage.

The winners finally caught Moore in the sixth inning, when singles by Tenewitz, Simons, and Drobeck, and two infield errors added up to two more markers.

Longest hit for the losers was Grau's fourth inning double into right field. The sophs-seniors made a serious bid for a score in the fifth frame when Lutz beat out an infield hit behind third base, advanced to second on Hunt's infield out, and reached third on a wild pitch. However, the run never came across, because Rorer clamped down and forced the last man, Moore, to bounce out, third to first.

At the close of the seven inning game, Rorer boasted ten strikeouts to his mound credit, and had allowed three hits and no runs. Only one runner had reached third base. Meanwhile, the winners had collected six runs and six hits.

SOFTBALL CLUB IS UNBEATEN AS GIRLS DOWN SWARTHMORE

With a fast game of five innings, the girls' varsity softball team completed an undefeated season by downing Swarthmore 40-5.

In the first inning, Ursinus scored three runs while Betty Kirilin made an excellent double play from 2nd to 1st, and Doris Harrington, on the mound, retired Swarthmore with no runs, no hits and no errors.

With freshman Courtenay Richardson's homer and Marion Bright's triple, Ursinus drove in 7 runs in the second inning. Swarthmore soon left their batting position with "Kirly" making another double play and Sally Secor tagging a runner off second base.

In the 3rd, Jeanne Mathieu made a homer and 8 runs came in for Ursinus while Swarthmore managed to score twice.

The fourth and fifth innings brought in 22 runs for the Ursinus ten and Swarthmore added three more to their score.

Girls Lose One Game All Year; Three Teams Are Undefeated

This year will go down in the annals of girls' sports as one of Ursinus' most successful years. With three undefeated seasons out of four, the Ursinus coeds lost only one game all year and totaled 336 points to their opponents' 205.

Starting off with a good season, the girls' varsity hockey team, led by Captain Nancy Landis, coveted their first undefeated season ever obtained by the girls in hockey. Five games were won and two were tied with Beaver and Bryn Mawr. Both seniors, Mammy Bricker and Nancy Landis, will be sorely missed next year, for at left wing and center half they were a constant threat to other teams ever since they earned varsity berths as freshmen.

Three of the Ursinus lassies made the All-college second team. Nancy Landis, Betty Kirilin, and Jeanne Mathieu were given this honor. Kirly, never having played hockey before coming to Ursinus, stepped into goalie pads and turned in a sensational record for the season.

The girls continued their winning streak in basketball and it was not until they met Temple that they tasted defeat. Doris Harrington, co-captain of the team and one of the leading scorers in Eastern Pennsylvania, finished her senior year on the court in a blaze of glory. Betty Kirilin, Betty Braddock and freshman Courtenay Richardson played aggressive, offensive ball all season.

This time, Doris, Nancy Landis, and Marion Bright made the first All-college basketball team. Nancy and Brightie are two of the best guards that Ursinus has ever had. Co-captain Peggy Keagle helped make up the famous man-for-man defensive that held back seven out of the eight colleges played.

The Temple-Ursinus game was one that will live on in the memories of both schools. It was skillfully played and a joy to watch.

Spring arrived, bringing bad weather, tennis and softball. Ursinus completed their fourth consecutive undefeated tennis season by beating Temple, Pennsylvania, and Swarthmore.

UNBEATEN URSINUS LASSIES WIN 3-2 OVER SWARTHMORE

Miss Snell's tennis proteges finally overcame the Swarthmore jinx by defeating them 3-2 last Wednesday afternoon.

Marion Bright, first singles, lost to Isabel Grant 4-6, 3-6, in spite of her superior form and numerous placement shots. Ursinus' first point was gained when hard-hitting-second-singles-player, Betsy Claves, downed Swarthmore's Joan Wheeler 1-6, 6-1, 6-4. Swarthmore again took the lead when "Mammy" Bricker, third singles, bowed to Peg Meeker, 1-6, 3-6.

Supper was over, the sun was setting. But the doubles matches continued. Tinker Harmer and Jan Shoemaker, first doubles contributed another point by defeating Ann Solis-Cholen and Ellis Bottman, 6-3, 4-6, 8-6. The second doubles combination of Peg Hudson and Jeanne Mathieu added the final point by overcoming Swarthmore's Anne Mills and Barbara Coles 6-4, 2-6, 10-8.

TENNIS PLAYERS BEAT PENN IN SPITE OF HIGH WINDS

In spite of a high wind, the Ursinus lassies defeated Penn's racket wielders, 4-1 on the home courts on Wednesday, April 28.

First singles Marion Bright downed Midge Haines, Penn sophomore 8-6, 6-3. Depending on her net game, Brightie calmly kept her opponent on the defensive. Betsy Claves, second singles, was beaten by Penn's Betsy Crothers, while Captain Mil Bricker came back to overcome her opponent, 6-0, 6-2, after losing the first set.

Both of Ursinus' doubles teams came through, easily winning two sets each. Although Tinker Harmer and Jan Shoemaker played many a deuce game, they overpowered their opponents to make the Ursinus score 3-1. Second doubles Jeanne Mathieu and Peg Hudson brushed aside their competitors 6-2, 6-4.

"VEGETABLES FOR VICTORY — AND I'M PARCHED"

"WHEN I'M THIRSTY - IT'S COCA-COLA FOR ME"

"When you're doing your Victory gardening, you'll welcome ice-cold Coca-Cola. Speaking for Coke, I'm here to tell you that ice-cold Coca-Cola brings you all the difference between something really refreshing and just something to drink. It has a taste all its own and quality you trust. Enjoy it whenever you can."

champion in his division; Stan Maykut took a second in the 128-pound class, Walt Hunt lost a close decision in the bout for second place in the 121-pound weight class. The matmen bowed to Swarthmore 28-8 and Haverford, 21-16.

In March, Coach Pete Stevens announced the big intramural sports program in which the sophs and seniors were to team up against the freshmen and juniors in competition for the championship plaque. A basketball game, a boxing and wrestling meet, baseball games, and a track meet, were planned.

Winning in the last minute of play 40-38, the soph-senior varsity garnered 10 points toward the plaque in the interclass basketball game. The frosh-junior varsity won 38-29, making the score 10-5. In the boxing and wrestling tournament, the sophs-seniors won 10 out of 14 matches and widened their winning margin by 13 points. The score then stood sophs-seniors 24, frosh-juniors, 11. Grau pitched a no-hitter for the sophs-seniors in the first baseball game, but the Rorer battery, playing stellar ball, beat the leaders in the second and third contests.

Marion Bright and Betsy Ann Claves, as singles turned in brilliant performances. Both doubles teams were undefeated, and Jeanne Mathieu and Peggy Hudson played their hearts out to win from Swarthmore and save the season for Ursinus.

All born softball players, the Ursinus ten netted 84 runs to their opponents 23. Homers were made by Jeanne Mathieu, Betty Kirlin and Courtenay Richardson.

Captain and first-baseman Mil Bricker, and Doris Harrington and Nancy Landis in the battery will be missed next year.

THE "T-ZONE"
-where cigarettes
are judged

The "T-ZONE"—Taste and Throat—is the proving ground for cigarettes. Only your taste and throat can decide which cigarette tastes best to you... and how it affects your throat. For your taste and throat are absolutely individual to you. Based on the experience of millions of smokers, we believe Camels will suit your "T-ZONE" to a "T."
