FESTIVAL OF THE ARTS AND HUMANITIES, FEB 26

a Festival of the Arts and Humanities being held on campus Thursday, February 26.

A concert by the 65-member University Concert Choir from Cal Poly, Pomona, and a talk by California artist David King are among highlights of Poetry reading and an Art Gallery reception are other happenings which are open to the College and the public, free of charge. Regular admission prices will be in effect, however, for the evening play, the opening performance of "Tobacco Road."

- IN LC-500 -

At noon a musical concert will be given by the Concert Choir and Kellogg Chamber Singers from Cal Poly, under the direction of Dr. Charles Edward Lindsley.

At 1 p.m. David King, whose work is on display in the Art Gallery, will give an illustrated lecture on "The Role of Visual Arts in Contemporary Society."

At 3 p.m. a poetry reading will be presented by members of the English Club reading their original poems, followed by Dr. Helene Koon, Chairman of the English Department, who will read a selection of her poems.

At 4 p.m. the Art Gallery will be the setting for a reception, open to all, where visitors will have an opportunity to meet Mr. King and view the exhibit.

At 8:15 p.m., "Tobacco Road" will be presented in an opening night performance in the Little Theatre.

BLACK HISTORY WEEK OBSERVED

Cultural events, a discussion by community leaders, and a two-day basketball tournament will mark the observance of the College's Black History Week, sponsored by CSCSB BSU.

Teams competing in the tournament will play Saturday and Sunday, February 21 and 22, in the Gymnasium.

- IN LOWER COMMONS -

(2-6 p.m.)

Wednesday events (Feb. 25) include a seminar on the contribution of Black Americans in American culture. Participating will be representatives from various professions and community leaders from San Bernardino and Los Angeles.

Gospel music will be another Wednesday feature.

Thursday (Feb. 26) events will feature BSU members from local high schools participating in art exhibits and talent shows. Excerpts from "Wine in the Wilderness" will be presented during the afternoon, sponsored by the Inland Empire section of the National Council of Negro Women.

TENTH ANNUAL COMMENCEMENT
SET FOR JUNE 12

The College will hold its Tenth Annual Commencement Saturday, June 12, 1976 at 10 a.m. on the South Lawn of the Gymnasium. An estimated 700 seniors and graduates will be eligible to participate in the outdoor ceremony, including graduates from the Summer and Fall, 1975 classes and the members of the Winter and Spring, 1976 classes.

Last year plans were under consideration to hold the ceremony in an amphitheatre to be constructed across North Park Blvd. from the campus by the San Bernardino Re-development Agency to house a bicentennial pageant. However, due to lack of funding, the project has been cancelled.

College commencements have been held on the Gymnasium lawn since 1973 when the event outgrew the Gym's seating capacity.

An exciting opportunity is offered members of the CSCSB community to participate in the 1976 Operation Crossroads. Each year the non-profit, non-governmental organization sends several groups of about 10 men and women to Africa for two months. With counter-part groups of African students they live in a rural area and work on a project. Sample projects include public health work in Eastern Nigeria, reforestation in drought-stricken Sahel area and a community development project in Ghana. Those interested should contact the campus Crossroads Africa Committee, Ext. 7395.

IMPORTANT HEALTH NOTICE! A unique program of multiphasic health testing is being offered to all faculty, staff and their families (age 13 and above) by the ACSUP. In 40 minutes over 50 different test criteria are taken in a modern, mobile testing unit staffed with paramedical personnel. Computer reports are sent in three weeks to your physician and confidential. Cost is $69 per adult (age 18 and above); $50 per child (13-17 years). ACSUP members qualify for a discount on the prices. The Health Van will be on campus March 18 and 19. Call, toll-free, 800-432-7061 between 1 and 5 p.m. for reservations. For further details call J. Urata, Ext. 7411.

Volunteer typists to work on the Faculty Wives' second cookbook, "College Courses," are needed. Proceeds from the book's sale go toward supporting community service projects. Those who could donate some time should call Kyla DeRemer, 883-9933, or Antreen Pfau, 883-7654 as soon as possible.

PERSONALS

The College extends best wishes to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Warren (Physical Plant) on the occasion of their marriage on Valentine's Day, Feb. 14, in Las Vegas. Mrs. Warren, formerly Betty Wolters, Supervising Custodian, has resigned her position effective March 1.

CREATIVE ARTS BUILDING
PRESENCE FELT ON CAMPUS

Already making an impressive outline on the campus horizon, the Creative Arts Building, despite a loss of five panels which were blown over in December by strong winds, has a total of 25 out of 95 tilt-up concrete wall panels erected to form impressive wall structures. Many others are poured, ready for placement.

The contractor appears to be making up the time lost due to the wind damage, and if the present schedule of work continues, the building should be ready for the anticipated Fall, 1977 occupancy.

BAND FOR ALL SEASONS

FEBRUARY 29, AT 7:30 P.M.

Two "oldies but goodies," two contemporary pieces and an 1840 selection in recognition of the bicentennial year, will be performed by the Cal State Concert Band Sunday evening, February 29.

Music by two ensembles within the band, woodwind and brass, will also be a part of the program, which begins at 7:30 p.m. in PS-10. Dr. Arthur Moorefield directs.

Bagley's "National Emblem March" and Holst's "First Suite in E Flat" are the standards; Forsblad's "Concertata" and "Chant and Jubilo" by McBeth are the modern pieces; the "Tippecanoe Quick Step," written in 1840 by Henry Schmidt is the fifth selection.

Four trumpet players will be featured in the brass ensemble, directed by Steve Pargmen, graduate assistant.

The College and public are invited to attend the concert, free of charge.

RUSTIC SET FORMS
BACKDROP FOR PLAY

A ramshackle old shanty made from wood planks taken from derelict buildings in the San Bernardino area, its interior papered with newspapers and curtained with burlap, is featured in the set designed by Pat Hadlock for "Tobacco Road."

The stark, realistic rusticism of the set provides the squalid backdrop for the play which opens Thursday, February 26, 8:15 p.m. in the Little Theatre. Set in Georgia in the 30s, it is a drama of humor and pathos telling of the pitiful life of a back country family.

William Slout, Assoc. Prof., Drama, directs the play, which will also offer performances on Feb. 27, 28; March 2-6.

A special Wed., Feb. 25 performance will be given at 8 p.m. for faculty and students of the UCR Drama Department.
