INSURANCE CLINIC SET FOR WEDNESDAY

The College Insurance Clinic will be held Wednesday, February 19, from 2:30 to 4:30 in PS-105, 107, 110, 121, 131 and 133.

Representatives from the various insurance companies will be on campus to answer questions or supply information. The clinic is being held in conjunction with the Open Enrollment Period of the Public Employees' Retirement System which will be in effect until March 10. During this period, employees may enroll in or change enrollment in basic health insurance without showing evidence of insurability.

Persons changing enrollment or newly enrolling in an insurance plan should sign up at the Personnel office before Friday, March 7.

INFORMAL HEARINGS
SCHEDULED ON HIGHER EDUCATION, BUDGET

On Monday, February 17, the Assembly Ways and Means Subcommittee on Higher Education plans to hold an informal and closed hearing on the reasons behind the problems and pressures in higher education today. The meeting will be at 1:30 p.m. in Room 4202 of the Capitol.

The hearing is to be held solely for the purpose of allowing any individual or group from college campuses to talk informally with members of the committee which has the responsibility for deciding the final budget for the State Colleges. The request is made to allow those who disagree with current administrative and/or legislative policies of public higher education to make some official comment.

+

The Education Sub-Committee of Assembly Ways and Means will shortly begin hearings on the budget for 1969-70 for the State Colleges. The committee is extending an informal invitation to any faculty or student group to appear before this committee before the formal hearings begin.

HOLIDAY March 21 has been designated as the in-lieu holiday in NAMED place of Lincoln's Birthday, which was a working day for the College.

On March 21 the College will be closed; however those persons who wish to work on that day and take another day as holiday should check with their supervisor and make other arrangements, if possible.

Washington's Birthday, February 22, will not be observed as a holiday, since it falls on Saturday.
